It's The End Of An Era At Old City Hall

By BRYCE W. ANDERSON

If the San Rafael City Council completes work at its 7:30 p.m. meeting today on the $4 million-plus city budget for fiscal 1967, it will be the last council meeting in the 57-year-old city hall.

The council has scheduled its Aug. 1 meeting for the new city hall on Fifth Avenue opposite D Street. City offices are to move into the new quarters over the weekend.

Last meeting of all in the old hall at Fifth Avenue and A Street will be a planning commission meeting next Tuesday night.

The $4 million budget and the new city hall, which cost over a million, are a far cry from 1909, when the city moved its offices from upstairs of its old wooden firehouse on C Street between Fourth and Fifth to the then-luxurious quarters at Fifth and A.

In those days, the city was run by a board of trustees. M. J. Pedrotti was board president when the move was made. Other trustees were J. H. Follis, J. M. Foge, J. B. Lovell, and James Begley.

Exactly when the city hall at Fifth and A was occupied cannot be learned from city records. The minutes of the city council meetings of that period are unclear as to that.

City Clerk Eugene W. Smith—who started the minutes of each meeting in flowing Spencerian but often trailed off to a scribble by the end of the page—recorded that an ordinance permitting meeting in the new city hall was adopted 5-0 on March 15, 1909.

However, there is a hint this may have been legalization after the fact, for earlier the board had hired August Myer, at $60 a month, as janitor of the new hall effective March 1.

The city had purchased the lot at Fifth and A for a municipal building in 1900 from Livingston and May Harley Jenks; the price, $4,000. (Much later, in 1937, it bought an additional 80 feet at the rear from Enrico and Maria Caletti and George A. Shields for $12-764.19. The Independent-Journal press room now extends into that portion.)

On April 16, 1906, San Rafael voters authorized a $25,000 bond issue to build the city hall (the million-plus new one is being built without a bond issue).

Marin Votes To Rent Space In Sonoma Jail

Supervisors See, Act Quickly On Crowding

BY RICHARD LYTTLE

Complaints by a municipal court judge over conditions in Marin County Jail prompted some action by supervisors yesterday, along with request for study of several suggestions.

The board voted to send all prisoners to county jail terms to the new Sonoma County Jail. Some have already been sent there at $4.50 per prisoner per day when the jail in the Marin courthouse basement has become too crowded.

Sheriff Louis P. Mountanos told supervisors yestereday that he would have to check with the sheriff of Sonoma County to see if all Marin's sentenced prisoners could be sent there. He went to Santa Rosa today to check with Sheriff John Ellis.

If approved, it would leave only those prisoners awaiting trial in the Marin jail. This would cut the Marin jail population almost in half. As of yesterday, it had 66 prisoners, of whom 30 were serving sentences.

SERIOUS PROBLEMS

The move would clear up one of the serious problems cited by Municipal Court Judge Alvin H. Goldstein Jr. when he appeared before the board earlier yesterday to say the jail was not fit for humans, prisoners were not protected from injury by other prisoners, and prisoners were not properly segregated.

He also cited the lack of ventilation and exercise, told supervisors how some prisoners had been beaten and harrassed by other prisoners, and charged that one had been attacked by a jailer.

Supervisors took a tour of the jail at noon to see for themselves. The tour included a lunch of jail fare: chili con carne, bread and coffee.

SEVERAL IDEAS

They returned to the Civic Center with several ideas.

"The day room is not a day room at all," said Supervisor Byron W. Leydecker. "It's a nightmare."

He cited the lack of light and ventilation, asking if something could not be done to improve conditions. He suggested providing checker and tennis tables to give some recreation besides the television and radios.

Supervisor Peter H. Behr suggested part time use of the dining hall as a second day room, providing more space and greater chance for separation of prisoners. He also said it could be used as a large dormitory for the more orderly prisoners, and

Brown, Reagan Agree To Meet In TV Debate

SACRAMENTO (AP)—Negotiators for Democratic Gov. Brown and Republican Ronald Reagan today prepared to work out ground rules for a televised debate pitting the governor agains the actor - politician.

"We are pleased that the governor has accepted Mr. Reagan's challenge to debate," said Philip M. Battaglia, statewide chairman for the Republican candidate for governor.

"We are hopeful, however, that the governor intends, as does Mr. Reagan, to stick to the issues which confront the state and not attempt to indulge in personal attacks."

Brown said, "I want my opponent to know that it will be a hard - probing encounter exposing the ultra-conservative views of my opponent which he has so far succeeded in disguising or evading."

Thus the contestants yesterday

CAPE KENNEDY, Fla. (AP)—After a space suit test produced no new eye irritation, astornaut Michael Collins received a green light today for a late afternoon space walk as Gemini 10 closed in for a rendezvous with an old Agena satellite.

The Mission Control Center gave a firm go-ahead early this afternoon for the hour - long stroll, scheduled to start about 6 p.m. (EST).

The test was added to the flight plan to make certain there was no recurrence of a chemical fume problem that caused the astronauts' eyes to smart yesterday and cut short a "space stand" by Collins.

One of two suit fans that circulate oxygen was turned off. This reduced the possibility that lithium hydroxide—believed to be the cause of the irritation—would seep into the system.

As the test was conducted, command pilot John W. Young and Collins, still hooked to one Agena rocket, executed a series of tricky maneuvers aimed at catching another Agena about an hour before the space walk starts. This is an Agena left in space last March by Gemini 8.

At 1 p.m., Gemini 10 trailed the target by about 250 miles.

Before catching the Agena 8, they plan to discard Agena 10 after being linked to it nearly 39 hours.

The crew awoke about 8 a.m. after nine hours of sleep.

Young, a Navy commander, and Collins, an Air Force major, were told to use a secondary propulsion system in their Agena to change their orbital plane and adjust their height so they could jockey into a position to rendezvous with the old satellite.

Flight officials on the ground continued studying the problems of low fuel and smarting eyes as the astronauts spun 240 miles above the earth.

William C. Schneider, Gemini mission director, said: "We feel

Skelton's Wife Is Recovering

LAS VEGAS (UPI)—Georgia Skelton, 42, wife of comedian Red Skelton, remained in satisfactory condition at Sunrise Hospital today after accidentally shooting herself in the chest in her room at the Sands Hotel.

Mrs. Skelton told police she was moving things around on her night stand shortly after midnight yesterday and apparently brushed against a .38 caliber pistol she kept there. She said the first thing she knew of the shooting was when she felt a sharp pain.

Skelton was doing his midnight show in the hotel and was unaware of the accident until after his performance. He visited his wife in the hospital and then returned to the hotel.

Californians Smoking Less, Taxes Indicate

SACRAMENTO (AP) —State Controller Alan Cranston today reported a slight decrease in revenue from California's cigarete tax. He said the decrease, in view of a steadily rising population, indicated that Californians are smoking less.

The 5-cent-a-pack tax on cigarettes yielded $74,308,541 during the fiscal year ended June 30, compared with $74,514,997 the previous fiscal year.

Boy, 2, Crushed To Death Under Car Near Novato

A 2-year-old San Francisco boy was crushed to death when he was thrown from his mother's overturning car and it rolled on top of him on Highway 101 just south of the Sonoma County line at 4:20 p.m. yesterday.

Stephen O'Connor, only child of Mr. and Mrs. Jarath T. O'Connor, was pronounced dead on arrival at Petaluma General Hospital a few minutes after the accident.

His mother, Mrs. Iris Martha O'Connor, 26, was listed in fair condition today at Kaiser Hospital, San Francisco, where she was taken after treatment for a broken spine and multiple bruises at the Petaluma Hospital.

The California Highway Patrol reported that Mrs. O'Connor was driving south about 55 miles per hour when her car swerved into the dirt ditch at the center of the highway. The ditch is about a foot lower than the pavement.

Rather than stopping in the ditch, Mrs. O'Connor attempted to return to the highway, but

Survivor Inspects Speck In Hospital

HEART ATTACK

He may have been further weakened, doctors said, by a heart attack which he may have suffered shortly before his face-to- face meeting with the nurse yesterday.

Was he the same man who had managed to subdue, gag, bind and then kill eight young student nurses early Thursday?

Corazon Amurao, 23, a Filipino exchange nurse who escaped the fate of her roommates by rolling under a bed and praying as they were led, one by one, to their deaths, was there to answer that question.

The Chicago Sun-Times and the Chicago Tribune in today's editions both said Miss Amurao had identified Speck as the intruder.

ATTORNEY MUM

However, the state's attorney's office refused to give any information on the confrontation or to comment on the newspaper reports.

Dr. William N. Norcross, the city jail physician, said in a medical bulletin that Speck may have suffered a heart attack shortly before the incident.

Dr. Norcross said Speck complained of chest pains, was restless and was trying to sleep.

He said tests would be conducted today and tomorrow to determine Speck's condition.

SPECK DEPRESSED

He said Speck was depressed during the confrontation with Miss Amurao and remained depressed after she left.

The City Jail Hospital administrative director, C. William Ruddle, said Miss Amurao, dressed in a nurse's uniform, was taken by Dr. Norcross to Speck's room.

Ruddle said Dr. Norcross spent five minutes examining Speck as Miss Amurao stood behind him. Dr. Norcross did not observe the girl's reaction, he said, nor did he hear her say anything.

A spokesman at South Chicago Community Hospital, where the eight students were in training said Miss Amurao was placed under sedation.

Hog Cholera At Petaluma Fair

SACRAMENTO (CNS) — Exposure of swine exhibited at the Sonoma-Marin County District fair to hog cholera is not expected to affect showing at other district and county fairs nor the California State Fair and Exposition, the State Division of Fairs and Expositions announced today.

All swine on show at Petaluma were put under an 18 day quarantine, which prohibited some of the animals being taken to the Sonoma County Fair of Santa Rosa. Department of Agriculture officials are investigating the extent of the disease. However, it is expected that the quarantine will be lifted before most of the district and county fairs are under way.

Officials said all animals exposed to the disease were treated with anti-cholera serum.

Lifting Body Passes Second Landing Test

EDWARDS AIR FORCE BASE (AP) — The M2F2, the wingless, pie-shaped experimental re-entry vehicle, has passed its second test: a 450 mile an hour skid from 45,000 feet to a 20m.p.h. landing.

Spokesmen for the National Aeronautics and Space Administration said the yesterday test of the M2F2, dropped from a mother plane, came off "without a hitch, beautifully."

NASA chief test pilot Milton O. Thompson was at the controls for the four-minute flight which was completed without using the four jets mounted at the rear of the two and one-half ton craft.

The M2F2, called a lifting body, is flat on top and has a rounded bottom. It produces enough lift by its odd shape to give stability and control at high speeds.

Scientists envision the M2F2 concept for space vehicles that can re-enter the earth's atmosphere from space flights — a trick that would tear the wings off a normal airplane—and maneuver to a controlled landing at an airfield.

Telephone service was not disrupted.

The strikers claim a clerk in one of the offices was assigned to duties normally handled by union members.

FUNDS QUIZ NEXT IN DODDS PROBE

Publicist Klein Denies Ever Pressuring Senator For Favors On Trip To Germany

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate Ethics Committee indicated today its next round of hearings on misconduct charges against Sen. Thomas J. Dodd will deal with the Connecticut Democrat's financial affairs.

Chairman John Stennis, D-Miss., told a reporter he will announce the subject and the date for the hearings just as soon as he can. But he said he had no definite information at this time.

OTHER CHARGES

Stennis said that progress was being made in investigating other charges against Dodd, that financial records and other data were being checked.

Indications were that this phase of the committee's investigation will go beyond the raising of campaign funds and the use made of them by Dodd.

The bipartisan committee's first round of hearings, to explore Dodd's dealings with Julius Klein, owner of a Chicago public relations firm and a registered agent for West German business interests, ended late yesterday.

PRESSURE DENIED

Klein spent the day in the witness chair. On a key issue, he insisted he hadn't pressured Dodd in going to West Germany in 1964 to help Klein retain his clients there.

"I don't know a single United States senator who can be pressured," said Klein, who testified all his letters, memos and telephone calls to Dodd were just the exercise of his "God-given right" of petition.

Klein, a Republican, said he also had asked Sen. Jacob K. Javits, R-N.Y., and other senators to speak to German government and industrial leaders in his behalf. Javits later told a reporter he had mentioned Klein in talks with former Chancellor Konrad Adenauer and former Foreign Minister Heinrich Von Brentano.

JAVITS EXPLAINS

Javits said in both cases his discussions dealt with Klein's views on German reparations to Jewish victims of Nazi prosecution. "I thought Klein's position reflected credit on him," Javits said.

Dodd, who stayed away from yesterday's hearing, previously had sworn the purpose of his six-day trip to Germany was to investigate the Soviet terror apparatus.

Klein said that when he learned Dodd was going, he encouraged him to make the trip and to counter "distortions" in the German press about a 1963 Senate Foreign Relations Committee probe of foreign agents.

However, he testified that not a single one of his West German clients who had canceled their contracts after the 1963 investigation had been "salvaged" as a result of Dodd's trip.

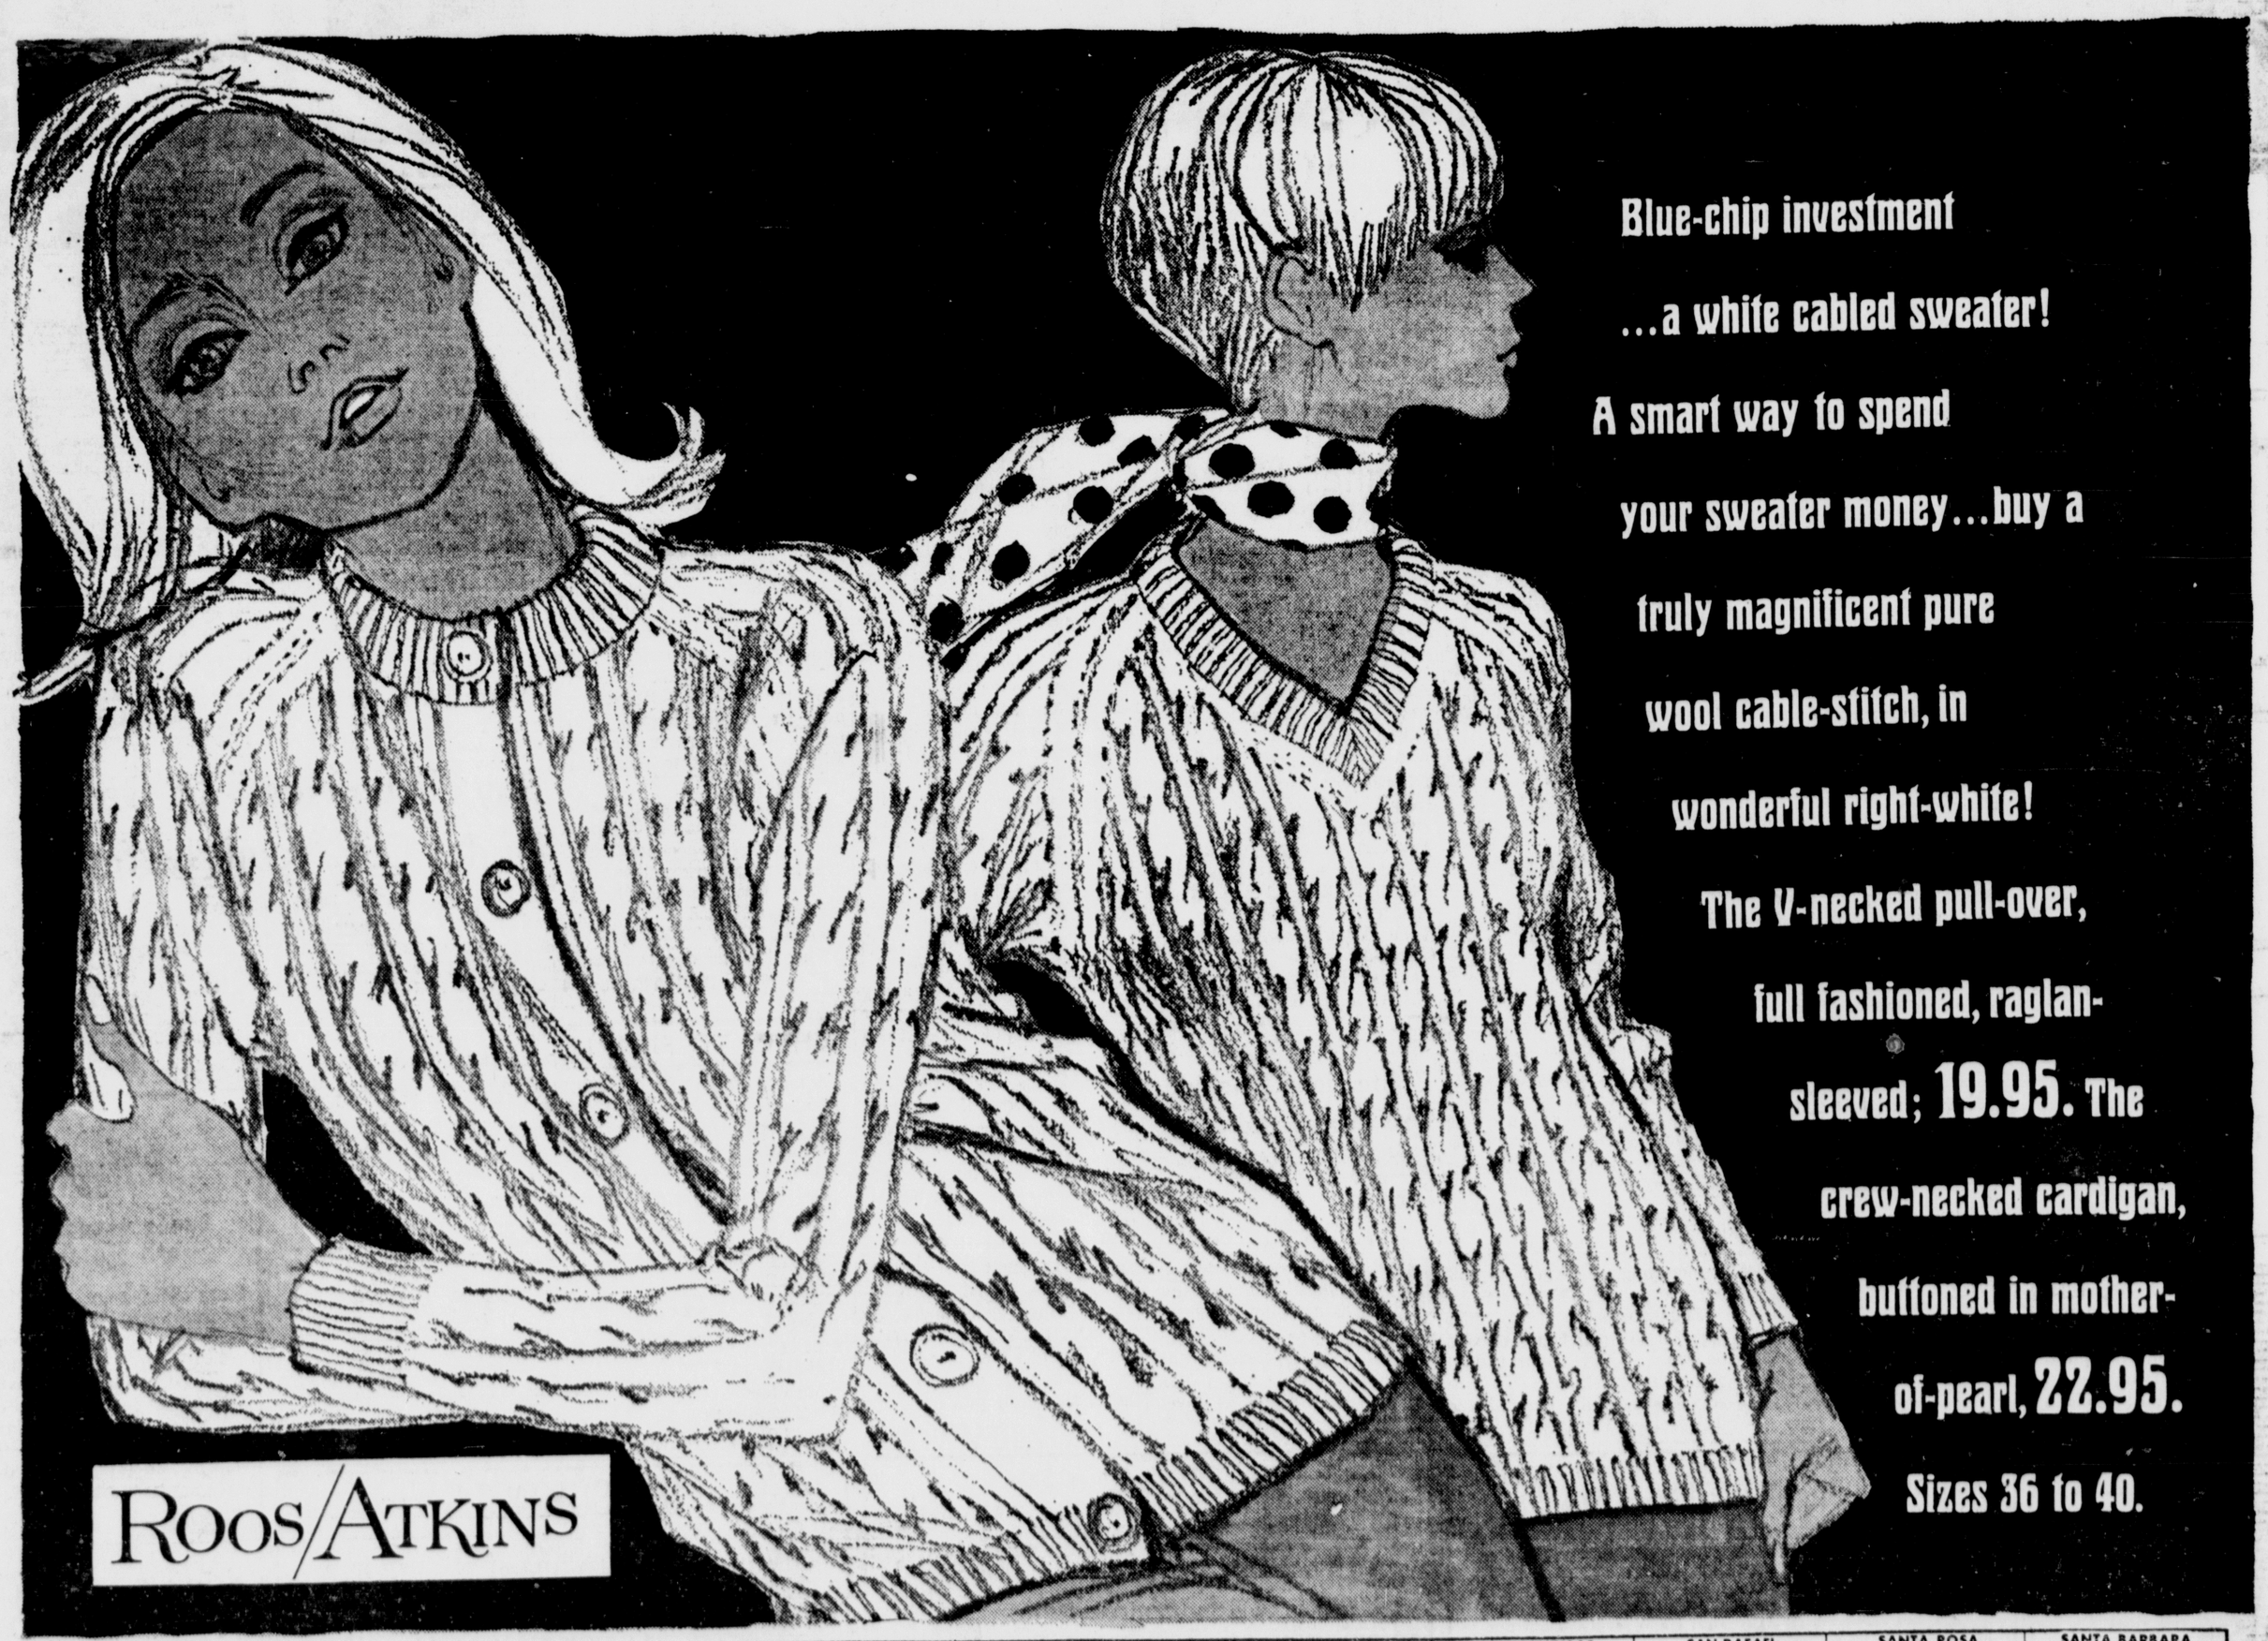

"Would you say that Senator Dodd's trip was personally helpful to you?" asked the Ethics Committee's counsel, Benjamin R. Fern.

'I'd rather put it the other way," Klein replied. "It surely didn't do me any harm."

Klein said he had made campaign contributions to Dodd and let him make free use of his $700-a-month suite in the Essex House in New York when it was unoccupied. But he denied giving Dodd a Persian rug or any expensive gifts as charged by columnists Drew Pearson and Jack Anderson.

north of Hanoi, a spokesman said. American pilots claimed damage to three MIGs but saw none go down.

On the "peace" front, the South Vietnamese government with apparent U.S. blessing offered to end the war, including the air strikes against the Communist North, and begin talks toward reunification of North and South Viet Nam if the Viet Cong disband and Hanoi withdraws its troops from the South.

The South Vietnamese said also American troops would be asked to leave the country if the Communists stop fighting. Gen. Nguyen Van Thieu, chief of state, said the Communists have lost all hope of winning the war in Viet Nam.

The announcement came in the form of a proclamation on the anniversary of the Geneva agreements which partitioned the country at the 17th parallel into North and South Viet Nam 12 years ago. The Vietnamese call it "the day of shame," or "national shame day."

Thieu and Prime Minister Nguyen Cao Ky presided at a ceremony in front of Independence Palace. More than 3,000 persons were on hand to witness the pomp and ceremony of a Vietnamese national observance.

Sixteen North Vietnamese prisoners were freed in honor of the national observance, but three of them refused to return to their homes in the north.

American officials said today U.S. planes probably will not hit the three jet air bases near Hanoi unless the North Vietnamese air force becomes more of a threat.

A Defense Department spokesman said the bases are a latent threat.

But he added: "Until North Viet Nam puts up a substantial challenge to our air operations, the fields probably will remain a lower priority target."

In May, after a rash of dogfights between U.S. and Communist planes, U.S. officials implied that the air strips would be attacked if more American planes were shot down.

Since then, according to the Pentagon, two American planes have been lost in air fighting.

In the ground war, U.S. jets and artillery pounded Communist positions in the jungles of the Song Ngan Valley just below the 17th Parallel frontier as 7,000 American Marines and South Vietnamese troops carried Operation Hastings into the sixth day. The main target of the aerial barrage was Hill 208, site of numerous bunkers and foxholes. A spokesman said 11 bunkers had been destroyed or damaged.

Ground fighting appeared to have tapered off against units of the North Vietnamese division which intelligence says recently infiltrated across the six-mile-wide demilitarized buffer zone separating North and South Viet Nam.

The enemy force, in an unusual appearance in camouflaged uniforms and steel helmets, advanced within 15 yards of the U.S. infantrymen before being repulsed, a U.S. spokesman said.

Pilot Trial Hit, Even Without Executions

COMBINED AP & UPI

WASHINGTON--Sen. Everett M. Dirksen says that even if no executions are ordered, "the American people will want to go whole hog" against North Viet Nam if Hanoi puts captured U.S. pilots on trial.

Views similar to that expressed by the Senate Republican leader at a news conference yesterday were reflected in statements by Senate Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield and Sens. Thomas H. Kuchel, R-Calif., and John Sherman Cooper, R-Ky.

North Viet Nam said today the positions of Hanoi and Washington are "opposed to each other like fire and water; there can be no third stand." The statement once again dashed hopes of any peaceful settlement of the Viet Nam war.

The statement broadcast by the official North Vietnamese news agency did not mention the fate of American pilots shot down over that Communist country.

Hanoi cited certain proposals for peace talks and rejected them out of hand. The statement called for an end to the bombing of North Viet Nam "unconditionally and definitely" and said U.S. troops must leave Viet Nam because, it said, only they are the aggressors.

Hanoi ambassadors in two Communist countries said yesterday the captured Americans would be tried as "war criminals." At the same time President Ho Chi Minh, under world wide diplomatic pressure to space their lives, said Hanoi's policy would be "humanitarian."

The latest appeal came today from Pope Paul who "ardently and respectfully" urged North Vietnamese leaders to spare American prisoners and thus avert "still worse evils" for the world.

New Lagunitas Budget Shows Big Increase

Lagunitas School District Board last night approved a tentative budget for fiscal 1967 totaling $336,190, an increase of $83,078 over 1966.

Prospects of reducing the tax rate, despite budget increase, "look very good," board president W. Michael Scott predicted today. The rate "may be reduced as much as 50 cents," he said, from the 1966 rate of $3.56 per $100 assessed valuation.

Reduction of the tax rate was made possible by a 58.4 per cent rise in valuation in the district.

Public hearing on the budget will be held Aug. 2 at 8 p.m. at Lagunitas School.

Also to be discussed at that meeting is whether to try again this fall to get voter approval for a bond issue to build a second school. Two previous tries, in February and June, failed.

The board reviewed proposals for a citizen advisory committee, but took no action. "Initial reaction is enthusiastic," Scott said, "but we're still in the talking stage."

The board hired a new teacher for fourth grade, Mrs. Sara Napier, of Sausalito.

Trustee Leslie S. Stone was absent.

the car turned over. Officers were unsure what caused the car to go into the ditch in the first place.

First other motorists to reach the spot after the accident said the right side of the car was lying on the child's body when they came on the scene.

It was the 15th highway fatality in Marin County since the start of 1966. The same number of people had been killed in the county at this time last year.

The child's father is a San Francisco police officer.

Man Injured In Stopped Car

Roger Somers, 39, was injured in a two-car rear end collision on Highway 101 at the Belle Avenue off-ramp, San Rafael, at 6:30 p.m. yesterday.

Somers, of 1 Camino del Canon, Muir Woods Park was in fair condition with head injuries in Marin General Hospital today.

Officer Angelo J. Corvino of the California Highway Patrol reported Somers had stopped his car in the middle northbound lane. When it was struck by one driven by John B. Todd, 40, of 785 Pine Lane, Terra Linda. Somers was cited for stopping a car in the freeway.

SPACE

we have a reasonable chance of completing the double rendezvous even though we don't have as much fuel pad as we'd like. If the environmental control system problem straightens out, we also feel we can make the space walk."

At an after-midnight news conference, National Aeronautics and Space Administration officials gave the venture outside priority over rendezvous if a choice has to be made.

The eyes of both astronauts watered and became irritated yesterday while Collins conducted experiments with the hatch open, the upper half of his body thrust into space.

Neither could see, and Collins was forced to end the exercise after 45 minutes, about 25 minutes early.

Lithium hydroxide, a chemical used to remove carbon dioxide from the cabin environmental control system, may have been responsible.

The problem cleared by the time the astronauts went to sleep at 11 p.m. EST but officials were concerned that perhaps it would recur when the hatch again was opened for the space walk.

Hitchhiking under the power of their own Agena, the Gemini 10 crew had first soared to a record altitude for manned flight at an orbital high point of 476 miles, then pulled back down close to 240 miles, just seven miles below the path of the old Agena.

JAIL

the present day room converted for a dormitory as well.

The board asked studies of ways to improve lighting and ventilation.

Supervisor Ernest N. Kettenhofen said he would oppose using the parking lot for an exercise area because it would mean parading prisoners in public. He further said that few need exercise, since most are on work furlough programs.

Mountanos said that he has lived with the situation nearly eight years and has difficulty in seeing how improvements can be made.

"You're getting a fresh look, Lou," Behr said.

Supervisors said they were not criticizing the sheriff.

Kettenhofen suggested letting those prisoners on work furlough sleep out someplace, rather than in the jail.

"It would be better to put them out on probation," Supervisor William A. Gnoss said.

It was Supervisor Thomas T. Storer who moved that sentenced prisoners be sent to Sonoma County Jail. This was seconded by Behr and passed after supervisors conditioned the move on approval of all concerned.

County Administrator Alan Bruce said it will increase county costs, since there will be little saving in reducing jail population under the courthouse. He did not estimate the added cost.

HALL

Cunningham and Poleteo were architects of the building, at a 5 per cent fee. Andrew Wilkie was the builder, although there were various contracts for special work besides, including one for the late H. P. Eklund to install electric lights.

Some of the prerogatives of town trustees in those days are indicated by a minute entry of Jan. 4, 1909: "In the matter of insurance for the new city hall, the board fixed the amount at $15,000, with $3,000 to be placed by each trustee."

On Feb. 5, 1909, the board awarded Marin Furniture Co. the contract for furniture for the new hall, at $1,430. Low bidder was Coutts Meyer Furniture Co. at $1,375, but the board apparently believed in patronizing hometown business.

There is an indication that the city may have exceeded the $25,000 bond issue in building the hall, for on May 17, the minutes record:

"Trustee Lovell stated that the Marin Journal had published an article stating that the trustees had spent $20,000 more than the board of two years before. . . . It was ordered . . . to allow the clerk $10 to hire an expert to assist him in looking up some of the items." (Pedrotti and Follis voted against spending the $10.)

First meetings in the then-new hall featured long arguments with the Marin Water and Power Co. over its right to fix water rates. Out of these grew a call for a meeting July 28 with city officials of San Anselmo, Ross, Larkspur and Sausalito, and "leading citizens" of Fairfax, Kentfield, San Quentin and Homestead, to discuss formation of a municipal water district. It took over a decade for these efforts to result in Marin Municipal Water District.

There were other long arguments, too, one of which involved the lack of fire escapes on two of the Hotaling theaters: the Lyric and the Garden. At one point, the city closed the Lyric. Both were finally equipped with fire escapes.

The city did its own assessing then, and Assessor H. P. Wood filed a claim for $104.50 in 1908 for overtime. The board of trustees balked at paying, and City Atty. Joseph K. Hawkins submitted a written opinion that the payment would not be legal.

It was a time of great doings. In December, 1908, on urging of Trustee Follis that police be uniformed, the board ordered that "the two night watchmen and George J. Collomore wear uniforms olive drab."

On March 1, 1909 — about the time it moved into the new city hall—the board adopted building and plumbing ordinances and appointed G. N. Miller as first building inspector (Pedrotti and Follis consistently voted "no").

On July 13, at request of the postmaster, the board instructed the city engineer to submit a plan for numbering of the streets.

Much of the board's business had to do with saloon licenses. There were saloons all over town, and sometimes as many as four licenses to sell "malt, fermented and spiritous beverages" were issued at one board meeting. At that, quite a few were turned down.

The resulting drunks posed another problem, but the board had its own way of dealing with this, known as the "black list." How this worked is indicated in a minute entry of Jan. 4, 1909: "On motion duly made and seconded, it was ordered that the clerk send a new list of all persons on the list not to sell or give liquors."

The "black list" went to all liquor dispensers. If they sold liquor to anyone on the list, they were subject to revocation of license.

Those were the days when home rule meant something.

Sausalito Boy Bitten On Chest By Dog

J. H. O'Rielly III of 2 Bigelow Avenue, Mill Valley, told police last night that his son, Robert, 12, was "badly bitten" on the chest by a large dog owned by N. Gravem Jr. of 32 Lincoln Avenue. The child was to be taken to his family doctor today.

O'Rielly told police that the dog, named Marble, had bitten another O'Rielly child on a different occasion.

OBITUARIES

Miss Judy Lynn Gobbi Dies At 20

Requiem Mass for Judy Lynn Gobbi, 20, a native of Tomales, will be Friday at 11:15 a.m. at Our Lady of the Assumption Church in Tomales.

Miss Gobbi died Monday in a San Francisco hospital following a brief illness. She was born in Tomales, and graduated from Tomales High School in 1963. For the past three years she worked as a policy control clerk for State Farm Insurance in Santa Rosa. Her father, Peter L. Gobbi, is a Tomales dairy rancher.

She is survived by her parents, two sisters, Barbara Gobbi of Tomales and Mrs. Janet Church of Cotati; one brother, John Gobbi of Tomales and her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. John Poncia of Cotati.

Rosary will be recited tomorrow at 8 p.m. at the Sorensen Funeral Home, 400 Washington Street, Petaluma. Friends may gather at the funeral home before the Mass at 10:30 a.m. Friday. Entombment will be in Tomales Catholic Cemetery. The family asks that tributes be contributions to the University of California Research Laboratory Grant Fund, University of California Medical Center, San Francisco.

Mrs. Ida Unger, 67, of Forest Knolls, died this morning at a local hospital.

A native of Russia, she lived in California 50 years.

She is survived by a son, Samuel E. Unger of Marin; two daughters, Mrs. Evelyn Levy of San Francisco, and Mrs. Marion Cronstrand; a sister, Mrs. Helen Iscoff, and a brother, Joseph Itzkowitz, both of Little Rock, Ark.

JOSEPH PERRY

Requiem Mass for Joseph L. Perry of Sebastopol, father of Mrs. Betty Souza of Muir Beach, will be Friday at 10 a.m. at St. Sebastian's Church, Sebastopol.

Perry, 77, died yesterday in a Sebastopol hospital following a long illness. He was a retired owner of apple orchards in Sebastopol, and he belonged to the Sebastopol Veterans of Foreign Wars, Sausalito IDESST, Holy Ghost Society and Young Men's Institute of Sebastopol. He was born in the Azores.

He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Carrie Perry of Sebastopol; his daughter, and two granddaughters.

Rosary will be recited tomorrow at 8 p.m. at O'Leary Funeral Home, 7151 Bodega Avenue, Sebastopol. Friends may gather at the funeral home at 9:30 a.m. Friday before the Mass. Burial will be in the Sebastopol Cemetery.

ANGELO RINALDI

A native of Grosio, Italy, he lived in California for 60 years, the last 36 in Marin.

Rinaldi was a member of Club d' Italia.

He is survived by his wife, Dora; a son, Frank Rinaldi of San Rafael, and three sisters in Italy.

Requiem Mass will be offered at 9:30 a.m. Friday at St. Raphael's Church in San Rafael. Cortege forms at 9:15 at Keaton's Mortuary in San Rafael. Burial will be Mount Olivet Cemetery, San Rafael. Rosary will be recited at 8 p.m. tomorrow at Keaton's.

MRS. HURTGEN

Funeral services for Mrs. Mattie Livermore Hurtgen of Berkeley, sister of the late Norman B. Livermore of Ross, were held today in Berkeley.

Mrs. Hurtgen, 89, died Sunday at her home. Services were at St. Mark's Episcopal Church.

Her husband, Alfred Hurtgen, a singing instructor who also conducted the San Francisco Symphony Orchestra and San Francisco Opera Company, was director of the Marin Municipal Chorus and taught at Dominican College, San Rafael.

Mrs. Hurtgen was a native of Oakland and granddaughter of California pioneer Horatio Gates Livermore.

She is survived by her husband; a daughter, Mrs. Edith Kaiser of San Francisco; a son, Charles Hurtgen of Tempe, Ariz., and two grandchildren.

The family requests memorial contributions be made to the San Francisco Symphony Foundation.

CHARLES SIMPSON

Funeral for Charles A. Simpson, 71, brother of Mrs. Ida Griswold and Harry Simpson of San Rafael, was scheduled today in Sonoma.

Simpson, a retired Mare Island Navy Yard machinist, died Monday in a Sonoma hospital.

He leaves his wife, Madeline; a daughter, Mrs. Velma Petropulos of San Francisco; his sister, and three brothers, Harry of San Rafael and Raymond and Larry of San Francisco.

MRS. BOSSINGHAM

Mrs. Georgia Bossingham, former Marin resident and sister of Mrs. Edith Faubel of San Anselmo, died Monday night at Coeur d' Alene, Ida., after a long illness.

She was 68.

She was a native of Nebraska. She and her husband, Delbert, lived in West Marin from 1935 to 1958, when they moved to Idaho. Her husband was stationed at the former Coast Guard station in Bolinas.

Mrs. Bossingham is survived by her husband; a daughter, Mrs. Madelyn Stevens of Concord; a son, Leon Bossingham of San Mateo, her sister, and two brothers, Cecil Clark of Concord and Roscoe Clark of Carson, N. D.

Burial will be in Coeur d' Alene.

DEBATE

opened the way for another of those televised meetings that have become a part of American politics since the late John F. Kennedy and Richard M. Nixon debated in the 1960 presidential campaign.

Still to be worked out is a format, the time and place — and Brown's statement accepting the challenge indicated there might be some tense moments in the negotiating room.

"Mr. Reagan will have to leave behind his carefully prepared scripts," said Brown. "I want tough, penetrating ground rules that get beyond his pat answers and superficial facts in prepared scripts. I shall insist on a confrontation in depth, not a show business spectacular."

Battaglia, at a news conference in Los Angeles, specified six potential subjects for the meeting—taxes, civil rights, the welfare system, government spending, crime and juvenile delinquency and the University of California.

MOUNT TAMALPAIS CEMETERY

in the Heart of our County

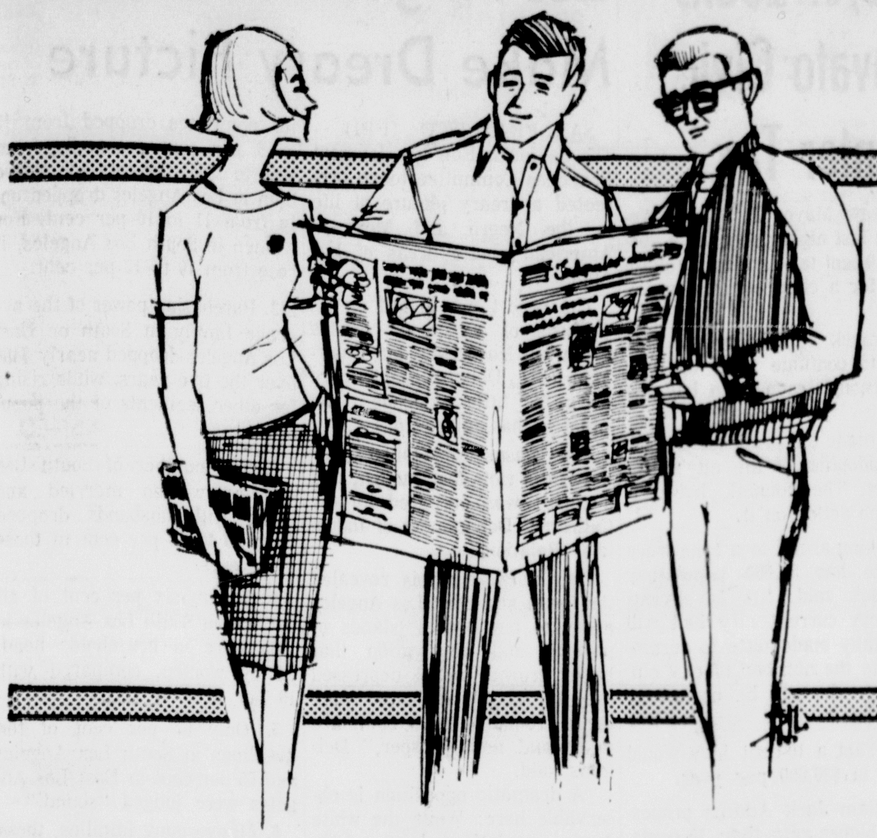

Marin pioneers chose a site in the heart of our county as a final resting place for their families. Today this location—at the west end of Fifth Avenue in San Rafael—is still convenient to all Marin points.

Marinites who choose Mount Tamalpais do so with the assurance that its beauty will grow with the years. The interest from a quarter-million dollar endowment fund—twice the legal requirement—is dedicated to the constant care and improvement of this 57-acre site.

Perhaps—like many Marin families—you wish to make your own final arrangements to spare others difficult decisions. If so, we invite your inquiry or a personal visit.

based on a survey of the recent I-J "Youth-in-the-News" Contest

Recently, the I-J conducted a "YOUTH-IN-THE-NEWS" CONTEST. The object was to estimate the number of stories "favorable" to youth which the I-J would publish during the full month of June. In evaluating the stories, those regarded as "unfavorable" were also marked and tabulated. This report publishes the full findings for all to read . . . and offers some conclusions based upon the facts of the survey.

A panel of consultants, well-known in the field of education, reviewed the evaluation of each story in each issue of the I-J published during June, 1966. These findings are published with the consent and concurrence of the panel members.

ALL STORIES WERE REVIEWED BY THIS PANEL OF CONSULTANTS

The news stories and the method of evaluation were reviewed and analyzed by the panel. Final determination of what constituted a "favorable" or "unfavorable" story resided with the consultants, with every attempt made to apply fair and reasonable interpretations to all stories. The panelists:

- VIRGIL S. HOLLIS, Marin County Superintendent of Schools
- PAUL MILLER, Instructor in Journalism, College of Marin
- EDWARD J. NEUMEIER, Coordinator of Public Information, Tamalpais Union High School District
- MRS. LILLIAN SEAVER, Lecturer in Journalism, English Dept., Dominican College

I-J MARKED COPIES "OPEN FOR INSPECTION"

Copies of the daily issues for the month of June, showing evaluations of stories, are available to everyone for examination. Newsroom - main office.

THE FINDINGS: 238 stories judged favorable to youth were published by the I-J during June, 1966. A total of 77 stories appeared which were judged "unfavorable" to young people. The preponderance of "good" stories then, was in the ratio of better than 3 to 1 over those stories considered "bad."

SIGNIFICANCE: It is easy to say that a newspaper prints more news "unfavorable" to young people than "favorable." And the Independent-Journal has not been immune from such criticism. The findings, however, are objective. These are the facts of exactly what happened during the month of June—typical of any month.

Naturally, we are delighted that the trend ran so heavily in favor of "good" stories vs. "bad," although it doesn't surprise us.

The real significance, however, is in this: neither the I-J nor any other newspaper creates the news; it only reports it. Young people make their own news through their own activities. And since young people created so many "favorable" news stories, this leads to a pleasant and significant conclusion: that today's young people need little or no defense. Their actions speak for themselves—and better than their critics!

Statement from a member of the panel

One of the prevailing myths about newspapers seems to be that they go out of their way to print derogatory news about young people.

Having worked a number of years in both journalism and education I've been aware that such an impression is just that—a myth. The Independent-Journal's Youth in the News Contest is a reliable indicator of the falla[cy].

Unfortunately most newspaper readers don't see the paper as a whole. Too often, as well, a reader gets a stronger impression from something with which he is emotionally involved. Those who care about young people, including youth itself, often react strongly to what seems critical and passively to what is positive.

This exposition of a sampling in the I-J attempts to put forth the whole picture and dispel the myth.

(Signed) Edward J. Neumeier
Coordinator of Public Information, Tamalpais Union School District

Whether you are a teenager or an adult, the findings should help you in YOUR evaluation of the news . . . and of your newspaper. When you read a story in the I-J on delinquency (as you will), can you still allow yourself to "see" the story about a youngster winning a scholarship? Can You take the broad spectrum of the news and place it in perspective rather than seeing youth through the small end of the telescope? And can you see the role of your newspaper as a lens which must show the news, without any prejudicial setting of the focus?

As you read about young people, remember that the news plays no favorites. What "favors" young people (as it does in the I-J), then look to the source: the youngsters themselves. That is where we look . . . and the view is fine.

CONTEST WINNERS WIN $500 IN BONDS

New Novato Budget Has Tax Rate Cut

The Novato City Council last night approved a preliminary budget of $1,020,625 for fiscal [illegible] which calls for a tax rate of 75 cents per $100 assessed valuation. Last year's rate was [illegible] cents.

The budget includes $1,003,625 for operating expenses and $17,000 for capital improvements. Approval came after the council had debated for more than four hours.

It still left one item, improvement of the Community House by citizens, until after a special meeting of the parks and recreation advisory commission Monday night. This could slightly change both the final budget and tax rate.

The original budget submitted by City Mgr. J. Julien Baget called for operating expenses of $971,635 and a tax rate of 62 cents per $100 assessed valuation.

Last night the council added $5,600 to the capital improvement program as city share of a joint project with Novato Unified School District to install sidewalks and curbs along Grant Avenue bordering the Marion School playground. The school board approved the project Monday night.

After a long debate, with Councilman M. E. Babe Silva asking for a bond issue for a new police station, the council voted 4-to-1, Silva dissenting, to spend $8,125 to remodel the former George Morrison house next to the present station, for a police annex.

Silva held that a bond issue for a police station could be passed and the building constructed next year.

The council approved hiring a fourth planner, to be a senior planner, for $9,300 for a nine-month period during the fiscal year.

To meet a deficit of $2,800 in operating the swimming pool, the council cut the fall-spring playground program from $4,900 to $2,100. It also voted to ask the North Marin County Water District to take back handling of fishing permits for Stafford Reservoir. The city took over this function last year.

The council set Aug. 16 for adoption of the final budget.

Mayor J. Wayne Womack named Silva and Councilman William Jack Adams to a capital improvement study committee, and Harley McAskill and Adams to a Western Weekend Committee.

The council referred to the parks and recreation commission an offer by Ralph T. McGrath of San Rafael to give 1,100 Indian artifacts which have been dug from a mound on Olive Avenue to the city for a permanent display. The artifacts are now at San Francisco State College, McGrath wrote.

Mayor Seeks Novato Civic Center Tax

Novato Mayor J. Wayne Womack last night proposed a special 10-cent tax rate to purchase land for a civic center for Novato.

Womack called for the tax rate to continue until the city had enough money to buy the site.

He made the proposal just before adoption of the city's 1967 budget. The council, however, took no action on it.

Looking ahead to a time when Novato has 50,000 population, Womack said, "It is obvious that our current city hall will be totally inadequate to accommodate the number of city employees who will be needed by that time."

He said a 10-cent levy would bring in $36,000 per year.

William Jack Adams proposed a higher rate than 10 cents. "We are not paying enough taxes now," Adams said.

Joseph Bonomolo of 201 San Felipe Way contended the $33,000 now in the civic center fund was enough to make a down payment on three or four acres and not necessitate any additional taxes until next year.

Vernon Rodeck of 95 Grove Lane and George Amaroli of 11 Rebecca Way said such a long-range program should be submitted to the voters.

Wilfred H. Lieb of 21 Hill Road contended that by the time a Novato civic center would be needed, there would be a county-wide government for Marin County.

Los Angeles Ghettoes Make Dreary Picture

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — The California Fair Employment Practices Committee today presented a dreary picture of life in the Negro and Mexican-American ghetto areas of Los Angeles.

The report was based on its analysis of a special census taken last November, but Chairman C.L. Dellums said there there "is little evidence... the situation has improved."

The census was taken after the Watts riots last August, and a report was prepared by the California Department of Industrial Relations.

The FEPC analysis revealed the South and East Los Angeles areas to be "literal islands of poverty and deprivation that have grown more depressed over the past five years, while the surrounding area continues to expand and prosper," Dellums said.

"A dramatic opposition is observable here: While the white Anglo population slowly rises, the nonwhite, non-anglo population in these ghettos slowly sinks."

Among the specific conclusions in the report were these:

1. While unemployment rates for nonwhites dropped from 12 to 6 per cent nationally from 1960 to 1965' the rate for Negro men in Los Angeles dropped only from 11 to 10 per cent. For women in South Los Angeles, it rose from 10 to 12 per cent.

2. Purchasing power of the average family in South or East Los Angeles dropped nearly $400 over the five years, while rising for other segments of the population.

3. The number of South Los Angeles women married and living with husbands dropped from 53 to 48 per cent in those five years.

4. Twenty-six per cent of all persons in South Los Angeles in 1965 were in households headed by women, compared with 19 per cent in 1960.

5. Only [illegible] per cent of the dwellings in South Los Angeles and 65 per cent in East Los Angeles were judged "sound."

6. Many young families, those with heads under 25 years old, were in grave economic trouble. Forty-six per cent of those in South Los Angeles had incomes below the poverty level, an increase of 6 per cent from 1960.

Contempt Warning On Juvenile Names

UKIAH (AP) —Mendocino County officials who release the names of juveniles held in connection with crimes to news media may be held in contempt of court.

Superior Court Judge Robert Winslow issued a court order yesterday to all county officials, including probation officers, juvenile hall employees and police officers, prohibiting them from telling newsmen the identities of anyone under 18 arrested as a suspected lawbreaker.

Angelo P. Mirata is president of the Tiburon Sanitary District Board.

Convict Survives Stabbing With Prison-Made Weapon

Paul Snyder, 34-year-old San Quentin prison inmate, was stabbed in the chest four times yesterday with a prison-made weapon with a 7-inch blade, according to Associate Warden James W. L. Park.

The attack occurred on the fourth tier of the south cellblock at 4:15 p.m. just before "lock up for the afternoon count," Park reported.

Snyder was reported in satisfactory condition today at the prison hospital.

Several suspects were being questioned, Park said.

Snyder was sentenced to the prison in 1952 from Los Angeles for statutory rape carrying a term from six months to 50 years.

He was paroled in 1952 and returned to the prison May 26, 1966, as a parole violator, Park reported.

Board To Probe County Injuries

Marin County Safety Commission will meet tomorrow at 8 a.m. at the Civic Center to review a long list of accidents incurred by 17 county employees in the course of their duties during June.

Accidents reported range from a relief fire warden who was stung by a bee while washing a fire truck to an assessors' office worker who twisted his ankle stepping off a sidewalk at the Civic Center.

The commission will also appoint three working committees and listen to the county counsel discuss "several legal considerations."

Mill Valley Rotary Hears Paint-Up Plan

Professional paint-up experts Palmer and Connie Field told the Mill Valley Rotary Club yesterday that a little paint wouldn't hurt the city named after Marin's first saw mill.

The Fields, formerly residents of Belvedere and now living in Woodside, said this is a seven-year-old idea with them.

"You haven't put spice in the taste. You have left yourselves a little dull, a little dreary. You have a special quality that you could bring out. I told you so seven years ago," said Mrs. Field.

"Tiburon is 'way ahead of you in every way," she added.

Tiburon, following a Field plan, did a paint-up by merchants and residents nine years ago.

The Fields, representing Community Consultants, have supervised paint-up campaigns in 70 communities from Fairbanks, Alaska to Puerto Rico during the last 11 years.

The Mill Valley Chamber of Commerce businessmen's committee has expressed interest in a paint-up, clean-up for Mill Valley, and experts to bring it to the chamber for its views in August.

About 75 persons attended the luncheon at Sabella's Restaurant, under chairmanship of Charles J. Francis.

Morals Offense Trial Put Off To September

Court trial for Carl James Vachal, 37, originally scheduled Monday on a charge of indecent exposure with a prior conviction, was rescheduled yesterday in Marin Superior Court for Sept. 6.

Vachal, of 347 Melrose Avenue, Homestead Valley, allegedly exposed himself to a 22-year-old Tamalpais Valley mother Feb. 25 at a Dolan's Corner laundry.

Stolen Stocks Lead To Arrest

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Police held a Sacramento man today after finding $128,000 worth of stolen stocks and bonds in his San Francisco hotel room.

Police said they arrested Jay Dee Griffith, 36, following a tip that he was trying to sell the stocks on the street.

They said the stocks and bonds had been stolen in a burglary of a hardware store in Port Chicago in Contra Costa County.

Griffith was held on suspicion of possessing stolen property.

Hollis Set For Merger? Just 'Baloney'

The days of the Marin County Schools Office are numbered, Supt. Virgil S. Hollis hinted to the Marin County Board of Supervisors last week.

But Dr. John Kenney, member of a state committee which is studying changes in the structure of county schools offices, yestrday commented: "Hollis is full of baloney."

CONSOLIDATION SEEN

Hollis told the supervisors that the Marin office, responsible for accounting and coordinating functions for local school districts, and for some special education jobs, may soon be consolidated with one or more other counties.

"I think this may have been the last time a Marin superintendent of schools was elected," he added.

According to Asst. Supt. Robert Stannard, Hollis, who now is on vacation, was referring to a year-long study by the Committee of 10 on county schools offices in general.

That committe has finished a report, but has not yet released it. However, Kenney, a member of the Sonoma County Board of Education, yesterday said the study group never dreamed of combining the Marin office with any other.

ASSEMBLY HEARING

The committee will testify before the Assembly Interim Committee on Education July 28 in Oakland on the subject.

Kenney said the main point of the report is that the question should be studied further by people who have more time. The present committee consists of five county superintendents and five county board of educaton members.

Chairman is San Diego Supt. Cecil D. Hardisty.

Consolidation of Del Norte and Humboldt county offices is mentioned, but it is already being studied by those counties, Kenney said. He added that the report suggests that some services, such as libraries or hiring of consultants, might be combined, but not entire legal entities.

Generals Plan Defense Test

Maj. Gen. Andrew R. Lolli, commander of the Western North American Air Defense region at Hamilton Air Force Base, will meet with other top officers of the region Friday to lay plans for an exercise to be held in mid-August.

Attending the meeting will be: Brig. Gen. John A. Rouse, commander of 25th NORAD Division headquarters at McChord Air Force Base, Wash.; Col. Wayne E. Rhynard, who will assume command of the 26th NORAD Division at Adair Air Force Station, Ore., Aug. 1; Col. Leon W. Gray, commander of the 27th NORAD Division at Luke Air Force Base, Ariz., and Col. William R. Nevitt, commander of the 552nd Aircraft Early Warning and Control Wing at McClellan Air Force Base.

San Rafael Planners Favor General Plan

With only one revision, the San Rafael Planning Commission last night approved the latest draft of the city's proposed general plan and sent it on to the city council for final adoption.

Commissioners declined to include items posed by members of the audience to correct specific problems, saying these should be taken care of separately under a "plan for planning" called for by the general plan's last paragraph.

SPEED URGED

As evidence of good faith, commissioners urged the council to authorize the start of this program quickly. It would, according to the general plan's wording, "outline the studies needed, planning department and planning commission responsibilities, and the roles and responsibilities of the city manager, city council and other city officials in relation to planning and city development."

Only change made in the plan as submitted by consultant Daniel P. Coleman was substitution of the words "tidelands, marshlands and submerged lands" wherever Coleman had referred to "tidelands" or "tidelands reserve." Commissioners also told him to find a new symbol for those lands on the plan's map.

This was done at the urging of Ed Avery Tindell of 811 Point San Pedro Road and, indirectly, of the Marin Conservation League, whose directors had voiced a concern over this part of the plan at a Monday night meeting.

Tindell said lumping of these three types of offshore land under a single term could prove misleading to anyone from outside the area who looked at the map.

Commissioners who had also discussed the point with Tindell at their first hearing June 30, argued for several minutes over whether it made any difference. Polling the commission informally on the matter, Chairman Fred C. Robbins Jr. found them split 3-3 at one point, but Commissioners Thomas R. O'Toole, Jorgen V. Lunding and Carl S. Brown dropped their objections later and made it unanimous.

AUDIENCE OF 11

There were 11 persons in the audience, compared with 400 who attended the first hearing. One of them was real estate broker Herman Deitch, who urged commissioners to include paragraphs calling for better access to the Irwin Street industrial area west of Highway 101 and an upgrading of what he called a "blighted area" along the west side of D Street between Second Street and Mission Grade.

The commission agreed these were important problems, but felt they were too specific for a general plan and should be dealt with under the later studies.

Daniel L. Connell, who was named to the commission by the city council Monday night to succeed V. Judson Klein, was out of town on a business trip.

Tiburon Free House Trash Pickup Set

Tiburon's annual free house trash pickup days have been set for Aug. 1-6, City Mgr. Lawrence D. Rose announced today.

Mill Valley Refuse Service trucks will remove up to the equivalent of 21 garbage cans full of junk from each house during regular collection times. Residents should set their trash at the curbside the night before the early morning collection, Rose advised.

Panel Reassured On Hollis Survey

Everything came out roses between the county superintendent of schools and county administrator yesterday, but the foreman of the county grand jury still seemed worried about thorns.

Jury Foreman James S. Goodale wanted assurance from county supervisors that a report on the schools office would remain confidential until School Supt. Virgil S. Hollis has a chance to review it and reply to it.

Goodale said a survey the grand jury requested County Administrator Alan Bruce to make "has gotten into quite a deal more than anticipated."

He also was concerned about rumors of "some prejudice" on the part of the administrator.

Supervisors assured Goodale there was no prejudice. So did Bruce. Then the board ordered the survey, agreeing it would be confidential like other grand jury work, until the jury is ready to publish it.

"There's no vendetta here," Supervisor Ernest N. Kettenhofen said.

Immediately after the board's action, Hollis said he was satisfied and wanted to withdraw earlier objections. Last week he said the administrator's office did not have qualified persons for a study of his department and urged that the study be made by an outside consultant.

Supervisors agreed yesterday that Bruce's staff can draw on outside consultants up to a cost of $600.

Weekly Letters Journal Slated

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Two brothers said today that they'll begin publication in San Francisco next month of a weekly, eight-page tabloid newspaper — comprised entirely of "Letters to the Editor."

L. Lee Myers, editor of what is to be known as the San Francisco Journal, said he and G. Gary Myers, publisher, hope for 3,600 subscriptions.

"We'll have a low overhead because the only reporters we'll have will be our subscribers," he said.

The journal will be delivered only by mail, Myers said, and will accept letters from subscribers dealing with sports, business, city, state, national and international events.

Lights, No Windows At Boy's Club Meet

Lights were on but windows were yet to be installed at a meeting of the Boy's Club of Southern Marin Board Monday in the clubhouse in Marin City. It was the first such meeting in the club, now being renovated.

Director Richard N. Bale said the board ratified an action of the executive committee to commit an additional $3,500 toward completing the renovation.

Sweaters Valued At $2,000 Taken

Mackes' Sweaters at 26 El Portal, Sausalito, was broken into Monday night and 150 to 200 Alpaca Sweaters were stolen. They value was estimated at about $2,000.

Owner Leroy E. Mackes reported the loss to police today. He said that a nine-inch portable television set was also taken.

Entry was made by kicking in a glass window next to the front door, reaching in and unlocking the door, police reported.

President of Marin Property Owners Inc. is Alfred J. Bianchi.

August Death Date Scheduled

Execution of a Death Row inmate at San Quentin Prison was set today for Aug. 17.

California has not had a legal execution since Jan. 23, 1963.

The condemned man, Earnest Leroy Jacobson, 36, was convicted in Los Angeles in 1964 in the drowning murder of Kelly Babcock, 2-year-old daughter of Jacobson's common-law wife.

He has been on Death Row since July 16, 1964. He had a previous execution date of Jan. 11, 1966, but the U.S. Supreme Court granted him a stay of execution last December pending decision on his petition for writ of certiorari. His petition was denied early this month.

Execution was set last week for a second inmate, Dorman Fred Talbot Jr., 26, for Sept. 14. On Death Row since last July 27, he was convicted in the hammer and knife slaying in Ventura County of Michael Bartholomew, 20.

Contact Lenses' Danger To Eyes Is Minimized

CHICAGO —The dangers of contact lenses were minimized by a Rochester, Minn., ophthalmologist who said that a teen-age girl with normal eyes, or even with some pathological condition, should be able to wear them safely.

Dr. John A. Dyer referred in the Journal of the American Medical Assn. to a report earlier this year of 14 cases of eye loss or blindness and 157 cases of permanent eye damage within one year among 50,000 contact lens wearers.

The report concerned a series of patients in a survey made prior to 1960, and stated that only three accounts of permanently damaged eyes had been received since that time.

"If we consider that there are probably three million eyes on which contact lenses have been placed, the proportion of permanent injury is infinitely small," said Dr. Dyer.

Cleveland Riots Continue; New Outbreak In Florida

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP) — National Guardsmen armed with machine guns today patroled the battered and smouldering Hough section under a state of emergency order after two Negroes died in riots.

One Negro man was shot to death last night amid wild disorders.

Widespread shooting, looting, and firebombing by Negroes raged for four hours in the slums where a woman was killed by gunfire Monday night. Violence eased about midnight.

'TUMULT, RIOT'

Gov. James A. Rhodes called up 1,500 troops and declared last night that "a state of tumult, riot and other emergency" prevailed in Cleveland.

Only a few hundred soldiers had reached the area by midnight. They patroled in jeeps carrying machine guns.

In a proclamation signed in Columbus, Rhodes commanded lawless elements to halt the rioting. He said more guardsmen would be sent in if needed — on request of authorities here.

The grim tally after the second night of wanton destruction:

Two killed by gunfire.

At least 24 injured, including 12 policemen, a firemen and five persons with gunshot wounds.

Uncounted property damage from burning and looting.

More than 100 arrests.

BUILDINGS RUINED

Ruined, blackened hulks of buildings, smashed store windows, heaps of tangled rubble—these were the ugly remains.

Three Negroes, including two wounded by gunfire, were taken to a hospital last night. A white man was admitted with an eye injury. A Negro youth was treated for a forehead cut from a flying brick.

"It's just black against black — that's all they're doing," moaned a Negro shop owner sitting guard at his place. But it also was Negro against policeman much of the time.

"I hate police," blurted Willie Jones, a Negro, after he heard a friend tell of being beaten by police on the first night of the rioting.

In Jacksonville, Fla., bands of vandals forced police to place a curfew on a Negro business and residential area.

Police Sgt. J. T. Lowe said 12 persons — all Negroes and mostly teen-agers — were arrested. Many minor injuries were reported from the sporadic attacks by small bands.

Mayor Louis H. Ritter, who sounded out Gov. Haydon Burns yesterday about calling out the National Guard if necessary, said city police were able to handle the situation, with the help of some state troopers.

National Guardsmen were pulled off patrols of the Chicago West Side last night and the area which was the scene of rioting by Negroes last week went through a quiet night.

It was the first night since the National Guard was activated Friday that the troops were not sent into the area to aid police in controlling outbreaks of violence.

Doctors Ask Hearing Delay On Abortions

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — An attorney says he will ask the State Board of Medical Examiners today to postpone a hearing of the case of two reputable San Francisco physicians charged with performing illegal therapeutic abortions.

Robert L. Lamb, attorney for doctors John P. Shiveley and Seymour Smith, said he would ask the delay to test in Appellate Court the ruling of Superior Court Judge Joseph Karesh that the physicians are not entitled to the right of discovery.

This is the right of the accused to see in advance what evidence has been massed against him. Judge Karesh ruled the two doctors were not entitled to the right because the Board of Medical Examiners is an autonomous body and not subject to the rules of criminal procedure.

The board is not required to grant the continuance that Lamb is seeking. Should they decide against postponement, the hearing will begin Monday, as scheduled.

The charges against the two doctors may become a test of California's rigid abortion laws. The obstetricians performed theraupetic abortions on women who had contracted Rubella, or German measles, early in pregnancy and risked bearing seriously deformed children.

Space Funds Compromise Set

WASHINGTON (AP) — A Senate-House Conference Committee has reached agreement on a compromise plan to spend more than $4.2 billion on the civilian space program this fiscal year. The agreement is expected to win final congressional approval later.

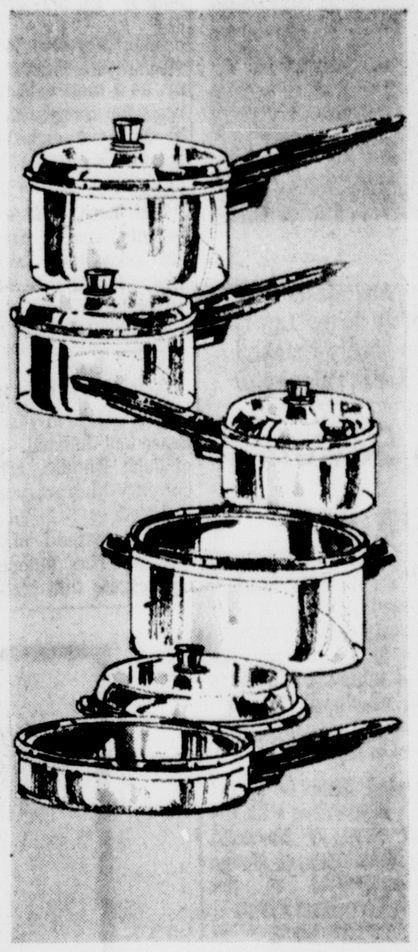

Nearly $3 billion of the total would go into the U.S. effort to land a man on the moon and return him safely before 1970. Another $40 million would be earmarked for the Gemini project, which now has two astronauts in orbit, and $13 million would be set aside for a 1969 fly-by-Mars project.

Court Issues Warrant In Wreck Case

Bench warrant for arrest of Thomas Jesse Lemmons, 26, of Santa Venetia, was issued in Marin Municipal Court yesterday to assure his return from Napa State Hospital to face three misdemeanor counts filed in a two-car accident in San Rafael last Saturday.

Lemmons, who also escaped briefly from county jail during a discussion with a bail bondsman, is charged with drunken driving, driving while under the influence of mixed drugs and alcohol, and hit-run.

Lemmons fled the jail after talking to the bondsman, Joseph Pecora, but was caught by Pecora and a jailer only two blocks away. No escape complaint has been filed. Lemmons was transferred to Napa after jailers said he three times threatened to hang himself.

Grease Fouling Up Sewer Plant On Richardson Bay

The Richardson Bay Sanitary District Board wants to discuss the accumulation of grease in its Ricardo Road Pumping Station with merchants in the Strawberry Town and Country Village Shopping Center.

Board secretary Alfred O. Pratesi said District Engineer J. Warren Nute reported last night that there is a constant buildup of grease which the station's bacteria process can't treat.

Merchants and restaurants in the center are supposed to collect the grease in traps and dispose of it as garbage. Somehow, grease is collecting in the lines and restricting sewage flow, Pratesi said.

The board scheduled a meeting Aug. 2 to further explore the problem. Among solutions suggested was to have the merchants use throw-away grease containers.

The Richardson Bay Sanitary District Board also:

1. Set the adoption of a tax rate and the proposed 1967 fiscal budget of $166,850 for the Aug. 2 meeting.

2. Discussed with nine Sky Road property owners possible annexation to the district. The owners will submit a petition to the board, which will then forward it to the Local Agency Formation Commission.

3. Instructed Nute to report back on his discussions with the Dorr-Oliver Corp. of Norwalk, Conn., on installation of sludge digester equipment at the Trestle Glen Treatment Plant.

Federal Board Stalls Merger Of Railroads

WASHINGTON (UPI) —The Interstate Commerce Commission (ICC) today postponed the effective date of the merger of the Pennsylvania and New York Central Railroads to Sept.

The ICC last April 27 authorized the two railroads to merge effective Aug. 12. 30 to allow more time to consider objections to its approval of the merger.

Auto, Note Left On Span; Body Missing

Highway patrol officers found an abandoned car in midspan of the Golden Gate Bridge at 4:30 a.m. today and a note on the front seat: "I should never have been born."

Coast Guard vessels searched for a body but found none. Patrol officers said the car was registered to David Lee Prescott Jr., 29, of San Francisco.

San Francisco police identified Prescott, a sheet metal worker, as a man with numerous arrests for morals offenses, mostly indecent exposure. He had been committed to a state hospital as a sexual psychopath.

The note, addressed to his parents, also of San Francisco, also asked their forgiveness and said, "I love you all and I love my children but life means nothing without them."

State College Faculty Union Bargain Threat

LOS ANGELES (AP) — State college trustees were told today that unrest among faculty is so intense they will accept unionized collective bargaining if required to satisfy teachers' demands.

The Assn. of California State College Professors went before a meeting of the State College Board of Trustees in an attempt to get a full hearing on its contention that a crisis point has been reached among faculty.

HALF OF TEACHERS

The group represents about half the 7,000 fulltime and parttime teachers at the 18 colleges Ross Y. Koen, executive secretary, said an exchange of letters with board chairman Albert J. Ruffo made him pessimistic that the trustees would allow the presentation.

Koen and Dr. Marc Tool, an economics professor at Sacramento State College and head of the association, dealt at length in their 21-page statement with current attempts to organize college teachers for collective bargaining.

They said that even though "many of them will find it distasteful and undesirable," the faculty would turn toward a union if their various demands aren't met.

"If collective bargaining is the only route that appears to offer hope . . . that is the route that will be chosen. Time is short and action is imperative."

The report noted recent attempts by the American Federation of Teachers' College Council, AFL - CIO, to become the bargaining agent for California college professors. Elections held at San Fernando Valley and San Jose State college recently, but the results were called indecisive by the association.

But it said the recent events "clearly and unmistakably reveal deeply rooted frustrations and dissatisfactions which must be met . . ."

While many teachers might not favor collective bargaining as such, they see it "as a symbol of effective protest and . . . will vote for it and support its implementation, not because they are enamoured with collective bargaining, but because they despair of improving the conditions of their professional lives by traditional means," the association declared.

CUT CLASS LOAD

It listed these demands to the trustees as not only needed but as a possible way to avert unionization of teachers:

Decreases in the average teaching load, and more clerical and technical help for teachers.

Establishment of "clear cut personnel rules and grievance procedures which cannot be manipulated by petty tyrants who occupy administrative positions . . ."

Higher pay, fringe benefits and making college salaries equal to those paid state university professors.

Permit Requested For Newman Club

The Newman Club of the College of Marin plans to locate in a new building at 190 Kent Avenue on the southeast side of the Kentfield campus.

Stephen N. Gilardi, president of the Newman Center directors, has asked a county use permit for the new location.

The application will be heard by County Zoning Administrator Thomas E. Cordill at the Civic Center at 10:30 a.m. on Aug. 1.

Club members spent considerable time and money fixing up a building at 881 College Avenue, only to find that the college district had condemned the land for college expansion.

Court Issues Warrant In Wreck Case

Bench warrant for arrest of Thomas Jesse Lemmons, 26, of Santa Venetia, was issued in Marin Municipal Court yesterday to assure his return from Napa State Hospital to face three misdemeanor counts filed in a two-car accident in San Rafael last Saturday.

Lemmons, who also escaped briefly from county jail during a discussion with a bail bondsman, is charged with drunken driving, driving while under the influence of mixed drugs and alcohol, and hit-run.

Lemmons fled the jail after talking to the bondsman, Joseph Pecora, but was caught by Pecora and a jailer only two blocks away. No escape complaint has been filed. Lemmons was transferred to Napa after jailers said he three times threatened to hang himself.

Grease Fouling Up Sewer Plant On Richardson Bay

The Richardson Bay Sanitary District Board wants to discuss the accumulation of grease in its Ricardo Road Pumping Station with merchants in the Strawberry Town and Country Village Shopping Center.

Board secretary Alfred O. Pratesi said District Engineer J. Warren Nute reported last night that there is a constant buildup of grease which the station's bacteria process can't treat.

Merchants and restaurants in the center are supposed to collect the grease in traps and dispose of it as garbage. Somehow, grease is collecting in the lines and restricting sewage flow, Pratesi said.

The board scheduled a meeting Aug. 2 to further explore the problem. Among solutions suggested was to have the merchants use throw-away grease containers.

The Richardson Bay Sanitary District Board also:

1. Set the adoption of a tax rate and the proposed 1967 fiscal budget of $166,850 for the Aug. 2 meeting.

2. Discussed with nine Sky Road property owners possible annexation to the district. The owners will submit a petition to the board, which will then forward it to the Local Agency Formation Commission.

3. Instructed Nute to report back on his discussions with the Dorr-Oliver Corp. of Norwalk, Conn., on installation of sludge digester equipment at the Trestle Glen Treatment Plant.

Federal Board Stalls Merger Of Railroads

WASHINGTON (UPI) —The Interstate Commerce Commission (ICC) today postponed the effective date of the merger of the Pennsylvania and New York Central Railroads to Sept.

The ICC last April 27 authorized the two railroads to merge effective Aug. 12. 30 to allow more time to consider objections to its approval of the merger.

Made from a star-spangled recipe that's 25 years old

The cake above is something we whipped up to help celebrate the 25th birthday of the United States Savings Bond program.

Although there will be no confetti, no horn-blowing—in fact, no party, there are a number of reasons to celebrate this quarter-century observance.

Since that first one was sold on May 1, 1941, Americans have bought more than $150 billion worth of Series E and H Bonds and still buy them at a $4-$5 billion-per-year clip.

About $100 billion have been cashed and spent for homes, college tuition, new cars and furniture, emergencies—and helping dreams come true for millions of American families.

Over half the Bonds bought are purchased on the Payroll Savings Plan—a voluntary automatic plan that has worked wonders for people who might not otherwise save a nickel.

Today there are outstanding almost $50 billion in Bonds — a solid financial rock which millions of Americans stand on.

And today, above all, Savings Bonds are a sure way for all Americans to support our men in Vietnam. While they are there, none of us can remain aloof on the sidelines.

NOW—
Savings Bonds Pay 4.15%!

Interest on new E and H Bonds you purchase has been raised to 4.15% when held to maturity. E Bonds mature faster —now in just 7 years. Your old Bonds will earn more, too. Savings Bonds are better to buy, and hold, than ever.

Commission Seeks Airport Fund Word

The Marin County Aviation Commission agreed last night it would not start talking about alternative plans for the county airport at Novato until there is some definite word on the application for federal funds.

On the commission agenda was a suggested development with the present runway alignment and with only purchase of the lands of W. Q. Wright, about half of the 64 acres to be acquired in the federal plan.

Asst. Public Works Director Arthur Knutson said today that the commission agreed the $250,000 for land acquisition alone was too much for a field with the present runway alignment.

Under the federal plan, the runway would be changed from its east-west alignment to a one running north and south. The county has applied to the Federal Aviation Agency for 54 per cent of the cost of this job. No word on the application is expected before September.

Present county option on the Wright land expires Aug. 1.

The commission agreed to cooperate with the Town of Corte Madera and the Corte Madera Chamber of Commerce in finding a location for a heliport near the Greenbrae Interchange.

Town Mgr. Ronald L. Usher and B. A. Sill of the chamber made the request for assistance.

Canadian Commodore Takes NORAD Post

Air Commodore Hugh C. Ledoux of the Royal Canadian Air Force yesterday became vice commander of the Western North American Air Defense region headquarters at Hamilton Air Force Base.

Ledoux, who is equal in rank to a United States brigadier general, will serve directly under Maj. Gen. Andrew R. Lolli in the command of the region.

He is a native of Westmount, a suburb of Montreal. His latest assignment was that of director of Canada's National Defense College, which he held since August, 1963.

Ledoux is the 12th Canadian officer to be assigned to Hamilton since the base became headquarters for the NORAD region April 1. Eight more Canadian officers and enlisted men are expected soon.

Ledoux joined the RCAF in 1938 and served in Canada before being sent overseas in 1943 to command the 425th "Alouette" squadron. He flew heavy bomber operations and was given the Distinguished Flying Cross for his service during World War II.

He, his wife, Mary, and daughters Mary Ann, 15, and Kathleen Margaret, 13, will live at 297 Casa Grande Rio on the base. They also have two sons, Hugh, 24, who lives in Cincinnati, and David, 19, who will attend the Royal Military College this fall.

Negro's Name Up For Bishop

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — The first Negro Episcopal bishop in the United States, Rt. Rev. John M. Burgess of the Massachusets diocese, today was considered a possible successor to Bishop James A. Pike.

Pike has resigned as bishop of the Episcopal Diocese of California effective Sept. 22.

Burges' name was submitted yesterday to the California Diocese nominating committee by Rev. Robert W. Comey of St. Aidan's church, San Francisco.

Wages Deadline

August 1 is deadline for filing contribution returns and reports of agricultural wages for the second quarter of 1966, the state Department of Employment today reminded employers of agricultural workers. Employers who need help preparing returns and reports may contact the department at 807 E Street, San Rafael.

Two Marin Cities Get Safety Plaques

Two cities in Marin got plaques yesterday from the California State Automobile Assn. for long periods of years without a fatal traffic accident involving a pedestrian.

Plaques went to the cities of Sausalito, which has gone 11 years without such an accident, and San Anselmo, whose record dates back 10 years.

Congressmen Call Humphrey Talk Damaging

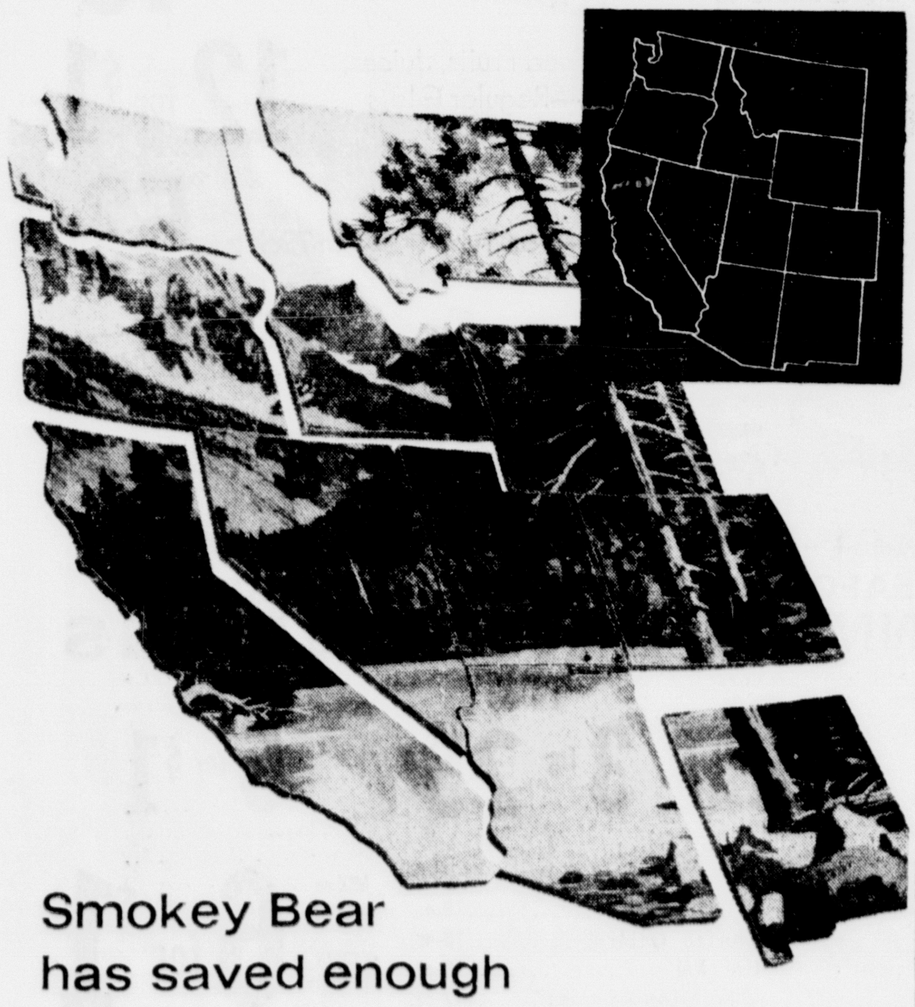

WASHINGTON (AP) — Two Republican congressmen have called on President Johnson to counteract the impression they said was left by a speech Vice Prseident Hubert H. Humphrey made in New Orleans, La., this week.

In that speech, Humphrey described the "filthy, rotten housing" of the ghettos and added: "I've got enough spark left in me to lead a mighty good revolt under those conditions."

House Republican Leader Gerald R. Ford of Michigan termed Humphrey's remarks "incredibly irresponsible" and said Johnson should "repudiate such inflammatory statements by his vice president before more tragic damage is done."

Rep. Albert W. Watson, R-S.C., said in a House speech that Johnson should counteract the impression left by Humphrey's remark, which he called "the pinnacle of irresponsibility."

A government check issued after the payee dies cannot be lawfully cashed by a member of the family, or by the estate administrator. Checks should be returned to the agency that issued them.

Since Smokey Bear's forest fire prevention campaign began in 1942, he's helped save over 272 million acres of prime timber.

That's a fine record, but the job's not over and never will be. Nine out of ten forest fires are caused by careless people who forget Smokey's ABC's: Always hold matches till cold. Be sure to drown all campfires, stir the ashes, and drown them again. Crush all smokes dead out.

Please! Only you can prevent forest fires

Supervisors Approve Hirings, Promotions

Marin County supervisors yesterday hired 16 new county employees and promoted 17 others, following up recommendations adopted in budget sessions last month.

Six were hired to fill newly created positions. Seven of the promotions were to fill newly created jobs.

Those hired were:

Michael J. Glimpse at $419 a month as mail and stock clerk; Marjorie H. Gade at $399 as senior clerk in the county clerk's office; Evelyn Reeves at $362 as clerk typist in the elections department, a new position; John M. Bagshaw at $619 as assistant operations supervisor in the data processing department, a new position, Joseph S. Cook at $562 as computer operator in the data processing department; Leamond C. McGriff at $659 as deputy probation officer II; Janet K. McCoy at $562 as deputy probation officer I; Dong Born at $463 as cook at juvenile hall, a new position; Alice K. Simon at $399 as senior clerk at the family rehabilitation center, a new position; Angelo J. Mecchi at $562 as deputy sheriff; Jeanne A. Wade at $440 as sheriff matron; Hyman E. Fink at $790 as social service (welfare) supervisor II; Johnny F. Lee at $650 as social service practitioner I, a new position; Janet Lockett at $262 as clerk in the social services department; Runa C. Davis at $419 as senior account clerk in the county schools office; Erma Bridgett at $339 as intermediate account clerk in the county schools office, a new position; Athens Getas at $440 as teachers' assistant in the county schools office.

Eleven of the promotions were in the probation department. They were:

Donald Olson and Jo R. Gilbert, from deputy probation officer III to supervising probation officer, and from $829 to $870 a month, Gilbert filling a new position; Bertha Montoro and Raymond Ruis, from deputy probation officer II to deputy probation office III and from $573 to $790, Ruiz filling a new position; Gertrude Cherry from deputy probation officer II to deputy probation officer III and from $650 to $683; Donald Quayle Jr. and William Jackson, from group counselor II to supervising group counselor and from $829 to $870; Marshall McNeill from group counselor III to supervising group counselor and from $790 to $829; Mertle Brown and Jo-Ann Nadeau from group counselor II to III and from $753 to $790; both filling new positions; Louise M. Bradley, group counselor-intake to group counselor II and from $590 to $619, a new position.

Other promotions were:

Irma Seidensticker from social worker II to III and from $650 to $683, a new position; Lillian Barbee from senior typist clerk to supervising clerk I and from $486 to $510, new position; Clifford Den-Otter from assistant civil engineer I to II and from $753 to $790; Margaret Mauris from draftsman I to II and from $536 to $562; Frank P. Giambastiani and John Brambani from road maintenance man I to II and from $510 to $536.

Arizona Dams' Foes Lose Again

WASHINGTON (AP) — Another attack on the proposed lower Colorado River Basin project was turned back today by the House Interior Committee.

As its reclamation and irrigation subcommittee previously had done, the full committee rejected 18-8 an amendment that would have eliminated two big power dams in Arizona and five smaller Colorado units out of the authorization bill for the $1.7 billion project.

The Arizona dams — Marble Canyon and Hualapai, formerly called Bridge Canyon —have been under attack by conservationists on grounds they would back water into the Grand Canyon. They would cost an estimated $750 million.

Union Maneuver Promises New Air Strike Talk Delay

WASHINGTON (AP) — The 13-day airline strike approached a crucial showdown today with a union maneuver that threatens to stretch the costly, crippling walkout another two weeks.

The decision of the striking Machinists' Union to take a "vote of confidence" among all 35,000 strikers in some 30 cities if there is no contract agreement today stunned top federal officials and negotiators for the five grounded airlines.

The only hope for shortening the strike that has already taken much of the joy and the money out of the nation's peak summer tourist season apparently lay in government pressure to win a settlement before the union's 5 p.m. EDT deadline.

A union vote without an agreement between company and union negotiators is virtually certain to reject the last airlines' proposal, sources in the talks said. And negotiations would cease during the week it would take to conduct the balloting.

Negotiations with United, National, Eastern, Northwest and Trans World Airline would have to begin all over again if the union members voted no. And even a prompt agreement then would mean still another week to take a second ratification vote.

The union move appeared to harden the stance of the airline negotiators who, Ramsey complained, already had "their feet planted in cement."

Hodgson Leaves Chamber Board

Resignation of Gary D. Hodgson as a director of the Sausalito Chamber of Commerce Board was accepted yesterday, Hodgson citing "Pressure of business."

His replacement is expected to be appointed at the board's next meeting at Zack's-by-the-Bay, at noon on Aug. 16, said President Robert Rogers.

The board agreed to send a letter to all members suggesting support of the Boy's Club of Southern Marin.

Reluctantly, Board Grants Apartments

Marin County supervisors yesterday, with considerable reluctance and one dissenting vote, approved rezoning of McNear's Point for apartment and private recreation development.

Supervisor Peter H. Behr dissented, saying he believed some kind of planned residential zone would allow more leeway for planning department requirements.

ASKS ASSURANCE

Supervisor William A. Gnoss nearly dissented. He said he would vote for the zone only on assurance that the beach would be left open for the public. Other supervisors declared no such assurance could be made, but Gnoss did not change his vote.

The 24.6-acre property, owned by Peacock Gap Inc., has been zoned for industry. Yesterday's 4-1 vote will change this to 11.3 acres of apartment zoning with at least 2,500 square feet for every apartment unit and 13.3 acres of resort and commercial recreation zoning. The latter includes some open water which will be developed as a marina and private club.

LOW DENSITY

Jerome Draper, president of Peacock Gap Inc., told supervisors that the apartment and townhouse development proposed will not come close to the maximum density allowed under the zoning approved.

Supervisors lamented the failure of the county to purchase the property several years ago.

The Marin County Board of Supervisors also:

1. Asked, at the instance of Supervisor Thomas T. Storer, for preparation of an ordinance for licensing vending vehicles using county right of way.
2. Set hearings on the Novato General Plan for 1:30 p.m., on a zoning ordinance change requiring architectural supervision on all apartment development for 3 p.m., and on the Oakwood Valley Master Plan for 3:30 p.m., all on Aug. 9.
3. Set hearing on the Muir Woods Park zone change requiring larger residential lots for 2:30 p.m. and the Corte Madera Creek flood control budget for 3 p.m. on Aug. 16.
4. Named Judge Joseph G. Wilson to the Mental Health Advisory Board, replacing Judge Harold J. Haley, who resigned last week.
5. Reappointed Victor McKinnon to the Board of Building Code Appeals.
6. Adopted the county's streets and highways plan and parks and recreation plan as "the land use element of Marin County's plan," meeting a state requirement in application for state bond funds for parks.
7. Delayed discussion of A. R. Roumiquire's suggestion for a review committee to process land division and subdivision applications.
8. Set public hearing for 2 p.m. Aug. 23 on formation of a county area to provide street lighting in Meadowland, near Fairfax.
9. Asked for bids Aug. 23 on $265,000 in bonds for the Kentfield School District.
10. Set a hearing for 2 p.m. next Tuesday on an ordinance setting forth conditions for construction of piers and docks in couny lands by the Gallinas Creek County Service Area.
11. Adjourned at 6:30 p.m.

Concealed Arm Brings Term

Judge Samuel W. Gardiner of Marin Superior Court yesterday sentenced Oris Williams, 29, to 180 days in county jail for carrying a concealed weapon while having a prior felony conviction.

He also placed Williams on five years probation.

Williams, of 103 Drake Avenue, Marin City, had a revolver in his possession when sheriff's officers were called to his home to investigate a disturbance. He was found guilty by a jury June 27.

Kettenhofen Left Alone On Limb At Session For Fair Complaints

By ROBERT M. STREBEIGH

Critics of the Marin Art and Garden Fair were conspicuous by their absence yesterday at a hearing scheduled by the county board of supervisors for the airing of grievances.

With the limb cut out from under him by a buzz saw of praise for the fair, Kettenhofen abandoned his proposal for creation of a special committee to look into the complaints and into operation of the committee organizing the fair.

MANAGER PRAISED

Kettenhofen began with praise for Marcelle McCoy, manager of the fair, as "doing a very fine job and very conscientious." He said, however, that he had received "an awful lot of calls . . . from people dissatisfied with the trend of the fair."

He cited recent complaints before the Ross Town Council that the fair was "a monstrosity" and had a "honky-tonk atmosphere."

Mary Henry of Corte Madera said she had looked up "honky-tonk" in the dictionary and found it to mean "a low, drinking dive."

Said Miss Henry, to general laughter, "The only drinking I saw was at a little fountain low enough for children to drink at."

NOT SURPRISED

James S. Goodale, chairman of the fair committee, told Kettenhofen he was not surprised by complaints from citizens of Ross, a community, he contended, that in 20 years "has never improved its streets, its parking facilities, or anything in connection with the city."

Goodale conceded, however that complaints were understandable from residents who had "picked a small town for peace and quiet." He noted that nearly 30,000 persons paid the $1.25 admission and estimated that, with several thousand children admitted free, perhaps "50,000 people descended on this small town."

In any event, he said, this was not a matter to bring before his committee but before whatever group was appointed by the board to run the fair when it moves to new quarters at Civic Center.

Supervisor Byron W. Laydecker agreed that if the complaints were merely a matter of traffic it was "understandable, but just too bad."

COMMERCIAL SIDE

Kettenhofen said there were complaints about the commercial side of the fair, that it was "less and less oriented to the community." He said, "Local businesses are less and less invited; local services are gradually being eliminated."

Mrs. McCoy replied that all local firms were invited, but that few were willing to contribute the time, energy and expense of exhibiting. She presented a report that showed 21 out of 34 garden exhibitors this year were from Marin as compared to 18 out of 37 last year.

The report stated that 85 per cent of all other exhibits were by Marin residents. The art department was limited entirely to county artists. Though paid attendance was down silghtly from last year's record 30,102 persons who paid $1 admission, revenues rose this year to $35,950 since 28,744 persons paid 25 cents more apiece.

SEEKS COMMITTEE

Kettenhofen said he still "would like to have an impartial board." He said, "We owe this minority who have complained the right of investigation."

He recommended the appointment of County Administrator Alan Bruce, Asst. Administrator John Barrows and Pierre W. Joske, director of parks and recreation.

Supervisor Thomas T. Storer objected that such an investigation was getting into "an area of subjective values." He said he favored government support of the fair, but that "when government starts getting into this field, saying what sort of theme should be used . . . we may be out of the area . . . we should be in."

Supervisor Peter Behr found the criticism vague. "It's like fog," he said. You know it's there, but you can't grab it." He objected to appointing "a committee to pass judgement on another committee."

GETS SYMPATHY

Supervisor William A. Gnoss said there was no need for another committee, since the board appointed the fair committee and had the power and responsibility already to remove it if it wasn't doing a good job.

The only sympathy offered Kettenhofen came from Mrs. Jack F. McCarthy, wife of the Republican state senator from San Rafael, who said, "Those who have complained should not have bothered you, but gone to the fair manager."

The proposal for an investigating committee died when no one made a motion.

FBI Agent Speaks

TYPESETTING ERROR CLOUDS JAIL STORY

In some copies of the Independent-Journal which reached subscribers yesterday, the top page 1 story on investigation of the county jail said there had been 19 cases of prisoners injured by other prisoners "in the past 24 hours."

It should have read, "in the past 24 months."

A typesetter inadvertently changed "months" to "hours" in setting the story in type. The error was corrected, but not until after some copies of the paper had already gone out.

Gail Lavery Manslaughter Probation Set

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—Probation conditions were set yesterday for socialite Gail Lavery, 49, who was convicted of manslaughter in the death of her husband.

One condition, set by Superior Court Judge Harry J. Neubarth yesterday, requires Mrs. Lavery to pay $10,000 into the state fund for indigent victims of crimes.

The fund was set up last year by the legislature.

Neubarth also placed Mrs. Lavery on five years probation.

Other provisions were that she seek psychiatric help, be restricted from remarrying without approval of her probation officers, her psychiatrist and the court and that she become self-supporting.

Mrs. Lavery was convicted of killing her husband, George during a violent argument about a year ago.

THE CHEF WHO "couldn't make anything but good instant coffee" some years back, Mrs. Matts Mattsson, serves an assortment of appetizing Swedish dishes including pancakes with Lingonberries, herring salad, and meatballs to daughter Phyllis and son Matts Jr. at the Mattsson's Old Viking Restaurant in Lagunitas.

By LOIS SENS

A disarmingly candid, yet modest person, is Mrs. Matts Mattsson, chef and co-owner with her husband of The Old Viking Restaurant in Lagunitas.

Phyllis Mattsson admitted she "couldn't make anything but good instant coffee" when she and Matts were married in New York City. At the time, Phyllis was an assistant producer for the Chico Marx television show and Matts was working at Scandia Restaurant.

With many years experience in the restaurant business behind him, including the Waldorf Astoria and Stockholm Restaurant in New York, Matts decided to open the Colonial Club in Rye New York. Phyllis began helping in the kitchen, finally replacing the salad man. After seven years of cooking and observing, she became chef.

"I learned little techniques in making Swedish meat balls such as moistening my hands and the plate slightly before forming the meat balls. Then, just slide them from the plate into the pan and they'll hold their shape without sticking."

PHYLLIS also insists (with Matts' hearty agreement) that batter for Swedish pancakes be refrigerated overnight before using. She also emphasizes the importance of using a Swedish skillet or platter (heavy iron pan with dollar sized indentations) or an omelet pan in frying the pancakes over a high flame.

When the Mattssons decided to sell the Colonial Club and head West in 1964, they had made no decision on which particular area they would settle. A bout with the measles with all three youngsters, Matts Jr., Phyllis and Suzanne, kept them in Mountain View for four months. During that time they discovered and liked the Lagunitas area and opened their restaurant on Jan. 27 the next year.

MATTS, who's been in the restaurant business since he was 14 years old in Sweden, and Phyllis have suggested a sample dinner menu including Herring Salad, Swedish Meatballs or another favorite, Koldollmar (stuffed cabbage) and Swedish Pancakes.

HERRING SALAD
(Serves 6)

1 salt herring (raw)
2 soft cooking apples
4 medium-sized potatoes
5 beets
1½ tablespoons finely chopped onion
3 tablespoons vinegar
2 tablespoons sugar
¼ teaspoon white pepper
¾ cup heavy cream
For garnishing: hard boiled egg.

Cut herring into fillets and soak them from 14 to 15 hours in plenty of water. Dry with cloth. Bone, skin and cut into tiny cubes. Beets and potatoes are then cooked in their jackets and cooled. Peel both and cut into somewhat larger cubes. Peel apples and cut into smaller cubes. Chop onion very fine. Now mix all the ingredients together and season, tasting carefully. Lastly, stir in the heavy cream which has been beaten to the consistency of a thick sauce. Do not beat cream to stiff peaks or it will curdle slightly when mixed with the salad. Place salad on a platter and garnish with yellow and white slices of hard boiled egg.

SWEDISH MEATBALLS

½ pound ground beef
¼ pound ground veal
¼ pound ground pork
6 tablespoons bread crumbs
½ cup cream
½ cup soda water
2 egg yolks
2 tablespoons chopped Bermuda onion
2 tablespoons salt
½ teaspoon white pepper
pinch allspice
4 tablespoons butter

Soak bread crumbs in cream. Mix soaked bread crumbs and meat together thoroughly adding the remaining cream and soda water, a little at a time.

Fry the onion in 1 tablespoon butter without browning. Stir the seasonings, egg yolks and onion in with the meat mixture. Shape into small balls and fry in butter using low heat. Shake pan occasionally to keep the balls in shape. Serve in a deep dish with a brown sauce poured over or serve without as desired.

SWEDISH PANCAKES
(Makes 15 pancakes)

3 eggs
Pinch salt
½ cup sugar
1 cup flour
2 cups milk

Beat eggs lightly. Add pinch of salt. Gradually beat in the sugar. When this mixture is smooth, stir in the flour, then add milk to the batter. If electric mixer is used, the mixture should be allowed to stand overnight in the refrigerator. (This prevents pancakes from becoming fluffy with air bubbles.)

TO FRY: Using a small sized omelette pan or Swedish skillet, add a few drops of cooking oil (not butter or margarine) and turn the flame high. Pour out the excess oil and when pan is hot, add just enough batter to barely cover the bottom of the pan. (Pour a small amount, then tip pan to spread batter.) When the pancake is brown on one side and appears dry on top, use a spatula to turn and brown on the other side.

Matts suggests the pancakes might also be flambed with warm cointreau, brandy or Southern Comfort in a chafing dish or rolled in butter and topped with powdered sugar.

Let Refrigerator Do Cooking With Frosty, Colorful Menu

Cool, refreshing news for a simmering summer night is this ever-so-elegant supper to perk up wilted appetites — to tempt the eye and richly reward the palate. And, the best part is that it's so effortless to create. Your refrigerator does the "cooking."

The main course is a shimmering topaz delight. Canned condensed consomme in cool jellied summer form, is dressed up with luscious shrimp and crisp watercress. It can be served in stemmed glasses with a twist of lemon, if you like. Accompany it with an open face avocado-cream cheese sandwich, garnished with just a sprinkling of orange rind.

SHRIMP CONSOMME

1 can (10½ ounces) condensed consomme
½ cup diced cooked shrimp
¼ cup thinly sliced celery
2 tablespoons snipped watercress
Dash pepper
Lemon wedges

Combine consumme, shrimp, celery, watercress and pepper. Chill until jellied — about 4 hours. Stir when partially jellied to distribute shrimp and vegetables. Serve in chilled bowls. Garnish with lemon wedges and additional watercress, if desired. Makes 2 to 3 servings.

AVOCADO-CREAM CHEESE SANDWICH

1 package (3 ounces) softened cream cheese
1 tablespoon light cream
1 teaspoon grated orange rind
Avocado slices, brushed lightly with lemon juice
4 slices whole wheat bread

Blend cream cheese and cream; add orange rind. Spread mixture on bread; top with avocado slices. Cut each in 4 triangles, if desired. Makes 16 tea or 4 large sandwiches.

A COOL AND REFRESHING evening meal combines glasses of shrimp consomme, avocado-cream cheese sandwiches topped off with a dessert of frosty yam pie.

Fish And Chips Go American

We've been having lots of fun at our house serving fish and chips, and you may be interested in following suit.

For that British staple, here's the recipe we've used, fashioned in typical American style around convenient frozen sole fillets and frozen French fries. With the main ingredients in the freezer, it is simple to whip up the dish any time you feel like it—for the family, for guests.

YES, GUESTS. We find they're delighted with fish and chips. Maybe because they can eat with their fingers! They adore dipping the inviting looking strips of fish—covered with the most wonderful golden-brown batter — into good old catsup. Ditto for the French fried potatoes. Or perhaps they'll be adventurous and sprinkle the French fries with vinegar from a shaker-top bottle—that's what's done in England and often in Canada.

If giving a fish-and-chips party appeals to you, for heaven's sake don't make it a formal affair. Guests never have a better time than when they're invited into the kitchen, if the kitchen can hold them comfortably.

FOR SUCH a party we have the frozen fish fillets defrosted, the batter ready, the fryer filled and ready to go. Then while some of the guests loll around with a favorite drink (mugs of beer or ale are in order), others have a grand time taking turns in retrieving the crisp strips of fish from the fryer and attending to the French fries. There's sure to be one guest (usually male) who relishes concocting a salad dressing and tossing it with greens. After that, all we have to do is to bring on fresh fruit and cheese, and our party's a success. We urge you to try this plan and find out how easy it is to have company.

AMERICAN-STYLE FISH AND CHIPS

2 packages (each 12 ounces) frozen sole fillets, defrosted
2 eggs, separated
⅔ cup beer or ale
1 cup sifted regular flour
½ teaspoon salt
½ teaspoon paprika
2 tablespoons butter or margarine, melted and cooled
1 package (2 pounds) frozen French fries, plain or crinkle cut

Cut defrosted sole fillets into strips about 3 inches long and 1½ inches wide; try to follow the demarcations of the fillets, even if the size of the strips varies. Thoroughly dry the fish strips on absorbent paper.

Beat egg yolks until thickened and lemon colored. Gradually stir in the beer. Add flour, salt, paprika and melted butter; stir until blended and smooth—this takes a fair amount of stirring.

Just before frying fish, with a clean beater, beat egg whites until they hold stiff straight peaks when the beater is slowly removed; fold into batter.

Dip fish strips, a few at a time, into batter. Without crowding, fry in deep fat, heated to 370 degrees, for 2 to 3 minutes or until golden brown. Drain fried fish on absorbent paper. Meanwhile, heat French fries according to your favorite method on package directions. Serve fish and French fries at once. Makes 6 servings.

Note: In measuring the beer, let it (without foam!) come to the ⅔-cup mark on a 1-cup glass measure for liquid. (AP)

New Tomato Stuffing

Finely chopped cooked vegetables, mixed with mayonnaise, make an excellent stuffing for tomatoes that are to be served as a salad. Starting from the stem end of each tomato, cut it into sixths, but do not cut all the way through. Spread the wedges apart and then add the stuffing.

THE SUBURBAN SCENE

Islands Cast Spell On Marinites—

By MOLLY MARIN

The Islands continue to lure Marinites to its shores for vacations — and not Staten-Long-Coney and Manhattan.

These are the Islands to the west, the Hawaiian Islands, where Mrs. Robert O'Mara of San Rafael took two of her children for graduation trips—John, who just graduated from St. Raphael's, and Jane, who just graduated from San Domenico. John will go on to Bellerman in San Jose and Jane will continue her education at Santa Clara. Christopher Coyne, the son of the Edmund Coynes of San Rafael, went along to keep John company (Chris will be going to Bellerman too) and Lee Longaker, classmate of Jane's at San Domenico and one of this year's debs, was Jane's companion. Lee's mother and father are in their new home now in Sonoma, built in the foothills toward Glen Ellen on the old Alma Spreckles property.

On her return to the mainland, Jane O'Mara went to work as a summer counselor at Camp Terista, a Catholic Youth Organization camp at Bass Lake. She will be there for four weeks.

ANOTHER graduation trip to Hawaii was given Julianne Wilhelm by her parents, the R. G. Wilhelms of Kentfield, on completion of four years study at Holy Names College in Oakland. Katie Wilhelm went along with her sister. The girls are home now, planning an early move to an apartment in San Francisco where they are both employed.

MRS. ERIC Bellingall of Belvedere and Mrs. Jack Ruggles, the former Mrs. Grace Costigan of San Rafael, have been living on the Island of Oahu on the other side of the Pali for the past month and were joined mid-way through their vacation by their husbands. Chris, a recent San Domenico graduate, and her sister Mary, a sophomore at the same school were with their parents.

JUST BACK from a two-week trip to Honolulu are Mr. and Mrs. Nick Allen, the former Judy O'Connell, and their daughter, Molly.

LEAVING Friday for Oahu and an "adventure" away from home are Suzanne Pratt, 11, and Dickson Pratt Jr., 13, daughter and son of Mr. and Mrs. Dickson G. Pratt of Tiburon. While there, the children will visit their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Dickson Pratt, in Honolulu and friends in the town of Kailua on the other side of the Island where they were born. This is their first trip back since their move to Tiburon in 1963 with their parents. They will be gone five weeks, and while there will attend the Episcopal Church summer camp on the beach at Mokuleia on the north side of Oahu.

BELVEDERE friends have just learned of the exciting plans of Mr. and Mrs. John G. Cooke. Janet and John will be spending the next two years on Saipan, where John, an architect, will assist with planning for docks, hospitals and schools on the South Pacific island. Janet, a talented artist, hopes to work with the people of Saipan in preserving their native art. Their son, Tom, who will enroll at the University of California at Davis as a freshman this fall, will spend several weeks in the Hawaiian Islands with his mother before entering college. John leaves today for the new assignment. The couple have lived in Belvedere for 18 years. John Cooke is a member of the San Francisco Yacht Club; Janet is a past president of the club's women's auxiliary, a member of Belvedere Guild No. 3 of Sunny Hills, and a former board member of the Belvedere Nursery School. The Cookes' Belvedere home has been purchased by Mr. and Mrs. Roy Ashley of Corte Madera. The Ashleys, members of San Francisco Yacht Club, have many friends in Belvedere.

RECEPTION HONOREE

Marin debutante Nancy Grimes was the honor guest on Sunday at a reception and buffet supper dance hosted by her parents, Dr. and Mrs. Orville F. Grimes in San Rafael. Nancy received in a shell pink sheath while her mother chose a dress of powder blue ribbon lace. Guests at the buffet and supper dance were Marin debs and their escorts. (DuCharme photo)

TO PUBLISH ENGAGEMENT AND WEDDING STORIES IN THE I-J

Forms for engagement and wedding story information to be printed in the Independent-Journal are available from the I-J offices in San Rafael, Novato, Mill Valley, Tiburon and Corte Madera.

Wedding forms must be returned promptly to the I-J office in your area and information will be printed immediately after the wedding takes place. Photographers should be urged to submit a print of the wedding picture promptly. Color photographs cannot be used.

The Independent-Journal does not print wedding stories or pictures more than 30 days after the wedding takes place.

Engagement forms may be accompanied by a professional black and white photograph, which may be obtained in the I-J office after publication.

Studying California History Hobby Of Auxiliary Officer

Mrs. William Roberts Bacon of Mill Valley has been re-elected to serve a second term as president of the Women's Auxiliary to the Marin County Pharmaceutical Assn.

A member for two and a half years, she served as recording secretary for 1964-65.

The purposes of this organization, she says, are social and educational, two of which are maintaining scholarships for students in pharmacy schools and furthering pharmacy philanthropies.

It is composed of wives, mothers, daughters and sisters of registered pharmacists; registered women pharmacists; women who own pharmacies; and wives of professors of a recognized college of pharmacy.

Activities planned for the year include a July 10 informal get-together with husbands at Rancho Nicasio; the Northgate fashion show in August; and a silent auction in December and spring function to raise money for scholarships and philanthropies.

MRS. WILLIAM BACON

Carol is also active in the Mill Valley Church Tandems couples club, as a volunteer in the Alto School library and a den mother of Cub Scouts Den 1, Pack 26.

A third generation Californian, she was educated in San Leandro and Oakland schools and San Francisco City College with a major in interior design. She was employed as a florist for five years in Oakland.

She and her husband, co-owners of the Lawson and Dyer Pharmacies in Mill Valley, moved from Redwood City to Mill Valley in 1963. They have two children, Steven Victor, 10; and Catherine Louise, 8.

The new president says she enjoys being with her husband and children more than anything else. Her other interests are decorating, gardening, reading, sewing, cooking, studying California history and attending ballet, theater and movies.

Other new officers are Mesdames Henry Puccinelli of Novato, vice president; Vincent Severietti of San Rafael, recording secretary; Robert Abell of San Rafael, corresponding secretary; Robert Satterthwaite of San Rafael, treasurer; William Peterson of San Rafael, auditor; Jack Heard of Mill Valley, parliamentarian; David Parrish of Novato, historian; and Heard, Don Bartollo of Novato, Allan Hanson of San Rafael and Stanley Kane of San Rafael, board of directors.

PRINCESS TO CROSS ATLANTIC

LONDON (UPI) — Princess Anne, only daughter of Queen Elizabeth II, will cross the Atlantic for the first time this summer and spend her 16th birthday in the Caribbean.

The tall, blonde young princess is very excited and thrilled about her trip to Jamaica for the Commonwealth Games. It is her first big journey abroad and means a reunion with her elder brother, Prince Charles, 17-year-old heir to the British throne.

ANNE will fly to Kingston, Jamaica, on Aug. 3 with her father, Prince Philip, and stay until the day after her birthday Aug. 15. Charles will join them there, coming straight from five months of school in Australia.

The princess is amused at the idea of staying in the celebrated "James Bond" hotel on the hillside overlooking Kingston Harbor. Charles, more interested than her in thrillers and spy stories, will be staying in the actual room used by the late James Bond creator, Ian Fleming. He wrote much of "Doctor No" in the room.

WHILE at boarding school at Benenden in Southern England, the princess has been reading travel books about the Caribbean. She is looking forward to seeing Jamaica's flowers, shopping in the local markets and adding some calypso discs to her large record collection.

Anne is a thoroughly fashion-conscious teen-ager and her wardrobe will include cool shift dresses in favorite shades of pink, green and pale blue.

SHE WILL also pack jeans, shorts and riding clothes. She particularly loves riding and has won several awards at horse shows in Britain.

Polo will be one of the attractions of the Commonwealth Festival because Prince Philip will play in several games. His daughter is almost as knowledgeable as he is about the sport and does not confine herself merely to watchdog.

HELEN HELP US!

By HELEN BOTTEL

If You Can't Lick 'Em, Join 'Em Says Wife Whose Hubby Is A Flirt

DEAR HELEN:

I get so tired of people implying that the only reason our young people do certain things is that it is against the law. For instance, a letter to you recently said teens drink and smoke because the law prohibits this.

I refuse to believe they are that stupid. If they are, then we had better remove all laws, such as "Thou shalt not lie, steal, kill," etc., as these would only be a challenge, enticing them to rebel.

I think young people are just as sensible as we were when young. Many of them respect a law and have the common sense to reason what is best for their livelihood.

Let's face it: Teens smoke and drink because adults have set the example. They want to be sophisticated and worldly like their elders.

Surely, if we set a better example, our children would follow us and it would not be necessary to change laws to keep them from defying same.

Aren't we defying the laws of nature if we do not teach our children obedience and set before them what obedience to law and health is?—M. H.

DEAR M:

We certainly are. . . . But don't expect good examples and upbringing to keep your children clear of all limit testing, any more than they kept us totally obedient when we were young.

I like Robert Louis Stevenson's remark, "For God's sake give me the young man who has brains enough to make a fool of himself." Kinda comforting, isn't it?—H.

DEAR HELEN:

This is to "How Can I Win," whose husband is a flirt.

When we were first married, I minded a lot that my husband had a twinkle and a sweet word for all the ladies.

Then I decided to get into the act, too. When he flirted, I smiled and twinkled my eyes at the gal in an understanding way and in a while, instead of people saying, "That nice Mr. S. . . ." they referred to us as "that happy couple, Mr. and Mrs. S."

He is 61 and still flirts, even though I'm sure I'm the only woman in his life.

If you can't lick 'em (and you definitely can't change a flirt), join 'em.—MRS. S.

DEAR HELEN:

About that married woman whose in-laws won't accept her "mod" clothes. I feel for her!

I am 39, often taken for a teen-ager; weigh 108, don't wear makeup or dye my hair. Yet my in-laws constantly find fault. They are so jealous of my unusually youthful good looks that to please them is impossible. They are jealous of my intellectual friends, the ease with which I keep my house and raise our five children. They hoped I'd be a Jezebel to confirm my looks, and they have never forgiven me for not turning out as they predicted.

You can't make yourself ugly to please petty people, so I concentrate on pleasing my husband, who approves of me, thank goodness. Funny, I don't drink, smoke or swear; my sister-in-law does, and she is nowhere near me in domestic abilities. Yet she is accepted by 'the Clan.'

As you said, Helen, it's best to have your husband take you out of the family orbit. We keep 3,000 miles away from my husband's family, yet we get catty remarks even in letters. I just ignore their existence now, after 12 years of trying to win their approval. My husband visits them alone. Tell your correspondent not to tone down anything — it won't help. — MRS. HAS BEEN THERE

This column is dedicated to family living, so if you're having kid trouble or just plain trouble, let Helen Help You. She will also welcome your own amusing experiences. Address Helen Bottel in care of the Independent-Journal.

Complete Sewing Course Is Offered

Garments you make at home can have that professional look when you follow the instructions used by the professionals.

For help in your sewing program, you may follow instructions given in a correspondence course from the Pennsylvania State University. The "Sewing: Making a Dress" course helps you plan and choose clothes for the life you lead. Colors, how to choose and use them to enhance your appearance, are taught in one section of the course.

To get the complete sewing course, send $2.25 to Correspondence Courses, 202 Agricultural Education Building, University Park, Penn. 16802. Make check or money order payable to the Pennsylvania State University.

FORECAST FROM PARIS

The mini-skirt will be with us for still another season, according to these tendency models for the autumn-winter collection of Parisian designer Louis Feraud. The short-short skirt, bell-shaped hat and colored stockings adorned with jewelry will be features of the collection to be presented beginning Monday. (UPI Cablephoto)

Helt To Be Caller In Marin Saturday

Jerry Helt, of Cincinnati, O., square dance caller, will be in Marin on Saturday to entertain local dancers at Carpenters' Hall, in San Rafael, from 8:30 p.m. to midnight. While here, he will visit with the Dan Allens of Larkspur, and other friends who know him from the national square dance circuit.

Don't Offer Fang Your Own Breakfast, Say Nutritionists

Many people wrongly believe that animals share our tastes for food, Dr. Morley R. Kare reported recently at a meeting of the Nutrition Foundation. Dr. Kare, a specialist in the sense of taste, is professor of physiology at North Carolina State University. The Nutrition Foundation, a non-profit institution which supports scientific research and education in nutrition, will hold soon a scientific symposium on the chemistry and physiology of taste.

Dr. Kare told the trustees of the Nutrition Foundation that human taste standards must be disregarded in the search for new food sources for animals. Domestic animals eat much food which is also acceptable to humans. As man's food materials become more scarce, interest is increasing in finding alternative food sources for animals.

MAN TASTES things as sweet, sour, bitter or salty. In studying the sense of taste in animals, it is necessary to describe taste on the basis of behavior of animals when they are offered foods. Animals prefer some foods and find others offensive.

The studies done so far, Dr. Kare reported, clearly indicate that animals live in their own sensory world. And man, using his own senses, cannot judge what will appeal to or offend an animal.

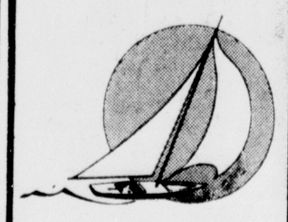

Man has a more complicated nervous system than animals, but animals have sensory mechanisms which exceed those of man. A dog can hear sound of higher pitch than can be perceived by a man. A butterfly can perceive sugar solutions a thousand times more dilute than man can perceive — and do it with its feet. Man is not the ultimate in sensory development.

The number of taste buds varies widely; a chicken has 24, man has nine thousand, a catfish has one hundred thousand, Dr. Kare reported. But the meaning of the number of taste buds has not been ascertained. Chickens, with 24 taste buds, will reject taste-test solutions which are apparently not detectable to animals with many more taste buds.

ANIMALS ARE usually thought to have some innate wisdom which guides them in proper food selection, Dr. Kare said. But studies have failed to support this contention. Some experiments suggest that wild animals are more responsive to the consequences of food selection and intake than are domestic animals, however. It is possible that domestication has altered the ability to taste, Dr. Kare suggested.

Most people form their ideas about animal tastes from feeding pets. They think that pets like "home style" or "country flavor" foods that appeal to the human palate. This form of human judgment cannot be applied to animals, Dr. Kare said.

MARRIED RECENTLY at a nuptial mass at St. Anselm's Church in Ross were Kathleen Anne Monahan of San Anselmo and Thomas Hillner Cleary of Lakewood, Calif. The Rev. William Burns officiated. The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Monahan of San Anselmo, the bride was given in marriage by her father and attended by her sister, Mrs. Kenneth Wagner of San Anselmo. Her brother, Peter Monahan, was best man. (Mack photo)

Rusnak-Hedlund Nuptials Recited In Rosenberg Home

The home of the Robert Rosenbergs in Sausalito was the setting of a most unusual wedding when Mrs. Rosenberg's brother, Dr. Stuart Rusnak of Chicago, Ill., and Kristin Laura Hedlund of Ardmore, Okla., were married in a 7:30 p.m. ceremony.

Dr. Rusnak had been so impressed with his sister's home on a visit that he had always said he would like to be married there.

She wore a short dress of white peau de soie and the lace veil of the bridegroom's great great grandmother. The Rosenbergs were the couple's attendants.

Decor in an extraordinary modern black, white and mustard color scheme was done by Mrs. Rosenberg, who is an artist. She wore a three-piece black and white outfit with mustard color blouse, and her seven-year-old daughter Sissy, who presented all women guests with a nosegay of violets, was dressed in a black and white jump suit designed by her mother.

Present for the wedding were the bride's mother, Mrs. S. E. Hedlund of Ardmore, and the bridegroom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Rusnak of Chicago.

The newlyweds will live in Chicago for a year and then go on to Germany.

Pamela Shoup Weds Lt. Edward Farrell

The United States Air Force Academy Chapel at Colorado Springs was the setting on July 2 for the wedding of Pamela Louise Shoup, daughter of Col. and Mrs. Harry W. Shoup of Hamilton Air Force Base, and Lt. Edward Patrick Farrell.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a full length gown of white linen with a straight skirt. Wide bands of Chantilly lace banded the sleeves and hem.

Pamela's sisters, Mrs. Robert Hannigan of Pittsburgh, Pa. Teri Shoup of Hamilton, were matron of honor.Bridesmaids were Jill Holmes and Mrs. Arthur Bacon of Denver. They wore matching floor length blue linen sheaths with white linen at the empire waist.

The bride is the sister of Mrs. Hannigan, Teri and Richard Shoup. She attended high school in Brunswick, Me., Westminster College in Pennsylvania and is now attending St. Luke's Nursing School in Denver.

The bridegroom, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Bernard J. Farrell of Hamden, Conn., attended Villanova University and was graduated from the Air Force in 1965. He is the brother of Mrs. Norman Morrison and Brian Farrel of Hamden.

Town & Country Village

Don't miss the July Sales, now in progress . . . some very special "specials" now, at these Village specialty shops. Most Village shops are open Friday evening and Sunday afternoon for your browsing and buying pleasure. Window shoppers welcome at STRAWBERRY

Just unpacked at IMPORTS INTERNATIONAL, beautiful and unique hanging lamps from Mexico. John Rader explained how the wrought iron, cage-like frame is made first and then, clear or colored glass is hand-blown into the frame to form a lamp globe that molds to the intricasies of the frame. Also from Mexico, sisal hammocks in bright colors that hold up to three hundred pounds . . . (great to take along on vacations, since they roll-up into practically nothing). We are always fascinated by the jewelry collection at IMPORTS INTERNATIONAL . . . huge selection of earrings in all styles . . . Swiss costume watches styled as pendants, with a two year guarantee . . . and some perfectly marvelous antique-looking jewelry. (If Grandma didn't leave you an heirloom, these fabulous fakes from Australia will fool anyone.)

In case you haven't yet visited IDEAL STATIONERS, you may not realize they carry a complete stock of office supplies. Found here too—handsome "for-the-office" gifts . . . such as desk sets, lamps, novelty items, pen and pencil sets . . . to name but a few. We have always found the office supplies we need at IDEAL STATIONERS, but should you request an item not in stock, you will find friendly, fast and efficient service here.

If you are familiar with the famed Vera prints, you'll want to see the aprons, towels and pot holders, with the distinctive Vera splash of color, at HAPPY HOUSE. Aprons are two-fifty, the towels and pot holders are one-twenty-five. These are perfect for adding a spark of newness to your own kitchen, and also make wonderful hostess and shower gifts. A great selection of all kinds of aprons at HAPPY HOUSE . . . "his and hers," butcher-style aprons . . . party aprons, many reversible . . . hand-embroidered aprons from Portugal . . . and those practical but pretty cover-ups; the smock style aprons.

Noticed some lovely gift items at VILLAGE JEWELERS. These are different sizes of crystal dishes, trimmed with non-tarnishable silver or gold (or a combination of both) . . . and perfect for monogramming or a personalized inscription. Starting at five dollars, these dishes would make memorable wedding or anniversary gifts. VILLAGE JEWELERS asks us to remind you that their July sale is still in progress.

When a last minute "let's-go-on-a-picnic-panic" hits your family don't lose your cool, dear . . . just trot on down to BERNSTEIN'S DELICATESSEN (or stop by there on you way to your favorite picnic grounds). Pick up a barbecued chicken or two (if the children invited "half the neighborhood," you'd better give BERNSTEIN'S a few hours warning to be sure they'll have enough barbecued birds for your gang) . . . add some of their cole slaw and potato salad and a few sweets and, voila!—a picnic that even the cook of the family will enjoy.

Keep looking, ladies, if you can't find ALBERTA OF MARIN. She recently moved to a more convenient Village location (next to the candle shop, facing the center mall). ALBERTA invites you to visit her lovely new shop and take advantage of the introductory sale prices on all new merchandise . . . (very fine, imported artificial flowers and gift items).

Mothers (to be) of the world, rejoice! EXPECTATION MATERNITY SHOP is featuring exceptional values during their July Sale. All reductions are on better merchandise (that phrase does not seem appropriate for EXPECTATION MATERNITY SHOP, since all their merchandise is "better," which does not always mean expensive). On sale this month, mostly summer cottons and some transitional styles . . . dresses, tops, capri sets, bermudas and separates . . . as a "for instance." No matter what season, we have noticed this shop is always up to date with the latest fashion, especially designed for ladies-in-waiting.

Can't resist telling you about our favorite casserole at L'ENTREE. We like every single one of these delightful dishes . . . but the one we serve most often is Veal Sautee. Don't know what Louis Reimers, master chef of L'ENTREE, uses for this concoction, but we have yet to serve it to anything short of "rave notices." We suggest you serve this Veal Saute over Louis' own special rice (deliciously different). You might like to serve one of L'ENTREE'S domestic or imported wines . . . Louis stocks a number of small size bottles, that are just right for his dinner a' deux casseroles. Excellent catering service here, with perfectly marvelous hors d'oeuvres . . . (sampler trays of these delectables available on Friday and Saturday.)

Games (big) people play are found at CAPRICORN BOOKS. These adult games make terrific gifts and wonderful vacation companions. See the "bookcase games" series . . . they look for all the world like a handsomely leather-bound tome when stored upright on a shelf. Another favorite adult game at CAPRICORN BOOKS is "Go," priced at four ninety-five . . . instruction books, for beginner or expert, here too.

If you've been paying attention, dear reader, you surely know by now about the wonderful barbecued spareribs at THE HICK'RY PIT . . . but have you tossed calorie counting to the winds and tried the marvelous pastry menu at this family restaurant? When we feel like going on a real "baked-goods binge" we head for a piece of our favorite pie at THE HICK'RY PIT. (These pies can be taken home, too, for an always popular treat.)

. . . wonderful bumper stickers at MUTTS OF MARIN. On different colored background, black print proclaims, "Owner of a Neurotic Dog" . . . these stickers also sport a clever line drawing of a nicely nutty mutt. Great fun!

Informal outdoor entertaining often calls for keg beer. You can order a keg of "suds" from VILLAGE LIQUORS . . . (for small gatherings, they suggest the tapper size keg). Whenever you need advice on liquid libation, be sure to plan with Dan at VILLAGE LIQUORS . . . he'll be glad to suggest "how much" of "just what" for your next party.

New restaurant in The Village . . . KUBLAI KHAN. Named for that long ago Mongol emperor who dined so elegantly, this new spot is fit for royalty, and is a delight to us "just plain folks." Extremely attractive decor here . . . bright, yet serene, surroundings that are graced by fine china and silver (to say nothing of the delicious food). Menu here is varied enough to please any palate . . . Polynesian, Chinese and American dishes. Already a favorite at KUBLAI KHAN, the tropical, fresh fruit salads, served so nicely: Both luncheon and dinner at this new restaurant (service from noon to ten, seven days a week) . . . also food to take out (phone ahead for this popular feature). Mr. Stanley Toy, congenial host at KUBLAI KHAN, will always try to comply with your wishes, should you want to order a dish not on the menu . . . he also offers a children's plate upon request. KUBLAI KHAN has banquet facilities for up to seventy-five people . . . sure to be a hit with both men's and women's groups. In short . . . an excellent new restaurant . . . be sure to visit there soon, and we guarantee you'll return often.

Don't miss the marvelous sale going on at INTERNATIONALE, LTD., one of the Village's newest jewelry and gift shops. Full 50% reductions on all decorator-style gift items, to make room for new arrivals of fine silver and china. INTERNATIONALE, LTD. has a magnificent collection of rare jade and other precious gems . . . as well as fabulous objets d'art from around the world.

For summertime entertaining (or any time, for that matter) we suggest you try the marvelous HICKORY FARMS of OHIO cheese spreads. In a variety of sizes (the 12 oz., "table-attractive," refillable crock is most popular) these spreads are available in sharp or garlic cheddar, wine or brandy flavors. As with all HICKORY FARMS goodies, you are invited to taste-test before deciding on a flavor. These cheese spreads make wonderful, welcome gifts and may be just the answer for that "has everything" person on most gift lists . . . (with an indefinite follow-up of gifts of refills). HICKORY FARMS carries 126 varieties of cheese and, naturally, we have our favorites. We won't even attempt to report on each one . . . we'll let you you have the fun of trying them all and establishing your own favorites.

Tudor Revises Second Deck Cost Figures

I-J SPECIAL REPORT

SAN FRANCISCO—Tudor Engineering Co.'s original estimate of $35 million to build a second deck on the Golden Gate Bridge is no longer valid, the company president declared today.

Louis W. Riggs, president of Tudor, made the statement after a meeting of Golden Gate Bridge and Highway District directors at St. Francis Hotel.

Last month Riggs had given $35 million as a rough estimate of cost. Today he declared, "I should never have opened my mouth to begin with."

He said he made the guess on the basis of figures given him by his consultant Norman C. Raab.

Bridge directors tried to pin him down on the cost estimate, but Riggs said further studies would be needed before accurate figures could be presented.

On July 6 a rival firm, Ammann and Whitney of New York, charged that the Tudor plan would cost $97,600,000. Milton Brumer, president of Ammann and Whitney, said his company could do the job for $41,500,000. Tudor Engineering Co. met with the bridge directors today to reply to some of Ammann and Whitney's charges.

Riggs said: "The $56 million differential given by the Ammann and Whitney firm is grossly exaggerated."

Hub Woman's Death Blamed On Overdose

Maude Sally Lyons, 60, of San Anselmo, died yesterday at a local hospital.

Mrs. Lyons was found unconscious in bed at home yesterday morning by a companion with whom she lived, Mrs. Verna Lodwick. Mrs. Lyons reportedly had been under a doctor's care, and had received sleeping pills to help relieve her insomnia. She apparently took an overdose, the coroner's office reported.

A resident of California for almost 40 years, she lived in Marin for about six years.

Stuck Boat Gets Hamilton's Aid

Four occupants of a grounded cabin cruiser successfully flagged down the Air Force last evening.

Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Laplante of San Mateo and T. G. Fauret and J. A. Razetti of San Francisco were aboard the cruiser when it became stuck in mud flats near the end of the Hamilton Air Force Base runway about 5:40 p.m.

One of them waved a red flag at planes passing over. And sure enough, a pilot notified the base fire department, which sped to the rescue.

The four were none the worse for the experience, base officials reported. But the cabin cruiser was still aground today.

Arbitrator Reports Hilton Maid Strike Nearly Over

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — Agreement was reported to be near today in the dispute between 19 Negro maids and the Hilton Hotel.

The maids, who walked off the job April 15 on charges they were discriminated against, have been offered reinstatement and back pay, it was announced yesterday.

The arbitrator in the dispute, the Rev. George L. Bedford of the Macednoia Baptist Church, said a house-cleaning committee would also be set up to process future complaints of discrimination by a housekeeper who, the maids claimed, treated them unfairly.

Bedford said the hotel management was "leaning over backwards" to settle the dispute.

Now, if only the civil rights people will compromise a little, everthing will fall right into line," he added.

Brown Signs Bill To Pay Transit Relocation Cost

SACRAMENTO (AP) — The San Francisco Bay Area Rapid Transit District was authorized today to pay moving expenses to people and businesses displaced by construction of transit facilities.

Gov. Brown announced that he had signed a bill granting the authority to the district. An urgency measure, it went into immediate effect.

The measure by Assemblyman Byron Rumford, D-Berkeley, passed by the legislature's special session, provides relocation payments of up to $200 for an individual or family and $3,000 for a business or nonprofit organization.

The bill also redefines the San Francisco approaches of the transit system to qualify the city for federal funds for construction of a Davis street station.

ROSS ROCK 'N ROLL

Marin Musicians Make Beatles Like, Ancient

By PAT PERRY

There's an awful lot of rock 'n' roll groups competing for jobs in Marin County nowadays. (There's a lot of awful rock 'n' roll groups too, but that's not today's subject.)

So what does a very young, very ambitious group of five boys do to forge ahead in the race?

For a start they buy matching polka-dot shirts, and fancy Beatle boots. They take a few music lessons. They rehearse synchronized steps ("the routines get attention, they make you feel better").

And when they get out of school in the afternoon they take most of their fellow sixth-graders home with them to dance in the garden.

It's a formula for success that's paying off for the Minit Men: Maniff George, Phil Willcut, Pat and Rob Dorinson, all of Ross, and Rebel Minutoli of Greenbrae.

"We're getting known. We're getting plenty of jobs, usually one a week," said Maniff George. He's 14, plays the guitar. Pat Dorinson, 13, plays the organ. Phil Willcutt, 14, plays bass. They've just graduated from Ross School and were the group's original members.

The "old" Minit Men are Rob Dorinson, 15, lead singer, and Rebel Minutoli, 15, drums. They go to Redwood High School.

It may not be the youngest group in Marin, for there seems to be one on every block, but it's likely the youngest actually getting paid (sometimes $65 a night). The boys have played in Santa Venetia and San Anselmo and often at the Mill Valley Youth Center. (They once got a date in San Francisco, but had to turn it down. None of them is old enough for a driving license.)

George describes their style as "rock 'n' roll, with a lot of folk rock." They've written a couple of songs themselves, and play mostly songs the dancers request.

"We like playing the fast ones, but the requests are often for slow ones. We don't play the new Beatle songs. They're good, but no one can dance to them. Actually we know about 10 slow numbers but about 50 fast ones."

Don't get the idea the Minit Men are making a fortune out of their show business career. Their bank account did once climb to $125. It's down to $1.97 now.

How do the boys feel about playing for dancers who are usually much older than them? "It doesn't bother us," said George, "although sometimes they try to tell us what to play."

The Minit Men have some problems that the Rolling Stones undoubtedly don't encounter. Two members can't grow their hair as long as they'd like. They go out for football and track at school. And rehearsals ground to a halt this month. The Dorinson brothers were away at camp.

But the rock 'n rollers have a great time with their group. Usually rehearsals in the George's Ross home have some 30 dancers attendant. ("All the with-it kids from Ross School").

"Our parents like it," said George. "They know we're not running around getting into trouble. So long as we keep up our grades at school, they think it's great."

And there's another bonus. The Minit Men may not command the screaming adulation that the Beatles receive, but "it helps with the girls if you say you're in a group," admitted George.

College Trustees To See Science Building Plans

A step by step review of drawings for the College of Marin's proposed $2,250,000 science building will be made by the Marin Junior College District board at its meeting tomorrow at 8 p.m. in room G-3 of the college's physical education building.

It will be the trustees' first look at schematic plans of the new project, which will house facilities for courses in physical and life sciences, engineering, mathematics, registered and vocational nursing and dental assisting.

There will also be general classrooms and offices in the building, construction of which is expected to start early next year and take two years.

The board will also discuss a replacement for Dr. James W. Duke, whose resignation as director of planning will take effect from Sept. 15 or earlier.

Music Chest To Feature Mexico Fete

Javier de Leon's "Fiesta Mexicana," a spectacular program of the song, dance and music of Mexico, will be presented July 31 at Dominican College, San Rafael.

The program, depicting 600 years of Mexican culture, begins at 3 p.m. and is part of the Marin Music Chest summer series.

The production, under de Leon's direction, will feature the plumed headdresses and masks, the intricately ornamented jewelry of ancient times and the native costumes of the men and women of Mexico.

The program has been presented to critical acclaim in most of the principal cities of Europe and Japan as well as the United States.

Two More Fiedler Concerts Coming Up

SAN FRANCISCO — Maestro Arthur Fiedler and the San Francisco Symphony "Pops" Orchestra will perform their third and fourth concerts Saturday and next Tuesday at Civic Auditorium.

Soloist Saturday will be San Francisco pianist Marilyn Thompson. Violinist David Abel of Big Sur will appear Tuesday.

Satire On Americana Set For Marin College Stage

How's Your Bird?"—a musical revue satirizing contemporary American institutions, manners and morals—will open a four-week run at 8:30 p.m. July 28 in College of Marin's Harlan Hall Theater.

The bird is the American eagle and the revue is a collection of comedy sketches, songs, dances and slide projections written and performed by the Young Actor's Company of Marin.

The revue, to be presented Thursday, Friday and Saturday evenings through Aug. 30, is jointly sponsored by the San Anselmo Festival Theater and the College of Marin Department of Drama.

Some targets of the 38-member company are the Great Society, folk-rock music, religious quackery, LBJ, the Parent-Teachers Assn. and simplified versions of the classics for children.

The show is directed by H. J. Susser, drama chairman at Novato High School, and Edward K. Schoon of the college's drama department.

Tickets may be bought at the door or in advance by calling the fine arts department of the college.

Trip In Stolen Car By Three Boys Cut Short

A trip by three boys from St. Vincent's School for Boys in Marinwood was cut short Monday by California Highway Patrol when the boys were seen in a stolen automobile only a short distance from the school.

The runaways, two aged 16 and the other 17, were booked in Juvenile Hall for car theft.

Sheriff's officers received a telephone call about 11 p.m. that the three were seen leaving the school in a 1966 model Lincoln. Before deputies arrived, however, the highway patrol had halted the vehicle on St. Vincent's Drive.

The car was registered to Bullis Car Leasing Corp., San Francisco.

Kentfield Soprano Takes New Role

Soprano Corinne Swall of Kentfield is singing the role of Madame Dubonnet this week in the musical "The Boy Friend" at Melodyland in Oakland. It will continue through Sunday, starting at 8:30 p.m.

Last week she was featured in the role of Donna Lucia D'Alvadorez in "Where's Charlie," also at Melodyland.

Window Hit By Rock

CHESTER G. CARLISLE
Heads retirement facility

High-Rise Board Names Carlisle

Chester G. Carlisle, Tamalpais Union High School District superintendent, has been elected president of the board of directors of The Tamalpais, high-rise retirement center being built in Larkspur.

Carlisle replaced Dr. John C. Siemens, now executive director of the center.

Slated for completion next year, the $10 million, 280-unit non-profit complex is going up on a six-acre site. The 12-story T-shaped project will include residential, recreational, medical and convalescing facilities for persons 62 and older.

Other board members are Richard M. David, Byron W. Leydecker, Mrs. Elizabeth Rudel Gatov, Rev. Darby Wood Betts, Prof. Donald C. Brodie and Dr. Thurlow C. Jaegeling.

Police Pay Proposal 'A Little Late'

An appeal by Marin County Peace Officers Assn. that all cities and the county adopt a uniform salary scale for policemen and deputy sheriffs "came a little late this year," president of the association said today.

James R. Orr, Fairfax police chief, said the association had sent letters to all mayors and supervisors on July 7, "but most budgets had already been submitted or adopted by then. We hope, however, that they will consider it at budget sessions next year."

In the letters, Chief Orr said that after next year new officers will be recruited by all departments from a police academy to be established at College of Marin. "In order to accomplish this and have an equity list in the recruitment of men," he said, "there must be a uniform salary established."

Officers tend to move from department to department seeking higher salary scales, Orr said.

Grass Fires Hit In Marin City

Three grass fires started within 10 minutes of each other last night in Marin City.

Marin County Fire Chief Louis J. Bloom said the grass fires caused no damage and were probably started by children playing with matches. The fires were at 10:17 p.m. at Drake Avenue and Cole Drive and two at 10:25 p.m. near the Marin City Recreation Center.

"This has been happening almost every evening around the same time," Bloom said," but he said he believes children are responsible.

Hub Merchants Frown On Drake Boulevard Project

Empty Stores Mentioned, But Status Quo Favored

Half a hundred San Anselmo merchants made it plain last night they want no widening of Sir Francis Drake Boulevard if it will interfere with the present traffic pattern on downtown San Anselmo Avenue.

About 60 attended a meeting at Wade Thomas School on the proposal to widen Drake Boulevard from Tunstead Avenue to the Ross line and convert San Anselmo Avenue to a two-section one-way street, northbound from Ross Avenue to the Hub, southbound from Ross Avenue to Bolinas Avenue. When Mayor John M. Reichmuth asked how many businesses were represented, about 50 hands went up.

Earlier the mayor asked how many favored the one-way plan, proposed by engineer B. J. Whitlow and James Kell of Traffic Research Inc. No hand went up.

He asked how many favored an alternate plan presented by Whitlow and Kell which would keep two-way traffic on San Anselmo Avenue but eliminate many parking spaces, require additional traffic lights, and close Ross Avenue between Drake and San Anselmo Avenue. No hand went up.

He asked how many favored leaving things just as they are. About half the crowd raised their hands.

Whitlow had told the meeting, sponsored by the city and the chamber of commerce, that widening Drake without changing San Anselmo Avenue's traffic pattern could "create utter chaos." Kell said San Anselmo Avenue "as it exists today cannot operate" with Drake widened.

They showed, on large maps of the proposed widening, why this is so.

Ludwig Schwalbe of Ludwig's Smoke Shop, one of the most vehement objectors to the plan prepared for the city by Whitlow and Kell, said there are 27 empty stores on San Anselmo Avenue. He was one of those who raised their hands to keep the avenue as it is.

Postmaster Manuel Dos Reis brought applause and agreement from the audience when he declared there is little or no traffic congestion now on the avenue, so "why disturb smooth-flowing traffic?"

August Kientz of Kientz Bakery drew applause when he urged a return to the downtown master plan, which shows San Anselmo Avenue as a pedestrian mall, with a new parallel street cut through to the west and additional off-street parking. This plan died after a committee headed by department store owner Mozart Kaufman failed to round up enough property owners to form an assessment district to finance it.

Kaufman struck a responsive note, however, when he urged that widening Drake Boulevard be not abandoned, but merely postponed. He said state gas tax money for the project should be diverted to make improvements at the Hub intersection first.

As the two-hour meeting neared its end, City Administrator Douglas J. Flautt arose to point out that the Drake widening is part of a long-range project to improve the boulevard as Marin's major east-west thoroughfare. He said it has No. 1 priority for county urban thoroughfare funds, and a half-million dollars may be available from that source next year to complete the widening from Kentfield through Fairfax.

The die for delay had been cast, however. Mayor Reichmuth commented that it appeared from the meeting that no one in the business community wants the Drake widening project.

William A. Trewhella, chamber of commerce president, thanking the merchants for the good turnout, declared:

"If you will make it your business, either through the chamber of commerce or directly at city hall every other Tuesday night, anything you want in this town, you can have — and I mean anything."

EAST-WEST ROUTE 20 YEARS AWAY

Extension of Highway 17 to the West Marin coast is still nearly 20 years away, according to James Kell of Traffic Research Inc.

Kell told a San Anselmo merchants' meeting last night he had checked with the State Division of Highways and been told the "earliest probable start of construction" on the Highway 17 project is 1985.

Board Approves, Denies Richardson Fill

Another move toward a federal urban renewal project for Richardson Bay was made yesterday by Marin County supervisors, who then took action on specific applications for filling of tidelands.

Alexis Tellis' application to fill 1.9 acres on the bay side of the Commodore helicopter site was approved 4-1, with Supervisor Thomas T. Storer dissenting.

Extension of a permit to Thomas E. Nowell to continue filling a site 300 feet to the south of the heliport was approved 4-1, with Storer again dissenting. The board ruled clean fill only can be used.

Both the Nowell and Tellis applications were within the bulkhead line laid down in the Richardson Bay Master Plan. The Kappas application was originally on both sides of the line, but he wrote the board saying he would not fill on the bay side.

Storer, who argued against approving fill permits without an overall plan for shoreline development, asked fellow supervisors how they could deny the Kappas permit after approving that for Tellis. Supervisors said that Tellis had presented a good plan.

Tellis, of Commodore Properties, showed the board a rendering by architect Armen Richard Tatarian of Mill Valley for a 60-unit, two-story motel, a restaurant and swimming pool. He said his firm has an agreement with Hyatt House for a lease.

The plan was criticized by county Planning Director Paul C. Zucker, who said he thought that "we can do better" for Richardson Bay.

The move toward a redevelopment project was only a slight one, made at Zucker's suggestion. He asked supervisors to authorize a letter to the federal redevelopment agency to see if Richardson Bay would qualify. Zucker said redevelopment would take a minimum of two and one-half years to get started.

Zucker also persuaded the board to establish a policy on fill permits calling for developers to dredge outboard of the bulkhead line to get the fill if they own enough land. He said this would discourage further filling.

The requirement will apply to the Tellis permit but not to that for Nowell since it was technically an extension. Tellis' plans still must be approved by the Bay Conservation and Development Commission.

Water Board Announces Open House

The North Marin County Water District will hold open house at its new office at 999 Atherton Avenue from 10 a.m. to noon on July 30, the board decided last night.

The 8,400-square foot building, complete with landscaping, cost the district $220,000. In addition to the administration offices, the two-year-old corporation yard, adjacent to the office, will be open for inspection.

The district will serve its own water and coffee made from that water during the open house.

The North Marin County Water District board also:

1. Awarded Smith-Scott Co. of San Francisco, lower of two bidders, contract for 2,035 feet of pipe at $8,813.

2. Awarded contract for automatic control and electrical equipment for the Sunset pump station to Automatic Control oC. of San Francisco at $9,350. This was the only bid received.

3. Authorized addition of $1,500 plus labor costs to the 1967 fiscal budget to install eight pressure recorders at the district's pump stations.

4. Received a request from Benjamin P. Bonelli of the Soula Joule Corp. for a water supply and sewage system for his 1,500 acre Arroyo Sausal ranch, which is adjacent to the area recently annexed to the district east of Tomales Bay.

Hub Schools Tax Rate Hike Sought

Supt. Stephen Parodi of the San Anselmo School District proposed an 18-cent increase in the overall tax rate at a meeting of the board last night.

The suggestion was made as he presented a revised budget of $1,421,077—which was $7,000 more than the tentative budget announced last April.

This means the overall tax rate would increase from $2.95 per $100 assessed valuation to $3.13. If the budget is approved at a public hearing scheduled for 7:30 p.m. in the Isabel Cook School Aug. 2.

Of the 18 cents increase, Parodi said, 10 cents was proposed as an override seventh and eighth grade programs. Another five cents would be earmarked for better staff health and welfare plans, and the remainder for expected changes in state loan repayments.

Also at the public hearing, Parodi said consideration will be given the formation of a committee of citizens to advise the board on the best way to raise the money required to finish the district's building program.

The board was asked by three parents if arrangements could be made to transport by bus children living in the Hawthorne Terrace and Morningside Court areas who attend Hidden Valley School. Parents complained there were no paved sidewalks along Butterfield Road for their children, who had previously attended Brookside.

The problem will be discussed at a meeting between the board and parents from the Brookside and Sleepy Hollow areas Aug. 16 at 7:30 p.m. in Brookside School.

The board accepted resignation of Robert Romstead, physical education and social studies teacher. His place will be taken by Ronald W. Simmons.

Other teachers hired for next school year were Elizabeth Jordan, third grade, Yolansdale School; Elizabeth Marchner, fifth grade, Sleepy Hollow; and Catherine Reisenberg, girls physical education and mathematics at Hidden Valley.

Tam Valley Sewer Tax Cut Expected

Tax rate for fiscal 1967 is expected to drop six cents and the sewer service charge to drop $3 in the Tamalpais Valley Sanitary District, Director Gale E. Bishel said today.

Bishel said the tax rate, now 21 cents per $100 assessed valuation, is expected to drop to 15 cents. The sewer service charge, now $26, is to be $23.

He also said that the tax rate has been reduced by 75 per cent and the sewer service charge by one-third, in six years.

The fiscal 1967 budget is expected to be about $37,000, Bishel reported. Board members will hold a hearing and plan to adopt the budget Aug. 9.

Three candidates up for reelection to the board in the Sept. 6 election picked up nomination papers at the board meeting last night. They are Francis M. Small Jr., Arthur L. Crebassa, and Ralph P. Kellogg, all incumbents.

Kettenhofen Fill Plan Gains Plaudits, But Loses Vote, 4-1

Marin County supervisors yesterday commended Supervisor Ernest N. Kettenhofen for his imagination, then voted 4-1 to table his plan to condemn 250 acres of tideland for creek dredging fill, a dump and a golf course.

"This plan has something for everybody," Board Chairman Byron W. Leydecker said with a laugh.

Kettenhofen proposed that county retirement funds be used to purchase the property from Domenick Muzzi. He estimated cost at $3,000 an acre.

Atty. Albert Bianchi, representing six unnamed persons, told the board that a higher offer as has already been made to Muzzi by his clients, who are interested in operating a sanitary land fill dump on the diked land.

The property is just south of a 100-acre parcel where the Town of Corte Madera once wanted to build a golf course after filling with a dump operation.

Kettenhofen suggested that if the County Retirement Board should buy the Muzzi parcel, Corte Madera could be offered half of it for a golf course. He argued in favor of the plan at some length, pointing out that the county would not have to pay the 5 cents a year royalty for fill from the dredging of Corte Madera Creek in the flood control work if the land were in public ownership.

Supervisor Peter H. Behr moved to table the proposal and the motion passed with Kettenhofen the only dissenter. A special meeting of the retirement board set for tomorrow to consider the plan has been canceled.

The plan was not on yesterday's agenda, but it came up with a hearing on the budget for the Corte Madera Creek Flood Control Zone was scheduled.

Leydecker said that this hearing could not legally be held because only one legal notice was published when two are required. Supervisors set the hearing for 3 p.m. Aug. 16.

Larkspur Mayor Vaughan Marker, attending yesterday's session to discuss the district's budget, was upset. He said that Kettenhofen's land plan was news to him and constituted "some of the most astounding words" he had ever heard.

He pleaded for supervisors to keep cities informed on plans that concern cities. He also said he could not understand how the publishing requirements for the hearing were not met since he had known of yesterday's hearing since June 1.

In another action yesterday supervisors reiterated opposition to the filling of the 100 acres north of the Muzzi land. This is where Frank M. Burke of San Anselmo has proposed a golf course, yacht harbor, shopping center and industrial development. His application to fill the undiked land will go before the Bay Conservation and Development Commission Friday. Most of the land is in Corte Madera and the town council has urged approval of the fill permit.

Supervisors agreed to oppose filling this property during a hearing on the Corte Madera Creek flood control project, when ark dwellers adjacent to the land protested loud and strong against filling.

Conservation Unit Names Treasurer

Rear Adm. H. E. Bramston-Cook of Belvedere has been named treasurer of the Marin Conservation League, replacing Michael Mitchell, who resigned from the job.

Action was taken at a director's meeting Monday. Directors also named Mrs. T. J. Donnelly as county government chairman, Mrs. Paul Holmer as budget chairman, and Mrs. Arthur Knutson as newsletter chairman.

County Planning Director Paul Zucker and planner Walter Horchler gave the group a briefing on possible recreation aspects of the Corte Madera Creek Flood Control Project.

Camera, Jewelry, Pistol Are Stolen

Cameras, a .22 caliber pistol and jewelry worth $1,242 were stolen from his home over the weekend, John K. Taylor, 110 Peacock Drive, San Rafael, told police yesterday.

Thieves Get Camper Cab, Motorboat

Burglars, apparently equipped with special jacks, stole a new $1,600 pickup truck camper from the Camper City Sales lot, 696 Francisco Boulevard, California Park, sheriff's officers reported today.

Hugo Peterson, owner, told deputies the thieves would have needed the jacks to lift the 10-foot camper off its wooden blocks and onto a vehicle.

David W. Campbell, manager of Golden Hinde Boatel, Inverness, told officers a 17-foot motorboat owned by Paul Ammen of Orinda was stolen from the boatel. It was found soon after, driven ashore about three miles away at Shell Beach, with the bottom damaged.

Burglars entered the Oaktree bar-restaurant in Manzanita, ripped a pay telephone off a wall, and stole about $10 change from the phone's coin box. Officers said entry was by prying a rear window.

Five Drivers Draw Fines, Probation

Robert Lee Edney Jr., 22, of 7 Bothin Road, Fairfax, was given 15 days in county jail and placed on probation until Dec. 2, 1968, yesterday in Marin Municipal Court for drunken driving.

Edney, who has a lengthy list of driving violations, was arrested on Muir Beach Road by California Highway Patrol on May 21.

Pauline L. Palmer, 31, of 203 Auburn Street, San Rafael, was given a 25-day suspended jail term, placed on two years probation, and ordered to make $90 traffic accident restitution for drunken driving. She was arrested on D Street by San Rafael police on June 16.

Fines of $276 each and six months probation periods were given Gaylon Gunby, 27, of Carmichael, Sacramento County; William Anton Petre, 32, of 20 Marian Court, San Rafael, and Peggy Joe Shaw, 41, San Francisco, for drunken driving

Gunby was arrested July 10 on Highway 101 by California Highway Patrol. Peggy Shaw was arrested by the patrol on Shoreline Highway on May 26. Petre was arrested on Francisco Boulevard by San Rafael police July 12.

Convict Admits Four Car Thefts

A San Quentin prisoner has admitted two car thefts in Novato and two more car thefts and a burglary in Petaluma, Novato police reported today.

Donald Frank Phillips, 30, of Fort Bragg, was arrested as a parole violator in Mendocino County and returned to the prison, where Novato police questioned him yesterday.

They said he admitted stealing the cars of Ford Russell Joy of 805 Diablo Avenue and Delories Marie Campbell of 36 San Ramon Way, Novato, on June 8, abandoning them later. He also admitted the Petaluma crimes, police said.

Electric Saw Taken From Building Site

Fred J. Stoke of San Rafael, foreman of the project for Ronald Antonioli Inc. of San Rafael, reported the theft to police yesterday.

Golf Burglars Smash Window

Burglars smashed a large plate glass window of San Geronimo National Golf Course's clubhouse at 5500 Sir Francis Drake Boulevard to enter and steal about $1,500 worth of golf clothing and equipment, sheriff's officers reported today.

Thomas F. McHugh, club manager, told deputies the break-in was discovered by the grounds foreman, Ray Teeters of Forest Knolls, about 6:45 a.m. yesterday after he saw several new sweaters discarded by the intruders on the clubhouse lawn.

He said the merchandise, including six new golf clubs, was all taken from the golf pro shop.

HAWAIIAN CRUISE NO HOLIDAY

Sausalito Redwood Must Come Down

Councilmen put the verbal ax to an 18-year-old redwood tree on city property at 528 Sausalito Boulevard by a 2-1 vote.

William Roche of 528 Sausalito Boulevard made an impassioned plea to save the tree. He offered to top it and shape it so that it wouldn't interfere with anyone's view.

Mrs. Violetta Autumn of 521 Sausalito Boulevard, backed by a letter from the tree committee of the Sausalito Woman's Club, claimed the tree blocked her view.

Mrs. Autumn had a city permit to cut the tree, but agreed to hold off until the council ruled. She said she would replace the redwood with a "15-gallon tree."

Councilmen Jan Paul Dyk and Alexander R. Imlay upheld Mrs. Autumn's permit to cut the tree. Acting Mayor Earl F. Dunphy dissented. Mayor Mel O. Wax and Councilman Eleanor O'Hara Chapin were absent.

Imlay said a redwood tree continuously topped "would end up a grotesque looking thing."

Dyk commented, "The tree was destroyed as a redwood tree when it was topped."

Turning from trees to television, the council postponed action on an application by Sausalito Community TV System for a franchise to serve a larger portion of the city.

Councilmen said they wanted to be sure the firm's antenna tower on Currey Lane is capable of delivering up to the standards of the city's new community antenna television ordinance before granting the extended franchise.

Councilmen also agreed the firm's television tower on Currey Lane eventually should be moved.

The council also introduced an ordinance repealing the television antenna franchise granted Sausalito Communications Service, which has abandoned its plan to go into the business.

Warren Glass of Wolfback Ridge reported that no one on the ridge objected to any television service originating on Mount Beacon.

Peter F. Sloss, secretary of Sausalito Communications Service, previously had told the council by letter that Wolfback Ridge residents refused to grant cable easements or demanded "impossible conditions."

The Sausalito City Council also:

1. Set Aug. 2 for a public hearing on a protest by Alec Liu, president of National Recreation Sales of San Francisco, against a planning commission ruling that he must apply for a use permit to operate a billiard center at 1417-19 Bridgeway.

2. Received two letters regarding its stand against curbside mailboxes, one from Bess Abell, social secretary to Mrs. Lyndon B. Johnson, in appreciation of the council's concern for community attractiveness, and one from the post office department explaining that curbside mailboxes are cheaper to service.

3. Received a letter from Mrs. Evelyn Oremland requesting better emergency communication to the fire department, which has only one emergency telephone line, and told Masten to submit a recommendation for improvements.

4. Accepted a deed conveying excess state-owned property at Fire Station No. 2 to the city.

5. Welcomed Edward S. Kreins, the city's new police chief, and approved pay for police officers working extra shifts during vacation periods instead of compensatory time off, because of shortage of officers.

6. Rejected a claim by Potlatch Forests Inc. of Lewiston, Ida., for $119 in damages to a car when it collided with a Sausalito police car June 22.

7. Rejected a claim by Robert Teich of 62 Lower Crescent, Sausalito, for $99 in damages to his car which was struck by a city fire engine either the night of July 9 or the morning of July 10 while parked in front of his house.

Maugham Bank Account Tax

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—The Crocker-Citizens National Bank of San Francisco has asked State Controller Alan Cranston to appoint an appraiser to determine the inheritance taxes due on more than $35,000 deposited there by the late author W. Somerset Maugham.

In a petition in San Francisco Superior Court yesterday, the bank asked for a state tax appraisal on the $9,389 Maugham had in a commercial account and $26,094 in a trust account established in 1949.

Redistrict Possibilities On Agenda

The County Committee on School District Organization will meet tonight to consider the possibility or another election to consider unification of the San Rafael and Dixie elementary school districts, a proposal which was narrowly defeated June 7.

At its 8 p.m. meeting in the county schools office at 201 Tamal Vista Boulevard, Corte Madera, the committee will also adopt its final recommendation to the state on proposed unification of the seven elementary districts in Marin and Sonoma counties which fall within the Tomales High School District.

The committee has already voted its tentative approval, fully expecting the state Board of Education to reject it.

Masten Asks Barge For Next Fireworks

Sausalito will have its Fourth of July fireworks display from a barge on Richardson Bay if a recommendation by Acting City Mgr. Charles E. Masten is carried out.

Masten, the city's fire chief, reported to the Sausalito City Council last night that this year's display caused a serious traffic problem, and that there is a danger.

Fireworks are attractive but dangerous, not only from starting fires but in the dangers to the spectators, he said. The area where the display was held is satisfactory, Masten claimed. "We have too many people crowding in and the control is disorganized and minimal."

Having the fireworks from a barge would allow for safety of spectators, less chance of fire, and more visibility, he said.

Councilman Jan Paul Dyk said some of the people aiding the pyrotechnician were without flashlights and used flares to locate the next rocket to be sent up.

The council received a letter from the Sausalito Artists and Merchants, sponsors of the fireworks, thinking the city for its cooperation in the event.

Masten was asked to meet with representatives of the society and the Sausalito Chamber of Commerce to devise a more satisfactory plan for the celebration next year.

Another Drydock Arrives To Concern Sausalitans

Just as the Sausalito City Council convened last night, a huge drydock was towed through Richardson Bay waters, just a few hundred yards from city hall—the second of its type to arrive since Friday.

At the end of their session, councilmen decided to investigate just what this drydock armada is all about.

Councilmen want to know if the drydocks will be within the city limits, and what is going to be done with them.

The council authorized Acting City Mgr. Charles A. Masten and Norman Wohlschlaeger, supervisor of public works, to investigate.

When the first drydock, now resting in the shallows of the bay, arrived Friday, Delmar Wise, head of Diesel Engineering and Maintenance Co. in Sausalito, said the drydocks were being brought to the firm's yard for repairs and modifications.

Wise purchased the barges, formerly owned by the Moore Drydock Co. in Oakland, and resold them, but would not reveal the name of the new owner Friday.

"We need to find out what they're going to do," Wohlschlaeger said.

Novato Boy Booked On Burglary Charge

A 15-year-old Novato boy was booked on a charge of burglary into Marin County Juvenile Hall Saturday, according to Novato police.

The boy was seen taking two cases of Bourbon Whiskey from the Roger-Wilco Market on Wilson Avenue by Donald Francis Zinky of Petaluma, an employee of the store, police reported. The youth tried to run and then fought with Zinkl when asked to return inside the store.

In 1965, drug stores in West Germany accounted for 20 per cent of sales of photo products, second to full-time photograhic retailers who accounted for 60 per cent.

Sausalito Delays Action On Bongos

The beat-beat-beat of the bongos at Vina del Mar Plaza, which is making some Sausalito natives restless, will continue for a while.

After receiving 19 letters protesting the continuous drum ming on weekends, the Sausalito City Council postponed action last night because only three council members were present.

Mayor Mel Wax and Councilman Eleanor O'Hara Chapin were absent. Acting Mayor Earl F. Dunphy felt the drumming issue should be brought to the attention of the full council on Sept. 6.

Mrs. Gisbert von Bolschwing of 12 Excelsior Lane wrote that the "constant bombardment of our eardrums so gratuitously is sheer torture."

She suggested the council consider "curtailing the length of time on particular musical group can monopolize the plaza." The drumming is incessant each weekend during the summer, between noon and 7 to 7:30 p.m. she said. "The drumming continues without even five-minute breaks for a period of seven hours."

Theodore C. Zink, former acting police chief, reported the city does not have legal grounds to eliminate or curtail the park musicians.

If the council had passed an ordinance prohibiting the playing of musical instruments in city parks, the present situation would not exist, he said.

$500 Fire Caused By Aluminum Pot

An aluminum pot, used as a barbecue Sunday caused a fire today which burned a hole through a deck and part of the wall of a Sausalito house today. Firemen estimated damage at $500.

The fire, reported at 8:18 a.m., damaged the home of James L. Stanley at 118 Sausalito Boulevard. Firemen said that Stanley had apparently had a barbecue in the pot yesterday but had not extinguished the coals. The house is owned by Mrs. Grace Carter of San Francisco.

State Chamber Picks Six Road Projects For Marin

The California State Chamber of Commerce today urged the State Highway Commission to allocate funds for six highway projects in Marin County.

The projects were among 82 in north coast counties recommended by the chamber for inclusion in the 1967-68 highway budget at a cost of $171 million.

The recommendations were made in Sacramento at a meeting of chamber representatives and commissioners.

In Marin, the chamber called for widening to six lanes all portions of the existing four-lane Highway 101 freeway between San Quentin Wye and Terra Linda interchange. This request included improved interchanges at San Pedro Road and at Irwin Street in the northern and southern parts of San Rafael.

On Highway 101, between its junction with Route 37 at Ignacio and Atherton Avenue north of Novato, the chamber urged freeway widening and construction of necessary interchanges at Atherton Avenue.

Improvement of Tiburon Boulevard between Reed Ranch Road and the boulevard's southern terminus was recommended.

Surveys, designs and commencement of right-of-way acquisition were requested to extend Route 17 as a freeway from the Richmond-San Rafael Bridge to join Route 1 near Point Reyes Station.

The chamber recommended the start of long-term planning for route location of a highway from Route 17 in the vicinity of Nicasio to Route 101 near Novato.

Statewide, California should spend more than $3 billion on roads in the next fiscal year, almost half of it in Southern California, the state chamber proposed today.

John O. Bronson, chairman of the chamber's highway committee, noted that the amount requested "far exceeds the monies you . . . will have available to apply to highway construction in the upcoming fiscal year."

Night-Time Sun Study Ordered

SEATTLE (AP)—The Boeing Co. has received a government contract to look into ways of making the sun shine at night.

The $125,000 award is for a study of the feasibility of orbiting a huge satellite to reflect light from the sun on to the dark side of the earth.

The award was made yesterday by the National Aeronautics and Space Administration, which made a similar award to the Westinghouse Corp.

No Central Agency To Remove Dead Animals

Periodically, we get a rash of complaints from citizens who are furious because they ran into "too much red tape" in trying to have dead animals removed from city or county streets and roadsides.

Several public agencies immediately pop into mind when a citizen comes across a carcass on the street—the County Humane Society, health department, police, fire department, public works or street department.

Unfortunately, however, each of these agencies has its special functions to perform, and picking up dead animals is usually not one of the functions. There is no countywide central agency which is in charge of picking up carcasses.

Here are some helpful hints on whom to call, or not to call, if you find a dead animal in your vicinity:

First of all, if the carcass is on private property, the responsibility usually lies with the owner of the property, not a public agency.

If the dead animal is on a public street, then call the County Public Works Department (in unincorporated areas) or the city public works department or street department. They are in charge of removing the carcass. The speed with which action is taken depends on the manpower and facilities available in each jurisdiction (city or county) at that time.

After hours or on weekends when city and county offices are closed, county residents should call Marin County Communicatoins Department, which will get in touch with the public works crews. In incorporated cities, the police department is the best bet when city offices are not open. Police will contact the street crews.

Don't feel slighted if the County Health Department and the Humane Society tell you flatly they don't deal with dead animals on the streets.

They enter the picture only if animals are suspected of rabies or are involved in biting cases.

In rabid animal cases, the County Health Department is on call 24 hours hours a day. It has procedures by which the police (or sheriff) will be sent out to dispatch the suspected animal, the carcass is removed, and specimens are sent for laboratory analysis.

In the majority of cases, then, the agency to call is the public works department or street department of YOUR jurisdiction. Removal of carcasses from state highways would be the responsibility of the California Division of Highways.

Animals on private property are private responsibility. However, the Humane Society has facilities for cremation if you take the carcass to the Society pound.

Disposal of dead animals would be less confusing if a central county agency were available for that purpose. Lacking such central facility, we must depend on the public works and street department of each jurisdiction, and on the County Health Department and Humane Society for special cases like rabies and bites.

Peace Through Understanding

Everybody talks of peace these days. But a Kentfield woman is doing something practical and constructive to promote international understanding. An artist and nationally known greeting card manufacturer, Mrs. Rose Stone seeks out outstanding artists in distant lands and commissions them to execute pictures on a peace theme which she makes into Christmas cards. The profits from the sale of these cards are used to bring promising artists to the U.S. for study and cultural exchange.

This is but one of several peace projects hatched in the mind of this imaginative and talented artist.

General Fund Condition Adds To Distorted Financial Picture

By HENRY C. MacARTHUR

SACRAMENTO — To the simple-minded citizen, and who isn't when it comes to dealing with billions of dollars, the state's financial picture becomes more distorted all the time.

The latest gem consists of the estimated general fund conditions for the 1966-67 fiscal year made by A. Alan Post, the state's legislative analyst.

In effect, the analysis says that despite the fact the general fund will spend $254.5 million more this fiscal year than it will receive in revenue, it will wind up with a surplus!

THIS PECULIAR situation, which defies all normal concepts of ordinary figuring, results from the adoption of Gov. Edmund G. Brown's funny financing known as the accrual system.

This system is based on the theory that you have money you actually haven't got in the bank or treasury. You just assume it's going to be there sometime because somebody happens to owe it to you.

While the accrual system may constitute a sound business practice in some instances, particularly where an organization has enough reserves to meet its obligations, it serves more to mislead the public in connection with state operations than it does to provide any sound confidence that adoption of the system will result in any lasting benefit to the tax payer.

How the general fund picture works out, says Post, is this:

SURPLUS ON JUNE 30, 1966, $41.8; fiscal year cash income, $2,646.6; fiscal year net accrual income, $359.5; total available, $3,047.9. (amounts are in millions.)

Estimated cost of appropriation measures enacted in budget bill, $1 million.

Ending surplus June 30, 1967, $146.8. However, part of the surplus may be restricted, he says, contingent on the availability of short-term borrowing by the general fund, a procedure which will be necessary to provide the cash to pay the state's bills. The necessity for borrowing results from the lack of sufficient reserves to put the accrual system in effect without the anticipated borrowings.

Thus, what the accrual system accomplishes is actually nothing but an additional cost in interest to the taxpayers of the state. The treasury will get no more money because of the accrual system, and although an attempt has been made to rose-glass the people through a short term delay in assessing additional taxes, the necessity for more funds, if government continues its high spending rate, will become apparent next year.

The fact remains that even though efforts to camouflage the real financial picture are somewhat successful, there will be a cash deficit of $254.5 million in the general fund at the close of the current fiscal year.

And in some manner, this will have to be made up by the taxpayers of the state.

Trout Derby Called A Smashing Success

Editor, Independent-Journal:

I would like to thank one and all who helped make the Mill Valley Optimist Club's Second Annual Trout Derby a smashing success!

We had 508 signed entry blanks and we guessed there were over 1,000 kids who went fishing, and when that many kids show up for something like this, you know you really have something.

As you know, our slogan is, "Friend Of The Boy" and it really encompasses "Friend Of the Youth." The Mill Valley Optimist Club is striving to be just that. We think this Trout Derby is a step in the right direction and we want to thank you for helping us get the job done . . ."

Handwriting, Reagan Politics Connection

Editor, Independent-Journal:

Your Roscoe Drummond article of July 16 on Ronald Reagan's intentions in California caused this thought to hit me as I read it.

Ever since Khrushchev busted his capitalistic shoe on a U.N. table over TV, this country has been going left—disregarding basic standards of social decency and morality. Such disregard is being upheld by our judicial system and giving little support to the efforts of physical enforcement agencies.

The social scale of morality is no longer balanced and slanting to the left to support special self-interests of a few. Graphoanalysis of the "backhand slant to the left" in writing reveals self-interest is primary and not even judicial with self or others.

This is evidence that we should move to the right with Reagan to a forward slant of calm, cool judgement that brings sympathetic support to problems of the people through expression and action.

The generosity stroke to others without wanting a selfish revert back, exists in purity of thought in the forward slant to the right with Ronald Reagan. If your i-dot is round you will be loyal to your belief that what is right—is right with Reagan.

X-ray, Lab Could Ease Hospital Costs

Editor, Independent-Journal:

The nurses at Marin General Hospital received a pay raise. In my opinion this is good. They do most of the work and receive comparatively low compensation.

Marin General, owned by the taxpayers in the Hospital District, were informed of course that the room rate increase rested on the shoulders of the nurses.

If the hospital ran the X-ray and laboratory on a fee basis as major hospitals in San Francisco do, the pay raise could have been taken care of without raising rates.

In other words, Marin General lets two of the most profitable departments in hospital operation be operated by private physicians, who in turn pay the hospital a percentage. This should be reversed. The hospital should operate the above mentioned departments and pay a fee to medics who perform services.

After all, the over-burdened taxpayers should have their hospital operated in the most efficient financial manner possible.

U.S. Honor Loss In War In Viet Nam

Editor, Independent-Journal:

Our entry into the Vietnamese civil war has never been justified, and even should we win, we are without honor. As we observe the miring of the war into a ridiculous situation where we kill as many innocent people as military participants, and the deadly escalation of the war with the risk of facing China's hordes, one wonders at the complacency of the American people.

Our leaders assume that we are supporting their policies. Now is the time to write the President, our senators and congressmen to let them know we want an end to our involvement in this war, by complete withdrawal if necessary.

Sometimes it takes courage to be an American, especially when it comes to admitting your country could be wrong.

TRY AND STOP ME

BENNETT CERF

SMOKERS, CHEER up! Pointed out William Makepeace Thackeray, "The pipe draws wisdom from the lips of the philosopher and shuts up the mouth of the foolish." Added Arnold Bennett, "It is better to be without a wife for a week than without tobacco for an hour." And admitted Lin Yutang, "I am always ill at ease when I enter a house in which there are no ash trays. Immediately I am put on my best behavior, which means the same thing as the most uncomfortable behavior."

GRANDMA HAD already extended her unannounced visit for three weeks, and her daughter-in-law and son were slowly going crazy. Finally they concocted a scheme: they would fake a fight and the one with whom she sided would later tell her the other was so insulted that she'd simply have to leave.

So that night the wife deliberately spilled a plate of hot soup down her husband's neck. "You're the clumsiest, ugliest, stupidest clunk I've ever seen," roared the husband. "And you," shot back the wife, "are the laziest, demandingest, meanest rat in the world. What do you say, Grandma?"

"I'm not saying a word," replied Grandma cheerfully. "I'm staying two more months."

SHORTLY AFTER a new oil field was opened in Crockett County, Texas, a grizzled native, reports Allan Bosworth, received a royalty check for $750,000 and exclaimed angrily, "Oh, no! This puts me in another income-tax bracket!"

Army Presents Racially Just Environment To More Negroes

WASHINGTON—The extraordinarily large role which Negroes are playing in the armed forces—sharply criticized by some civil rights leaders—is being sought and welcomed by Negro servicemen themselves.

This may seem surprising to many. But there is ample proof and good reason why it is so.

The proof is the fact that the percentage of Negroes who voluntarily stay in after completing their first tour of duty is more than twice as high as the percentage of whites who do the same.

THERE COULD be no more conclusive evidence that Negroes find the U. S. armed forces just about the most productive, rewarding, and racially congenial experience they can have than the high rate of Negro re-enlistment. Here are the figures:

RE-ENLISTMENT RATES

SERVICE	WHITE	NEGRO
Army	18.5	49.3
Navy	21.6	41.3
Marine Corps	12.9	25.1
Air Force	27.4	50.3

But why is the Negro re-enlistment in the armed services both at home and abroad and even at the battlefront so remarkably high? The main reason is understood by every Negro in service and it is that the armed forces, whether within the U. S. or anywhere in the world, represent the most completely integrated, successfully integrated segment of American society.

To thousands of young Negroes the armed services represent opportunity, an environment of racial justice and a career in which they can move ahead just as rapidly as their talent permits.

THIS VIEW came out sharp at the White House Conference on Civil Rights at which a Negro delegate explained he resigned from the Mississippi Freedom Democratic Party because some of its leaders were urging Negroes to avoid military service by any device possible. His attitude, like that of many other Negroes, was that pleading with young Negroes not to take advantage of the unequalled opportunities of military service is like inducing a high school student to become a drop-out.

Two complaints by some Negro leaders about the large role Negroes play in Viet Nam are based on fact. One criticism is that the percentage of Negroes in the services in Viet Nam is higher than the ratio of Negroes to the total population. An important reason is that the percentage of poor Negro families is higher than that of poor white families and this means that there are more Negroes who do not get student deferments.

The other criticism is that there is a disproportionate number of Negro fatalities. The explanations are the higher re-enlistment rate, higher volunteering for such elite units as the paratroops, and lower education which puts more Negroes into the combat forces.

In South Viet Nam today Negro officers lead integrated troops. One Southern white lieutenant said he had changed his opinions "completely" about Negro soldiers. "They show as much initiative and fight as hard as anyone else."

A white Southern mother whose injured son was carried safely from the battlefield in Viet Nam by a Negro sergeant wrote to the Durham Morning Herald: "At last, the Lord has seen fit to clean the hate from my heart, and I thank Him for it."

INSIDE WASHINGTON

Planned Gang Use May Spark Violence

By ROBERT S. ALLEN and PAUL SCOTT

Dr. Martin Luther King may be preaching the doctrine of non-violence for his coming "civil rights" disobedience campaign in the big cities, but he and his aides appear to be organizing for violence.

Federal authorities keeping a close watch on his Southern Christian Leadership Conference report that lieutenants of King are contacting Chicago street gangs and bringing them into his civil rights movement to fight "the power structure."

King, whose organization is studying the Buddhist use of street gangs in Saigon demonstrations, has put the Rev. A. R. Sampson in charge of enlisting gang leaders in SCLC's new militant youth movement.

ACCORDING TO an investigative report being circulated inside the Justice Department, King plans to organize the teen-age gangs into protest and marching groups in all major U. S. cities if his Chicago experiment is a success.

The report reveals that King personally has attended several meetings with gang leaders, including one early in June at a downtown Chicago hotel, where 50 groups held their "first annual gangs convention."

A government informant who sat in on one meeting said that King and his aides harangued the gang leaders about the "unjust society" and urged them to join their civil rights group fight against its evils — "slums, poverty and police brutality."

In the sing-song rhythm that has become his trademark, Dr. King chanted, "If we are to deal with our problems, we have to get power. And power in Chicago, as in other large cities, is being so well organized that we can get the most powerful political organization in the country to say 'yes' when it wants to say 'no'."

SAMPSON WAS more specific in his appeal to the gang leaders. He promised to establish a Committee on Police Service (COPS), consisting of "local gangs," to pressure the present city and state government to make changes and meet their demands.

Other SCLC speakers, according to the government report, told the gang members, "The real foes are Mayor Daley, policemen, slumlords, bankers, businessmen and school administrators."

Government informants reporting on other SCLC gang organization activities warned, "The gang members are being incited to violence instead of being taught nonviolence." They stressed that the gang leaders "have little or no understanding of civil rights" but do know how to use force.

King's new strategy of involving street gangs in his mounting civil rights activities is being watched by federal authorities because of his announced plans to resort to widespread civil disobedience.

They are concerned that, if King uses these gangs to disrupt the flow of the city's transportation system, as he has indicated, he could trigger a Watts-like eruption in the nation's second largest city.

There also are signs that Dr. King contemplates using his new militant youth drive to help "internationalize" the turbulent civil rights movement.

Preparations already are under way to use these "street gangs" in a potentially stormy move against South Africa, whose apartheid policy has been under violent attack by the civil rights groups in this country.

The gangs are to be used in giant demonstrations in New York and other U. S. cities after the World Court, at The Hague, rules on South Africa's old League of Nations mandate over Southwest Africa.

Chevrolet In Belvedere For Film; Tiburon Boulevard Speed Too High

The wondrous world of automobile advertising has its amusing aspects.

A film company producing commercials for the 1967 Chevrolet was using the Belvedere Community Hall park for a few days last week. The new models were kept under wraps and the public was forbidden to see them, except for the few moments the cars were being photographed.

Strange how in July the company won't let you see the brand new cars while during the fall introduction period it can't let you see enough of them through every conceivable means of advertising.

Could it be that your naked eye can't appreciate the fine lines unaccompanied by pulsating prose, bouncing blonde chorus girls, glaring color and tricky photography?

Or is it because a spy from Ford may be lurking in the audience with a hidden camera that the new cars are so carefully concealed?

Yet, almost all 1967 cars are in production already and it would cost Ford millions now to change its design should it, horrors, discover an unbeatable design from Chevrolet. Besides the companies generally know what the others are doing through industry spies, especially in the parts suppliers.

AND CHEVROLET in Belvedere? I thought Belvedere was the name of a Plymouth line.

I don't think the State Division of Highways helped matters too much by lowering the speed limit on Tiburon Boulevard to 35 miles per hour through Strawberry.

From my experience driving the road the last few weeks, the speed limit is ignored by most drivers. I've been honked over from the inside line many times by motorists who insist on driving faster than 35.

The basic problem is that the design speed of the four-lane divided highway is higher than 35 miles per hour. The state thought so until recently because it posted it at 45.

The State Division of Highways is being unrealistic to believe that the mere posting of signs will lower the actual speed on a highway to motorists who are unaware or may not care that many small children live in the area.

WITHOUT STRINGENT law enforcement by the California Highway Patrol, I don't think the new posted speed limits will do much good. The boulevard, by its very design, "invites" high speed.

The doublethink by the state bears noting, however. Under pressure from Strawberry parents last spring, it reduced the number of crosswalks and lengthened the traffic light timing sequences on Strawberry and Blackfield drives.

Although it still insisted that the highway was safe (only three accidents in 18 months) the division agreed to study the 45 speed limit. After the face-saving study, it now lowers the speed limit to 35.

The reason, according to a highway division spokesman, was that "the capacity is such that (the new speed limit) will reduce traffic accidents in the area." In spite of the implicit admission that the road was not safe, my now, isn't it really astounding how much traffic increased on that boulevard, especially after the parents started their campaign?

WHILE THE state was studying the matter, an insurance man phoned me to ask what I knew about accidents along Tiburon Boulevard in the Strawberry area. When I asked why, he said the main office had asked him to investigate because his company was getting too many claims from boulevard accidents.

But, the state has great faith in signs. If you drive west on Tiburon Boulevard where it becomes a four-lane road near Reed Ranch Road, you travel a moderately uphill road curving to the right with a 45 speed limit.

Coming downhill on the other side, you encounter on the right two speed limit signs on either side of Cecelia Way. The speed limit sign nearest you says 45 while the one across Cecelia Way is 35 sign.

Why does the state let you drive 45 for one short stretch along a highway that carries for the rest of it a 35 zone that stretch leads drivers into the two troublesome intersections?

If the Strawberry residents are having problems with Tiburon Boulevard, what does it portend for the rest of Tiburon when the highway is widened its whole length? Will the state there, too, deny that pedestrian overpasses are needed? What will the speed limit be? These are important questions for Tiburon residents to ask the state now.

Paris Not Horribly Expensive— You Can See It On $500 A Day

Despite the many rumors that it is an expensive city, I have discovered that you can still see Paris on $500 a day.

Of course, in order to do it, you have to give up certain little things such as breakfast, but any couple who is careful and sticks to their budget will not only see and do a lot, but will probably have as much fun as the tourist who spends $1,000 a day.

In order to make it on $500 a day, you must have the cooperation of your wife.

"WE'LL SEE a different Paris," I warned her, "the one the tourists usually don't get to see. But at least we'll have something to talk about when we get home."

"Oh, I hope we can do it," she said excitedly.

I must say we got off to a bad start because the first day we were in Paris my wife went to the hairdresser. This cost her $100, so we both decided to do without a fancy lunch. Instead, we went to a sidewalk cafe and had two ham sandwiches on French bread and two cups of coffee, which only came to $50 with the tip.

AFTER LUNCH we strolled around the Left Bank and my wife bought some lithographs as gifts for friends back home.

"If we bought these lithographs in the States," she said, "they would have cost $200. Here they only cost $150."

"And they're unsigned," I pointed out, "which makes them much more suitable for framing."

I was getting tired, so I decided to go back to the hotel for a nap. But my wife said she wanted to make one more stop at a little dressmaker she knew called Christian Something-or-Other.

She came back at six, breathless. "I saw a little black dress on sale. It was originally priced at $950, but they'll give it to me for $250."

"But that's our dinner money," I cried.

SHE BECAME annoyed. "All you can think about is food. I'd rather do without dinner and have the dress."

So we stayed in that night and managed to keep within our $500 a day budget.

The next day my wife went out early to buy a dufflebag. I was getting pretty hungry by this time, so I sneaked off and had a coffee and a croissant for $25. You can imagine my surprise when I saw my wife come into the same cafe and order eggs.

"I thought we were going to do without breakfast," I said.

"Look who's calling the kettle black," she said. "I notice you're having coffee and a croissant."

"Yes, but I didn't order eggs for $50 a plate."

"Oh, let's not fight," she begged. "After all, we came to Paris to have fun."

"It's $25 extra."

"What the hell," I replied, "you don't get to France every day."

And that's how it went for the week we were in Paris.

NOTICE OF TRUSTEE'S SALE
Escrow No. 84496

On Wednesday, the 27th day of July, 1966, at the hour of 11:00 o'clock a.m., in the lobby inside the Lincoln Avenue entrance to the Title Insurance and Trust Company, being the building located at the Northeast corner of Lincoln Avenue and Mission Street, in the City of San Rafael, County of Marin, State of California, TITLE INSURANCE AND TRUST COMPANY, a corporation, as trustee, will sell at public auction, to the highest bidder, for cash, in lawful money of the United States, all payable at the time of sale, the following described real property, situated in the City of San Rafael, County of Marin, State of California, and described as follows, to-wit:

DESCRIPTION:

THAT certain real property situate in the City of San Rafael, County of Marin, State of California, described as follows:

BEGINNING at the most Westerly corner of the lands described in Deed to Thomas W. Smart, et ux, recorded in Liber 732 Official Records at page 480; said point being on the Northeasterly line of Coleman Drive; running thence along the exterior line of said lands conveyed to Smart, North 86° 02' East to the most Westerly corner of the lands described in Deed to Joseph A. Ferlatte, et ux, recorded in Liber 782 of Official Records at page 281; running thence along the Southwesterly line of the lands described in Deed to Ferlatte, South 61° 01' 20" East 11.00 feet, more or less, to a point which bears North 35° 02' 30" East 118.00 feet and North 61° 01' 20" West 8.00 feet from the most Southerly corner of the lands described in Deed to L. Eugene Treasrau, et ux, recorded in Liber 1359 of Official Records at page 399; running thence South 62° 08' 45" West to a point on the Northeasterly line of Coleman Drive; running thence Northwesterly along the Northeasterly line of Coleman Drive 75.30 feet, more or less, to the point of beginning.

EXCEPTING AND RESERVING an easement for public utility purposes over a strip of land 5 feet in width; the Northeasterly boundary line thereof being the call "South 61° 01' 20" East 11.00 feet, more or less", set forth above.

Said sale will be made, without covenant or warranty regarding title, possession or encumbrances, to satisfy the obligations secured by and pursuant to the power of sale conferred in a certain deed of trust executed by JOHN P. TOMICH, an unmarried man, and JULIE CHRISTINE KARAMANOS, a single woman, as trustors, to MARIN TITLE GUARANTY COMPANY, a California corporation, as trustee, for the benefit and security of L. EUGENE TREASRAU AND SHERRILL L. TREASRAU, his wife, as Joint Tenants, dated February 21, 1964 and recorded May 6, 1964 in the office of the Recorder of the County of Marin, State of California, in Book 1810 of Official Records, page 627.

The beneficial interest under said Deed of Trust now stands of record in the name of William S. Voorheis and Anna C. Voorheis.

Title Insurance and Trust Company, a corporation, has been substituted as Trustee under the above Deed of Trust.

SAN RAFAEL CITY SCHOOLS
RESOLUTION NO. 144
RESOLUTION OF INTENTION TO DEDICATE STREET

WHEREAS, the City of San Rafael has required the dedication of a street on the Glenwood School property owned by the San Rafael City School District; and

WHEREAS, the location of said street is on Glenwood School more particularly described in Exhibit "A," which is attached hereto and incorporated herein, and which shall be kept on file for examination by the public in the office of the District Superintendent; and

WHEREAS, such dedication is necessary to develop the property at Glenwood School and shall be granted without charge to the City of San Rafael; and

WHEREAS, this Board feels that the dedication of the street is in the best interests of the San Rafael City School Board;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED as follows:

1. That it is the intention of the Board of Education of the San Rafael City School District to dedicate said street to the City of San Rafael.

2. That on the 1st day of August, 1966, at 7:30 o'clock P.M., public hearing upon the granting of said easement shall be had.

3. That the Clerk of this Board is hereby directed to cause notice of said hearing to be made by posting this Resolution in three public places in the District not less than ten (10) days before the date of the public hearing, and by publishing this Resolution once, not less than five (5) days before the date of the public hearing in a newspaper of general circulation published in the District.

PASSED AND ADOPTED at a regular meeting of the Board of Education of the San Rafael City School District, County of Marin, State of California, on the 12th day of July, 1966, by a two-thirds vote, to wit:

CITY OF SAN ANSELMO
ORDINANCE NO. 532

AN ORDINANCE ADOPTING THE 1964 EDITION OF THE UNIFORM PLUMBING CODE OF THE WEST COAST PLUMBING OFFICIALS ASSOCIATION, REGULATING THE CONSTRUCTION, REPAIR AND ALTERATION OF PLUMBING AND SEWERS IN THE CITY OF SAN ANSELMO: PROVIDING FOR PERMITS, FEES, PENALTIES AND AMENDING TITLE 9, CHAPTER 6, ARTICLES 2 AND 4 OF THE SAN ANSELMO MUNICIPAL CODE, AND REPEALING CERTAIN SECTIONS THEREOF.

THE CITY COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF SAN ANSELMO DO HEREBY ORDAIN AS FOLLOWS:

SECTION 1.

TITLE 9, CHAPTER 6, ARTICLES 2 and 4 of the San Anselmo Municipal Code are hereby amended as follows:

SECTION 9-6.203 (b) is amended as follows: "(b) Any work which qualifies for the exemption provided in Sections 7040 to 7053, Article 3, Chapter 9, Division 3 of the Business and Professions Code of the State of California, is also exempt from licensing under this code."

SECTION 9-6.203 (c) is hereby repealed.

SECTION 9-6.208 is hereby amended to read as follows: "(a) Before any permit required by this Chapter is issued, the applicant therefor shall pay to the Plumbing Inspector the inspection fees for each building or structure as set forth in the following schedule:

SCHEDULE OF PLUMBING FEES

For issuing each permit	$ 2.00
In addition:
For each plumbing fixture or trap or set of fixtures on one trap (including water, drainage piping and backflow protection therefor)	1.50
For each septic tank or house sewer	5.00
Chemical toilet	3.00
For each private sewage disposal system	10.00
For each water heater	1.50
For each individual waste pre-treatment interceptor, including its trap and vent, excepting kitchen type grease interceptors functioning as fixture traps	1.00
For installation, alteration or repair of water piping and/or water treating equipment	1.50
For repair or alteration of drainage or vent piping	1.50
For each lawn sprinkler system on any one meter including backflow protection devices therefor	2.00
For vacuum breakers or backflow protective devices on tanks, vats, etc., or for installation on unprotected plumbing fixtures including necessary water piping:
One (1) to five (5)	2.00
Over five (5) each	.30
For each gas piping system of one to five outlets	1.50
For each gas piping system of six or more outlets, per outlet	.30
For each swimming pool:
Public	20.00
Private	10.00
Minimum fee for any permit for work requiring inspection	2.00

"(b) Where work for which a permit is required by this code is started prior to obtaining said permit, the fees above specified shall be doubled, but the payment of such double fee shall not relieve any persons from fully complying with the requirements of this code in the execution of the work nor from any other penalties prescribed herein."

SECTION 9-6.403 is hereby amended as follows: "The 1964 Edition of the Uniform Plumbing Code, as published by the West Coast Plumbing Officials Association, is hereby adopted by reference with the following revisions:

"(a) Part One, 'Administration' of the 1964 Edition is hereby deleted, and the provisions of this chapter shall be substituted.

"(b) Part Two, 'Qualifications of Plumbers' is hereby deleted, and anyone who possesses a valid Plumbing License, C-36, or Sewer, Sewage Disposal, Drain, Cement Pipe Laying License, C-42, issued by the Contractor's License Board of the State shall be deemed to be qualified.

"(c) Appendix D, 'Rainwater Systems' is hereby deleted, and Appendix D, 'Swimming Pools' is substituted therefor and made a part of this chapter. (See Article 5)

"Exception: The exception set forth in Section 9-6.401 of this article shall apply fully to the Uniform Plumbing Code."

SECTION 9-6.404 is hereby repealed.

SECTION 2.

This Ordinance shall be published once in full within fifteen (15) days of its final passage and adoption in the INDEPENDENT-JOURNAL, a newspaper of general circulation printed and published in the County of Marin, and shall be in full force and effect thirty (30) days from and after final passage.

This Ordinance was introduced at a regular meeting of the City Council held on the 28th day of June, 1966, and was thereafter at a regular meeting of the City Council held on July 12, 1966, duly passed and adopted by the following vote:

HOW TO KEEP WELL

By DR. THEODORE R. VAN DELLEN

Fishing Can Be Healthy Sport For Men, Women, Old Or Young

VAN DELLEN

Fishing offers exercise, relaxation, fresh air, and sunlight. In addition there are no sex or age limitations. The sport can be played to fit the physical and emotional needs of the strong and the weak. Those seeking vigorous exercise can walk 10 miles up a swift trout stream or try their luck against tuna or marlin along our ocean fronts. The person who is recuperating from an operation, heart attack, or prolonged illness can sit in a boat or on a pier with his favorite rod or cane pole, doing a little still fishing.

BUT THERE is more to fishing than catching fish. Many men and women have made a hobby of fly tying or making bamboo rods. Several large cities have one or more casting clubs where members practice to develop accuracy while others stand around kibitzing and describing their latest trip and biggest fish.

The sport also has its pitfalls. A week out of doors on a fishing trip means being burned by the sun one day and chilled by the wind the next. Moreover, there are the usual dangers associated with being in boats and around water. Rowboats are easily tipped and the rocks in the stream are slippery. The good fisherman has a healthy respect for the barbs or hooks. When more than two are casting from a boat there is always danger of a hook catching in the lobe of an ear, a cheek, or an eye.

It is a good policy to carry cutting pliers or an old surgical hemostat to help retrieve a hook that is stuck deep in the fish's mouth. If a hook catches in a finger the area should be cleansed with an antiseptic and the hook forced thru quickly. The barb is then removed with the cutting pliers and the hook can be slipped out. If vital structures like the eye are involved a physician must be consulted immediately.

With each new season the fisherman is a year older. The person who leads a sedentary existence should keep this in mind and act accordingly More than one fisherman has exercised violently on a trip yet when asked by his wife to do the equivaient amount of work at home he is likely to say, "Do you think I'm crazy?"

Dr. Van Dellen will answer questions on medical topics if stamped, self-addressed envelope accompanies request.

ROUGH JOINTS

V. B. writes: Would you tell me more about roughness in a joint? This is what my hip X-ray shows.

REPLY

Body joints, I assume. The joint surfaces usually are as smooth as the pistons in an automobile. With wear and tear, however, they wrinkle, thicken, and become frayed Such changes interfere with the action of the structure, making movements and weight bearing painful.

LEGAL ASPECTS

A. L. writes: Is artificial insemination regulated by law?

REPLY

Not to my knowledge, but there are legal implications worth investigating before considering the procedure.

PARALYSIS FACE

O. Y. writes: Is Bell's palsy the same as a stroke?

REPLY

Bell's palsy as a rule is due to neuritis of the facial nerve. A somewhat similar paralysis of the facial muscles may develop with stroke.

Unions Poise To Woo White-Collars, Poor

By SAMUEL SHARKEY JR.
Advance News Service

WASHINGTON—Walter Reuther's wing of the AFL-CIO is calling for a "restructuring" of labor unions to help them keep up with today's complex corporate society.

The restructuring also is necessary, Reuther's top aide says, to stimulate organizing of the two largest unorganized population groups—the poor, and the white-collar and professional workers.

Jack T. Conway, executive director of the AFL-CIO industrial union department, says the charges must "provide appeal to those two groups, which have previously had little or no thought of organizing."

"There are serious structural problems in the AFL-CIO," Conway said in an interview, "that can hamper labor's effort to increase its membership, and hence its economic strength.

The department executive board, meeting here a week ago, pledged to step up its activities to develop new forms and new approaches.

The liberal board, which is basically an expansion of the pre-merger CIO, now includes 60 unions with more than 8 million members. It's the largest bloc within the AFL-CIO.

Conway notes that the original conservative AFL structure was developed "to reflect the economic and working conditions of many years ago." The changes of the 1930s led to the formation of the CIO, aimed at industrial workers, and "filled a vacuum" in the AFL framework.

Now, the IUD is moving again to fill a vacuum.

"The more we look into this area, the more we conclude that the institutinal structure and framework of the current labor movement are inadequate to cope with the problems of the widely developed industrial economy," Conway says.

"It's hard for unions to keep up with the new type of corporate structure, with its concentrations of wealth, its buying, selling and merging of companies, its stock swaps and all the rest."

One change, Conway says, will have to be the development of new local unions not tied in with any international unions, to provide the flexibility to meet specific needs.

Another move is the development of new approaches to appeal to professional or white-collar workers. For example, he says, in the medical profession few persons other than physicians and nurses are licensed or organized.

The nurses, he adds, "have been filled with the Florence Nightingale philosophy with few tangible, take-home benefits. It's no wonder they're in a revolt, with their resignations or strikes.

The problem the IUD faces, Conway says, is whether to organize the nurses on a piecemeal basis or develop a new organization capable of absorbing them all at once. Another alternative is to include them in with other medical personnel in one larger union.

Professionals such as teachers present a different challenge. The American Federation of Teachers has almost doubled its membership in a year and has staged or threatened strikes in many major cities.

Its success has been so rapid that the National Education Association, a professional association rather than a union, several weeks ago offered to let the teachers federation merge into the NEA. The invitation was rebuffed.

At the other end of the scale are what Reuther calls "the unorganized poor," the casual workers or migrants or those in other jobs with income so low that unions generally are not interested in signing them up.

The IUD feels the best way to improve the lot of these people, many of whom earn under the $3,000-a-year poverty level, is to give them economic "muscle" against employers through unionizing.

Studies have found most such people, however, are so frightened of losing even those meager jobs that they tend to shy away from unions. That poses the problem, Conway says, of evolving a new approach that will attract them.

These Are San Rafael

FRANCISCO BOULEVARD—This is San Rafael to many who pass through city on Highway 101.

WEST END—Forbes Avenue from H Street, a view which means San Rafael to West End folk.

. . . Many Things To Many People

Those who just pass through San Rafael may think of it only in terms of the garish forest of signs and utility poles along Francisco Boulevard at the south entrance to the city—or in terms of the vast parking lots and imposing commercial buildings of the Northgate Shopping Center at the north entrance. Both are San Rafael.

Residents may think of it in terms of the quiet, tree-lined streets where they live—or of the rows of apartment houses in the canal area.

San Francisco $101,132 Find

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Assessor Joseph E. Tinney says that the first 15 of a series of court-ordered audits of San Francisco business firms reveals unpaid taxes of $101,132.

Tinney — successor of Russell L. Wolden, who was convicted of accepting bribes — made the report yesterday before Justice A. F. Bray of the State District Court of Appeal. Bray has ordered Tinney to make audits of the personal property of 151 firms named in various phases of the investigation of Wolden's dealings.

Tinney is to determine the amount of escaped taxes for the years 1964-66 and to apply penalty taxes.

Picket Ban Asked For Luci's Wedding

WASHINGTON (AP) — Rep. Wayne L. Hays, D-Ohio, has introduced a bill designed to prevent planned picketing of the Shrine of the Immaculate Conception when Luci Johnson is married there Aug. 6.

Hays' bill would ban picketing within 500 feet of any church building in the District of Columbia. A group opposed to the Viet Nam war has announced plans to picket the church on the wedding day.

Ross School Budget Set For Hearing

Ross School District Board Monday night approved a publication budget for fiscal year 1967 of $380,203.80, and set a public hearing on the budget for Aug. 1 at 8 a.m. in the school library.

The budget is expected to retain the same tax rate as last year, $3.21 per $100 assessed valuation, said Supt. Robert Gowan.

The increase in the budget is accounted for by an increase of $21,000 in teachers' salaries and expenses in buying equipment for the school's new addition, the superintendent said.

Part of these expenses were authorized by the board Monday night, when it accepted a bid by W. K. McLellan Co. to resurface the playground and inner courtyard with asphalted concrete at $3,420, the work to to be done in August. The board also authorized Superintendent Gowan to purchase 300 chairs for the new auditorium, at approximately $6 each.

The Ross School District board also:

1. Instructed the superintendent to submit at the next regular board meeting a proposed policy on the use of the new multi-purpose room.
2. Renewed a student insurance policy with North American Life Insurance Co.
3. Denied a request for an interdistrict transfer. The request came from a real estate company which was attempting to sell a house in Kentfield contingent upon the prospective buyers' children being able to attend Ross School.
4. Hired Mar Lancaster, 32, of 3 Rose Court, Novato, as vice principal at $10,800. Lancaster has taught sixth grade in the Novato Unified School District for the last three years and is summer school principal of Lynwood School in Novato.

'For Sale' Signs Are Radio Topic

Four Marin County real estate salesmen will discuss whether or not "for sale" signs should be permitted on lawns throughout the county on tomorrow's KTIM Sounding Board from 9 to 10 a.m.

Guests of moderator Kitty Oppenheimer will be Maggie Walker of Larkspur and Harold Baleschini of Coldwell, Banker and Co. of San Rafael, both in favor; William A. Hamilton of Cagwin and Hamilton, Mill Valley, and Joe H. Stewart, of Stewart Associates, Corte Madera, both opposed.

Questions may be phoned to KTIM during the broadcast, which will be repeated on tape Sunday at 12:30 p.m.

Antitrust Plan May Mean End Of Blue Chip

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — The Blue Chip Stamp Co. may be out of business by 1969 if federal antitrust officials accept a proposal offered by seven of the nine large chain stores which own the trading stamp company, it was disclosed yesterday.

The stamp company was the subject of an antitrust suit brought by the Department of Justice in 1963 charging the firm with monopolistic practices.

TWO NEW FIRMS

The proposal by the seven owners was for a consent decree judgment which would set up two new firms to be owned by the Blue Chip chains.

In Washington, a Justice department spokesman said the proposal was "under consideration."

Donald A. Koeppel, president of Blue Chip, said in Los Angeles that "any speculation or prediction as to the ultimate fate of Blue Chip stamps is premature."

"We are hopeful that we will have an announcement concerning the specifics of a proposed settlement by the end of this week," he said.

REDEEM STAMPS

Under California Law, Blue Chip would be required to redeem all stamps held by the public for the full value either before or after the dissolution of the company.

The seven firms submitting the plan were Safeway, Purity Stores, Alexanders' Markets, Ralph's Grocery Co., Von's Grocery Co., Lucky Stores and Thrifty Drug Stores.

Market Basket and Thriftymart, the other two owners, have refused to sign the proposal.

Hawaii Offers New Welcome To Military

HONOLULU (AP) — American servicemen arriving in Hawaii for rest and relaxation leave will be issued a wallet-sized card which will get them entertainment, meals and drinks free or at cut rate, beginning next month.

The Hawaii Visitors Buraau, acting on a suggestion by the Honolulu Star-Bulletin, designed the card, and reports it has had a ogod reaction from businessmen.

Bay Nurses Begin Mass Resignation

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — Nurses at 33 San Francisco Bay Area hospitals began resigning in large numbers today to back their demands for higher pay.

Roy Campbell, chairman of the California Nurses Association negotiating committee, said 1,980 nurses are expected to submit resignations by tonight.

The CNA earlier today urged 3,500 nurses at the hospitals to submit resignations which would be effective in two weeks.

(Marin hospital nurses are not participating in the Bay Area negotiations, but have agreed to deter their demands for higher pay and improved working conditions pending outcome of the areawide negotiations.

Marin General Hospital, Ross General Hospital and Novato General Hospital granted raises last week to their nurses, but some nurses were reported dissatisfied with the increases.)

The association's appeal was announced shortly after bargaining between the CNA and hospital negotiators collapsed. Spokesmen said, however, that further talks will be held soon.

In addition to the 33 hospitals directly involved in the contract talks, there were indications nurses may resign at others, including 14 Kaiser hospitals and clinics in the area.

The joint talks began at the request of the California Conciliation Service Friday after temporary settlement of a pay dispute at Eden Hospital, a medical facility at Castro Valley.

Guilt Verdict For Former Hell's Angel

REDWOOD CITY (AP)—A 22-year-old former Hell's Angel was convicted yesterday of assaulting two police officers in a melee outside a Daly City tavern April 14.

Under a new law making assult on an officer a felony, Kenneth G. Krake could be sentenced to one to 10 years on each count.

Krake told the jury he has quit the Angels because his association with the motorcycle riders brought him nothing but trouble.

Bearded at the time of his arrest, Krake appeared in court in a neat dark suit, a crew cut and clean shaven.

Superior Court Judge J. A. Branson set Krake's sentencing for Aug. 17. Three others arrested in the Daly City fracas are awaiting trial on the same felony charges.

Novato Fox Probably Thirsty, Not Rabid

A fox shot by Novato police Saturday was not rabid, the Marin County Health Department reported today.

Police shot the fox after it was reported frothing at the mouth and running in circles in the front yard of Robert William Pankratz's home at 37 Forest Road, Novato. A spokesman for the health department said the fox was probably "just thirsty."

San Anselmo Crash Breaks Driver's Teeth

Bonnie Susan Hicks, 19, of 208 Butterfield Road, San Anselmo, was treated at Marin General Hospital Monday for bruises and broken teeth suffered when the car she was driving struck a parked car at Sir Francis Drake Boulevard and Calumet Avenue, San Anselmo.

Gunshot Victim Still Alive, Condition Bad

A San Rafael woman found shot through the temple Sunday night was reported still in poor condition today at Marin General Hospital.

Mrs. Cornelia Ann Thierfeldt, 45, of 705 Kerner Boulevard, was found slumped on the sofa in the livnig room by her husband, Robert, with a .22 caliber rifle lying by her side.

What to do about obscene, harassing or threatening phone calls

We're very much concerned about offensive and malicious phone calls and we're expanding our efforts to combat them.

We hope you never receive such a call, but if you do, here are some ways you and your family can discourage the caller:

Hang up—if the caller doesn't identify himself to your satisfaction. And never give your phone number to an unknown caller.

What these malicious callers really want is an audience. You can usually discourage them by simply hanging up.

If the calls persist, call our Business Office. We have employees who are trained to assist and advise you and who can frequently help in identifying the origin of unwelcome and troublesome calls.

Obscene or threatening phone calls violate state laws, and conviction can result in fines and imprisonment up to six months. We're working closely with law enforcement agencies in prosecuting violators.

We want to do all we can to protect your right to privacy.

Golden PGA Tournament To Begin Tomorrow

AKRON, Ohio (AP) — The PGA's golden anniversary tournament begins tomorrow with the game's top stars harboring various reasons for wanting to win the final major championship of 1966.

Jack Nicklaus, Arnold Palmer, Gary Player, Billy Casper, Doug Sanders and Dave Marr are among those who have an ax to grind in the 72-hole battle across the vast field of the Firestone Country Club which measures 7,180 yards and carries a challenging par of 35-35—70.

Nicklaus is gunning for a three-quarter slam. If he tacks the PGA to his Master's and British Open victories, he'll become the first player to win three major titles since Ben Hogan won the Masters, the British Open, the U.S. Open and then didn't compete in the 1953 PGA.

Player, the 1965 golfer of the year, has virtually done nothing this year in the way of winning.

The diminutive South African was one of the first pros to appear at Firestone and has been practicing diligently since last Friday in an effort to shape up his game.

Casper has been the steadiest golfer on tour this year, and "Buffalo Bill" could all but wrap up 1966 honors by stringing the PGA title to his recent U.S. Open and Western Open triumphs.

Sanders usually is in the running, but the quick-witted sport with the flashy outfits never has won a major championship, although he came close in the British Open when he finished two strokes behind Nacklaus.

However, Doug's record at Firestone is not an enviable one. He finished in a tie for third in the 1960 PGA and in five American classics his best showing was a tie for ninth last year.

Marr's story has become a sad one, in that he has been completely overlooked despite the fact he is defending the title he won at Ligonier last year.

Marr takes his role of the forgotten man philosophically, saying, "The guy who wins only three of 90 tournaments should be forgotten." Dave hasn't won a thing since the 1965 PGA, but has has been among the top 10 in seven tournaments this year and remains a title threat.

Everyone in the field of 165 will be trying to win the prestige-laden tournament, but except for the possibility of a long shot coming through, only a handful aside from the consistent winners appear to have a reasonable chance of wearing the crown.

There's Bob Nichols, the 1964 champion who is fresh off a victory in the Minnesota Open last week. Tony Lema is a threat now that his ailing elbow appears to be well.

Ken Venturi is capable if he is not knocked down by the various physical ailments which plague him. Gay Brewer has had an excellent year, and Tommy Aaron is among the younger players who carry big sticks.

The tournament winds up Sunday. In case of a tie, there will be an 18-hole playoff Monday.

JIM MURRAY

Jerry Barber Has Found A New Home

Jerry Barber is, very possibly, the best 5 foot 5 inch golfer who ever lived and one of the best at any altitude. He won the 1961 PGA tournament, which is one of the four summits of golf and a tournament which has eluded dozens of the great names of the game, including Arnold Palmer. He won the Azalea Open three times and holds the record low score for the Tournament of Champions, 268.

AS A TEACHER, he is fond of saying, "Sam Snead fell out of bed one morning with his swing—but you and I have to work on ours." Jerry has the personal habits of a Kansas parson. For him, the 19th hole is the practice green. He had a short game so deadly that onlookers would frequently note in a tourney, "Jerry's got him right where he wants him now—he's only 50 yards behind him."

Jerry is 50 years old now and he has begun to put on weight—two whole pounds. He weighs 139. In his prime he never weighed an ounce over 137.

JERRY HAS HAD several cushy club jobs—carpet-on-the-floor links where the names on the locker doors read like the first two pages of Dun & Bradstreet. But the trouble with that kind of club job is that they throw you a $50-a-plate dinner when you win the PGA, but, finish out of the money in two consecutive tournaments, and Mr. Sonny Riches kicks his Rolls-Royce in the fender, throws his gold-plated putter into the marble fireplace, and screams, "How come he's never around here when I need him? How'm I ever going to cure this shank if he goes traipsing across the country finishing 11th all the time?"

JERRY HAS FINALLY found his spot. Griffith Park, is the largest municipal park in the United States. Its players tee up early because they have to haul a semi over the grapevine to Bakersfield later in the day, or sweep out the barber shop or hand out towels at the steam bath. Their sticks are not signatured "A. Palmer," they're signed "Sears-Roebuck." There are more hickory shafts than there were at Carnoustie in 1905. The course groans under the play of almost 200 foursomes a day. Half the players hit the ball into poison ivy country.

THE CLUBHOUSE was built by the WPA, not Frank Lloyd Wright. You lose nine holes to a zoo, a freeway, a softball diamond or a dance hall everytime a politician needs re-election. You teach kids free, because that's part of the contract, and you give the same attention you gave a $100-an-hour playing lesson at Golden Acres. Some kids save for months to buy a $50 alpaca, they don't say, "I'll take two. Just put it on papa's bill."

There are kids with braces on their teeth, oldsters who may finish the round out at Utter-McKinley.

GRIFFITH HAS SPAWNED more national, state and regional champions on its two courses (Wilson and Harding, named after elected Presidents, not dukes and earls) than any comparable hunk of real estate in the world. Its 700-member men's club, headed by Fred Sutton, works just as hard as if it had a proprietary interest, instead of just a tax payers'.

You are well-advised to play in a helmet on weekends. You'll find some guys playing while rooters are still crowing, others putting out by moonlight, ducking the sprinklers.

BUT JERRY BARBER has found a home and is as happy as he'd be with a one-putt green. The members address him as "Sir," instead of the other way around. And, when he goes off on a senior tournament, they give him luggage, not a dirty look. And any morning you can hear him patiently out on the first tee explaining, "Now, Sam Snead fell out of bed one morning with his swing, but yau and I . . ."

Astros Whip Phils 8-2; Cincy Reds Nip Cubs 3-2 In 18-Inning Marathon

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

The Philadelphia Phillies knew before the game that the outfield grass in the Astrodome had been changed, but it's doubtful if they were ready for the change in Houston pitcher Dick Farrell.

Farrell scattered eight hits last night as the Astros climbed to one game above the .500 mark by beating the fourth place Phillies 8-2.

But the change in Farrell didn't occur on the mound — where he has always been respected — but at bat — where he never has been feared.

The veteran right-hander belted two singles and his first homer since 1962 in four trips to the plate. The homer came with two men on in the sixth and gave the Astros a 7-2 lead.

The three hits gave him four in 32 at bats for a .125 average, and the victory was his fourth in 10 decisions.

The game was the first played on a surface which consisted of artificial grass in the outfield as well as the infield. The nylon surface has been in use in the Astrodome's infield all season.

"The ball bounces like a rubber ball," he said. "You can't hold your footing. It's hard to stop when you charge the ball. They should have left it like it was."

In the only other National League games, Cincinnati edged the Chicago Cubs 3-2 in 18 innings, the longest game in the majors this year, and St. Louis nipped Atlanta 10-9 in 12 innings.

Chicago beat Cleveland 5-4, Minnesota took Washington 5-4 and 4-0, and Baltimore trounced Detroit 13-3 in the American League. Kansas City at New York and California at Boston were postponed because of rain.

Don Pavletich's homer with two out in the 18th won it for Cincinnati. Until then, the two teams had played eight straight scoreless innings.

The Cubs, who left 18 men on base, took a 1-0 lead in the seventh, and the Reds came back to tie it in the eighth. Then after the Cubs went ahead 2-1 in the eighth, the Reds again tied it when Gordy Coleman doubled home Pete Rose with two out in the ninth.

Atlanta built up a 7-0 lead at St. Louis, but the Cardinals tied it with seven runs in the sixth. Each got a pair in the seventh, and that ended the scoring until Charlie Smith singled home pinch runner Bob Tolan to win it in the 12th.

Joe Torre hit a grand slam homer for the Braves in the first and belted a solo shot, his 24th, in the seventh. Smith also hit a two-run homer for the winners.

Fast Action Features Junior Tennis Tourney

Two fast matches were fought yesterday in Boys 16 Singles of the Marin County Junior Tennis Tournament at Albert Field. The tourney is co-sponsored by the San Rafael Recreation Department and the I-J.

In the first round, Jeff Mills defeated Jan Brink 9-7, 7-5, after which Gabriel Lugo defeated Howie Ortman, 3-6, 6-3, 6-2. Also yesterday, Colin Reeve of the Mill Valley Tennis Club, who is now second seeded in the tourney, won in two sets over Greg Kalemba 6-0, 9-7.

Lugo also scored over Barry Brink in Boys Singles 6-0, 6-1 and Andy Wilson of Tiburon defeated Bruce Trapp in a pair of 6-2 sets.

Kevin Madera of San Rafael Racquet Club defeated Jan Brink 6-1, 3-6, 9-7. Brink, from Mill Valley, survived five match points before losing to Madera. At one point Brink trailed in a 6-5, 40-love score before finally bowing out 9-7.

Softballers In Tourney Play Tonight

The Sohner Tree Service team meets the Sebastopol Merchants at 9:45 tonight at Santa Rosa's Burbank Park in a battle in the winner's bracket at the Tri-County District Softball Tournament.

Winner of the tourney receives a berth in the California State Softball Tournament to be held next month in Hayward. Last year, the Sohner team was the champion of the District Tournament.

Morey Swarm will be pitching tonight for the Sohner Tree Service team against Wes Nott of Sebastopol.

In yesterday's tourney games, Lucky Seven won a 2-1 decision over Mirnar and Coach Merchants defeated the Windsor Merchants 4-0, and Hamilton Field beat Dee-Jay Glass, 3-1.

Portugal Trips Brazil Soccer Team

LONDON (AP) — International soccer fans hailed 24-year-old African Eusebio, inside forward for Portugal, as the new king of soccer today.

Eusebio scored two spectacular goals in leading the Portugese to a 3-1 victory over Brazil in the World Cup competition last night and virtually snuffed out the chances of the defending champions for a third straight world championship.

The victory put Portugal into the quarter-finals as the winners of group three with a 3-0 record against Hungary, Brazil and Bulgaria and made the Portuguese favored to succeed Brazil as world champions.

Brazil and its famed player, Pele, who was injured in the 30th minute against Portugal, has just a faint hope of qualifying for the quarter-finals as the runner-up in group three. For this to happen Bulgaria, winless and goaless, must upset Hungary tonight.

Portugal's victory over Brazil at Liverpool overshadowed North Korea's 1-0 victory over Italy at Middlesbrough in perhaps the biggest upset of the tournament. Italy's defeat by the 500-1 underdogs brought wails of disbelief from Italian fans. A player Italy had almost never heard of, a wiry little forward called Pak Doo Ik, scored the goal that put the Italians out of the Cup.

Uruguay and Mexico played a scoreless tie at Wembley Stadium and Argentina beat Switzerland 2-0 at Sheffield in yesterday's other games.

Argentina, Russia, Uruguay and Portugal have qualified for the quarter-finals. Tonight's games will decide the other four teams in the round of eight.

KEY GAME FOR MARIN BASEBALLERS

Central Marin and Vallejo American, the only two undefeated teams in the Babe Ruth district tournament going on ing on at Wilson Park in Vallejo, meet tonight at 9:30.

Winner of tonight's game advances to the finals Saturday at 1 p.m. Central Marin has won its two previous tourney games, 8-1 over Vacaville and 4-2 over Travis Air Force Base.

The Mill Valley and Novato all-star teams have already been knocked out of the double elimination tourney.

Mrs. Jack Gibbs Hits Hole-In-One On Marin Links

Mrs. Jack A. Gibbs shot a hole-in-one at Marin Country Club in Novato yesterday on the second hole.

Mrs. Gibbs, who is captain of the Ladies Golf Assn. at the country club, made her rare shot using a number five wood on the 150-yard hole.

Witnesses for the shot were Mrs. A. Babson, Mr. O. Merwin, and Mrs. Warren Krast. This was Mrs. Griggs' first hole-in-one.

Safety Course Sign-Ups Slated

Sign-ups for a 10-week safety course to be offered by the Marin Rifle and Pistol Club will be held next Monday at the San Rafael Police Pistol Range between 7 and 8 p.m.

The course is open to youngsters between the ages of 12 and 18. There is a $5 fee for books, ammunition and use of guns.

Giants Open Home Stand

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—The San Francisco Giants are back home again for an eight-game stand.

The New York Mets are here for the next two days, then the Philadelphia Phillies for three games, followed by the Pittsburgh Pirates for another three.

The Giants aren't taking any chances in their first game with the Mets. Juan Marichal (15-4) was to pitch against Jack Fisher (6-9), and Juan has never lost to the Mets.

Over 143 innings pitched against the Mets Juan has yielded only 13 runs, making his ERA a low, low 0.82 and his win-loss record a high 15-0.

While at home the Giants will have a chance to grab back the National League lead. They were out of it only five times before the Pirates overtook them Sunday.

In one stretch, they were second for 10 days, regained the lead the next day and held it for the next 34. Then they were out again, this time for three days, but they fought back on top and stayed there until the Pirates knocked them out last Sunday.

6 Miami Players Fined $100 Each

ST. PETERSBURGH, Fla. (AP)—A 10-minute violation of the 11 p.m. curfew has cost six veterans who had just reported to the Miami Dolphins' training camp $100 each.

Coach George Wilson of the new American Football League team gave the men the choice yesterday of paying the fine or working it out in a painful way.

All except Alfonse Dotson attempted to work out the penalty but changed their minds after doing a crab walk (on hands and toes backwards) the length of the training field.

If they had decided to go, Wilson said, they would have been given other stunts — such as somersaulting and rolling the 100 yards.

The others who paid the fine were Bo Roberson, Billy Joe, Gene Mingo, Jim Warren and Dick Westmoreland.

Rod-Gun Club Barbecue Sunday

The Marin Rod and Gun Club will hold its annual chicken barbecue next Sunday. Picnic tickets may be purchased for $2 from Milburn Zell, club president.

The club now has an outdoor dance floor, which, if sufficient interest is shown, will be used for the first time during this affair.

Gentile Sold To Indians

HOUSTON (AP) — Seasoned first baseman Jim Gentile, sent to the minors after a temper display as a Houston Astro, made it back to the majors yesterday.

The National League Astros announced they had sold Gentile to the Cleveland Indians for an undisclosed amount of cash and 28-year-old outfielder Tony Curry.

Gentile, 32, started the season with the Astros but was put on Houston's Oklahoma City farm club roster after the other big league clubs had waived on him.

The Astros dropped him after a bat throwing incident at home plate and a show of temper by Gentile. He also was fined $250 and suspended from the league five days.

Before he was sidelined recently with a pulled groin muscle, Gentile was hitting .284 with eight homers in 67 times at bat at Oklahoma City.

Curry, who reports to Oklahoma City in the Pacific Coast League, started the season with Portland in the same league but was called up by the Indians when he was hitting .350. With Cleveland, he went to bat only 14 times, collecting two hits.

Raider Stars Hire Lawyer To Negotiate

OAKLAND, Calif. (AP)—Offensive end Art Powell and running back Clem Daniels have hired a lawyer to negotiate their contracts with the Oakland Raiders of the American Football League.

Both stars have failed to report to the Raider training camp at Santa Rosa, at a reported cost of $50 a day fine each for the past four days.

"We are both asking for three-year, no-cut contracts at $50,000 a year," Daniels said yesterday. "Evidently, however, the Raiders can't pay us what we want."

Oakland lawyer Ray Bolton is handling the matter for the players. He represented guard Ted Connolly in a dispute with the San Francisco 49ers a few years ago.

"I telephoned general manager Scotty Stirling today and was told that he would not talk to either Powell or Daniels until they reported to training camp," Bolton said.

"I think this is a completely arbitrary decision on his part, and I know of no rule in football or any sport which says that the front office won't even talk to a player until he reports."

Between them last year, Powell and Daniels scored 24 of Oakland's 35 touchdowns and caught 88 of the Raiders' 195 pass completions for 1,368 of the 2,460 yards gained by the team in the air. Daniels ran for more than half the team's total rushing yardage, 884 of the 1,538.

So You Think All Motorcyclists Are Wild Men In Black Leather Jackets

San Rafael Club Attempts To End The Myth

By GARY TISCHLER

You know what motorcyclists are. Everybody does. They're the guys with the black leather jackets and the swastikas who come tearing into town ready to start a brawl and scare the hell out of little old ladies.

They're the bunch that buzzes down Highway 101 like a pack of aimless, noisy insects, sniffing trouble and glue. It's Hell's Angels and Marlon Brando smoking a home-made cigarette.

Everybody knows that.

Right? Wrong.

One group of people in Marin County don't happen to think so. The group is the San Rafael Motorcycle Club and its members would like nothing better than to erase the tattered image of cycling.

WANT RESPECT

They want to make cycling respectable. They want motorcycles and the people aboard them to be accepted by the community and by Marin County.

They want people to put away their shotguns when they hear the roar of a motorcycle.

The club's president, Monte Schaulis of Fairfax, certainly doesn't fit the ready-made image of a cyclist. He looks less like Marlon Brando, more like somebody out of a Harvard yearbook. Dressed in a spotless white shirt and tie and business suit, he looks more like the young businessman that he is. You wonder where he parked his XK-E and where the heck he left his attache case.

NO STUFFED SHIRT

A sauna bath distributor by profession, he happens to love cycling. He likes to spend weekends "riding around in the hills" because "it's better than sitting around getting bored at cocktail parties."

"Some people like that," he said. "I don't. Cycling gives me a certain feeling of freedom and independence. Today there is very little chance to do that."

Schaulis wants to perpetuate the safe brand of cycling that is practiced by the average fan. That is essentially the purpose of the club — to promote safe cycling for pleasure without fear of embarrassment.

FLEDGLING STAGE

The club is still in a fledgling stage. Started only four months ago, it lists 25 members, including architects, San Francisco businessmen, policemen and professional cyclists.

To date, the club activities have been limited to weekly meetings at the Cycle Town of Bill Verbiscio, San Rafael professional cyclist; competition in surrounding events, and a safety demonstration for youngsters at Hamilton Air Force Base. The club meetings are on Thursdays, 8 p.m.

The club is sanctioned by the A M A (American Motorcycle Assn.), and is authorized to hold events. All of its members hold AMA membership cards. It is all very official, legal and safe, something the less savory clubs are not.

One thing the San Rafael Motorcycle Club does not have is land. But Schaulis is hoping optimistically.

"We're sort of like a football team without a playing field," Schaulis said. "But we're negotiating for a piece of property now and hope to get it sometime near the end of this month."

Land in Marin County is harder to find than a topless girl at Arthur Murray's, but with some kind of property the club can start working toward its goal of being accepted.

"We plan to sponsor competitive events," Schaulis explained. "We'll sponsor events and give the proceeds to charities and needy organizations like the Boy Scouts and things like that."

Erasing the stigma that seems to surround motorcycling is uppermost in Schaulis' mind.

"I know a lot of people who own motorcycles and who like to take them out on weekends," Schaulis said. "But they're embarrassed to admit that they have them."

"The way to become accepted is to help out in the community. We want to volunteer for fire fighting but so far we've had no offers. We would like to show people that motorcycling is safe. There are regulations governing that. And a fellow on a cycle just can't hop on his motorcycle after downing a few drinks and expect to drive safely. You have to be alert on a motorcycle."

One of the bigger problems for the club is that there is no place to really enjoy yourself on a cycle in Marin County.

TOUGH LAWS

"Some of our cycles aren't built for road driving," Schaulis said. "They're made for dirt trails but there is a Marin County law that you cannot drive on county-owned property. But hikers and horses can go where they want. I think we ought to be able to do the same thing. We want to enjoy ourselves in a constructive way, not destructive."

Cycling still has some vestiges of a built-in bad reputation. But like the wild reputations of sports car drivers not too long ago, it may soon become as respectable as driving a Volkswagen through rush hour. That can get wild too.

Tami McDuffie Is 'Top Swimmer'

Tami McDuffie was acclaimed "outstanding swimmer" in the San Rafael Swim Club's Class AB meet with Livermore last weekend. Miss McDuffie placed first in the 50-meter breast with a 44.0, second in the 200 I.M., fourth in fly, and sixth in back.

Other first place winners were:

Bill Cannedy, free 59.0; Clint McDuffie, free 1:09.3; Lisa Knudsen, breast 26.4; Cookie Arrighi, fly 1:20.9; Tom Panages, fly 1:13.7; Girls 11-12 "A" Medley Relay Team (Linda Nederman, Mary Andrews, Melissa Panages, and Katie Parnow), 2:27.6.

Conservation Awards Are Due

The California Wildlife Federation has announced a statewide program to recognize outstanding accomplishments by individuals and organizations in the "wise use and management of California's natural resources."

Public recognition will be given award winners at a special meeting to be held at the Marin Rod and Gun Club in San Rafael Oct. 1. Winners also will receive trophies consisting of unique statuettes of symbolic species of American wildlife.

Dodgers Open Against Bucs

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — THE Los Angeles Dodgers, engaged in a four-way dogfight for first place, open a crucial two-game stand tonight with the league-leading Pittsburgh Pirates.

A rapidly improving Don Drysdale goes against the Pirates' Vern Law. Drysdale, whose record stood at a dismal 4-11 three weeks ago, has won two of his last three starts and had a no decision in his most recent outing against the New York Mets.

Terra Linda '9' Wins Series

Terra Linda's Athletics defeated the Jaycees 11-8 Monday, winning first place in the Youth Baseball series sponsored by the San Rafael Recreation Department.

The Jaycees took second and the Rotary-Native Sons third, winning a 10-3 victory over Conti's.

Rafael Gallarde was the winning pitcher for Terra Linda and Steve Dillman was losing pitcher in the encounter in which Terra Linda had 11 hits and the Jaycees six.

The Rotary-Native Sons took a one run lead in the first inning, never allowing Conti's to catch up.

OAKLAND'S NEW COLISEUM

Work Ahead Of Schedule

OAKLAND, Calif. (AP)—With two major league sports teams under contract, the Alameda County Coliseum Complex wants one more—a major league baseball team.

Coliseum Inc. announced yesterday it has signed long term leases with the Oakland Raiders of the American Football League and the California Seals, now of the Western Hockey League but soon to be in the National Hockey League.

The Raiders have a lease for 20 years, the Seals for 15. The triple-tiered stadium will seat 53,000 for football and 50,000 for baseball.

Now 80 to 85 per cent complete and two months ahead of schedule, the stadium won't have a big scoreboard or a stadium club until a major league baseball franchise moves in.

Bob Nahas, the president fo Coliseum Inc., says he expects a baseball team by 1968 and maybe by 1967 if a court orders speedy major league expansion.

"The project can be successful without a baseball club," Nahas said. "It can exist."

But it's no secret that the city across the bay from San Francisco wants baseball badly. The directors of a tour for newsmen yesterday laid down home plate, three bases and a pitcher's slab on the field. There was also a small marker showing where the 50-yard line will be Sept. 18 when the Raiders open in the stadium against the Kansas City Chiefs.

"Joe Cronin (American League president) and I sat out here one sunny Saturday afternoon," Nahas said, "and he told me 'If I was 20 years younger, I'd take on the project myself."

The adjoining, architecturally breathtaking 15,000-seat arena opens Nov. 9 with the Seals playing the San Diego Gulls. The arena is about 75 per cent built.

The complex already has 52 sports events signed up. And 15 citizens or business firms will pledge $10,000 each to offer guarantees for other events.

The first guarantee is $125,000 for the AFL All Star Game, if it is played next January. The merger with the National Football League has put that contest in doubt.

Other events planned for the arena include the first Pacific Coast appearance of the AAU Indoor Track Championships, six National Basketball Association games featuring the San Francisco Warriors and a college basketball doubleheader.

The Raiders' agreement breaks down to a five-year lease with three five-year options. The Seals' have a five-year lease with two five-year options starting when they begin NHL play, probably after next season.

The Raiders will pay $2,500 for each pre-season game and $3,500 for regular season games against 7½ per cent of the gross. After $1.5 million, that goes up to 10 per cent.

The Seals will pay $900 a game or 10 per cent of the gross.

Coliseum Inc., Nahas said, retains concessions and parking rights and has contract protections against locally televised

Pittsburgh Fans Have What They Had In '60 Season—Pennant Fever

HANLEY

Beat 'em Bucks was the 1960 victory cry that echoed through Forbes Field and the city of Pittsburgh when the Pirates were enroute to their last pennant.

Beat 'em Buc stickers and pennants again are appearing throughout the Triangle City which once more has the pennant fever. Pirate fans are comparing their 1966 team to the 1960 pennant winner.

There aren't many precise parallels between the 1960 and 1966 Pirates but nevertheless Pittsburgh fans are trying to make them. It's a harmless and happy pastime.

THE CHIEF difference between the 1960 and 1966 Pirates is confidence, not that this present Pittsburgh team lacks confidence. But the 1960 Pirates had unshakeable confidence in themselves. They actually believed they were a team of destiny that could — and did — win ball games with almost unbelievable late inning rallies.

The 1960 Pirates won the seventh and final game of the World Series from the Yankees in the same dramatic fashion they won game after game en route to the National League pennant. Remember Bill Mazeroski's ninth inning homer that made a dejected figure of Ralph Terry who was saved from a similar fate in 1962 when Bobby Richardson flagged Willie McCovey's line drive for the final out of the '62 World Series in Candlestick Park?

THERE WERE two All-Star games in 1960 and the Pirates were represented in them by eight players. Pitchers Vernon Law, Bob Friend and Roy Face; Catcher Smoky Burgess; Infielders Dick Groat and Mazeroski; Outfielders Roberto Clemente and Bob Skinner.

Groat led the league with .325 and when he was decommissioned in the final weeks of the race by one of Lew Burdette's fast balls that broke his hand, Dick Schofield took Groat's place at shortstop and batted .333.

CLEMENTE LED the outfielders, hitting .314. Skinner and Bill Virdon betted .272 and .265. Skinner's .272 included 15 homers and 86 RBIs.

Law was 20-9, Friend 18-12, Vinegar Ben Mizell 14-8, Harvey Haddix 11-10, Fred Green 8-4, Joe Gibbon 4-2. But Roy Face, Baron of the bullpen, was the big man of the pitching staff notwithstanding Law's 20-game season. Face not only had 10 wins in relief but saved 16 games. Face's record indicates how the Pirates won in the late innings in '60.

THE BRIGHTEST facet of the 1966 Pirates is the way their four outfielders have been hitting this season. Seldom has an outfielding crew dominated league hitting the way Clemente Willie Stargell, Matty Alou and Manny Mota did through the first half of this season.

You have to go back to the Cubs of 1929-30 to find a more fearsome gang of outfielders. In 1929 Riggs Stephenson hit .362, Kiki Cuyler .360 and Hack Wilson .344. In 1930 Stephenson hit .367, Cuyler .355 and Wilson .356.

Tamalpais Cagers Win Summer League Game

Swimmers Train For Nationals

NEW YORK (UPI) —American swimmers, fresh from a convincing triumph over Russia in Moscow last weekend, will begin training for the U.S. Outdoor Nationals almost immediately, team coach Don Gambril indicated last night.

The nine men and six women, who turned in an 11-6 victory over the Russians, were attempting to find plane seats home and start getting in shape for the Nationals Aug. 18-21 at Lincoln, Neb. AAU officials were having trouble finding seats for the swimmers because of the airline strike.

Mrs. Nolan Wins At Indian Valley

Mrs. George Nolan won a match vs. par tournament yesterday at Indian Valley Golf Club with 46 points. Other winners:

Mrs. Johnson Wins Tourney

Mrs. Bo Johnson won the "closest to the hole" tournament yesterday at the Las Gallinas Women's Golf Club, reaching 3 feet, 8 inches from the cup. Mrs. Ned DiGrazia was next, 9-11.

Winners in the "Crier's" tourney:

Mesdames R. F. Honey, 64-12—52; J. L. Agnew, 62-9—53; Ned DiGrazia, 64-10—54; Bo Johnson, 61-6—55; Robert Greene, 67-12—55; Arthur Brodie, 72-16—56.

Not Bad For 7th

PHILADELPHIA (UPI)—Although his Philadelphia Phillies finished in seventh place in 1962, Gene Mauch won the National League's manager of the Year award that year.

Susie Wosser Finished 3rd In Yacht Series

Eighteen-year-old Susie Wosser of Tiburon won the last race in the Adams Cup Yacht Race off Richmond Yacht Club last weekend after disqualifying herself in the first race because of too great an overlap at the first mark.

Betty Sanchez, a 41 year-old skipper from King's Harbor Yacht Club in Long Beach, won two of the four races in the series and won the semi-finals. Susie was third.

Mrs. Sanchez and her crew will represent California in the women's North American sailing championships to be hosted by the San Francisco Yacht Club in Belvedere Aug. 28-Sept. 1.

Standings in the semi-finals are:

Mrs. Sanchez, KHYC 12½; Shirly Hoffman, Seal Point Yacht Club 12¼; Susie Wosser, SFYC 8¼; Pat Jacobs, Corinthian Yacht Club 7.

ALMANAC

Today is Wednesday, July 20, the 201st day of 1966 with 164 to follow.

The moon is between its new phase and first quarter, the morning stars are Mars, Venus and Saturn.

Sir Edmund Hillary, one of the first men to conquer Mount Everest, was born on this day in 1919.

On this day in history:

In 1904, Congress approved a $4 billion appropriation bill making possible a two-ocean Navy.

In 1945, the American Flag was raised over Berlin as the first American troops prepared to participate in the occupation government.

A thought for the day — American historian Mark Van Doren said: "Wit is the only wall between us and the dark."

TIME AND TIDE

Department of Commerce, United States Coast Geodetic Survey, Western District headquarters. Times and heights of tides at San Francisco (Golden Gate):

Sherlock Holmes Uncovers Foul Play At The Players' Table

"There is wickedness abroad, Watson," said Sherlock Holmes as he reached into his pocket for the handcuffs he always carried.

Opening lead — ♠ J

South refused the first and second spade tricks but had to win the third.

When the king of diamonds appeared South ran his nine tricks — five diamonds, two hearts and the two black aces.

PICK THE CRIMINAL

Read on only after you have made up your mind.

The crime occurred when South led the first diamond from his hand.

West must step up with the king of diamonds—or be branded as a criminal.

Declarer cannot afford to let West hold the king of diamonds, for then West would defeat the contract with the rest of the spades.

"Second hand low" is a good rule, but there are exceptions to all bridge rules.

DAILY QUESTION

♠ A 4 3
♥ A K J 9

♣ A J 9 4

What do you say?

Answer: Bid one club or one notrump.

Many experts refuse to open with one notrump when they hold two small cards in a suit.

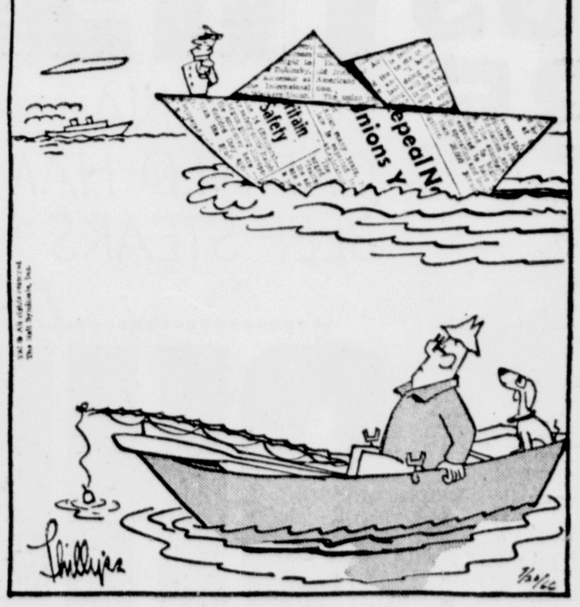

Others are willing to bid one notrump if the hand is otherwise ideal. An opening bid of one club is better than one heart because you are more likely to find out whether or not partner has diamonds if you open with one club.

WHERE'S SLUMP?

Corporate Profit Upswing Still On

By SAM DAWSON

NEW YORK (AP) — If the economy slowed down in the second quarter of 1966, it forgot to tell the bookkeepers of many of the nation's top corporations. Day after day, they are reporting that their companies made more money than last year, and in many cases netted larger profits than for any other three months in their history.

Corporate earnings statements for the first six months and for the April-June quarter are flooding in now. To the delight of most shareholders the profit harvest is bountiful —and for many so is the outpouring of dividends.

But all is not quite that serene up in the corporate executive suites. The record profits which U.S. industry apparently racked up in the second quarter—based on early returns—doubtless are being watched closely by an administration bent on discouraging price increases it deems unjustified.

Record profits also may serve as an inspiration for union officials seeking to get a bigger share of corporate revenues for workers in the form of higher wage scales.

But the profits themselves spell out a story of prosperity —and a business boom which has yet really to level off, and one that certainly still seems far from turning down.

The list of companies reporting that second quarter profits were the highest for any three months is a sizable one. Some of the companies are: Du Pont, IBM, General Foods, Reynolds Metals.

Record profits for any second quarter also are reported by: Xerox, Polaroid, U.S. Rubber, Westinghouse Electric, Allis Chalmers, Kaiser Aluminum, RCA, Continental Can, Georgia-Pacific, Mead Corp.

And then there's American Telephone and Telegraph. It's one of three companies that made more than a billion dollars in all of 1965. AT&T seems well on the way to setting a profits record this year. For the three months ending May 31 it reports profits of $495,233,000, up from $435,732,000 in the like period last year.

The other two companies making more than a billion last year are General Motors and Jersey Standard Oil.

Banks Propose Novato Branches

Two banks have applied to the United States comptroller of currency to establish branch offices in Novato.

Tiburon National Bank has applied for a branch in the Nave Shopping Center at South Novato Boulevard and Center Road.

Bank of America has filed an application for a branch in the proposed Novato Square Shopping Center at Grant Avenue and Highway 101.

Major Role For Dow In Kidney Design

WALNUT CREEK—The Dow Chemical Co.'s Walnut Creek research center here will play a major role in the development of an artificial kidney under a new government research contract.

A contract to conduct research and development on improvements of a design for an artificial kidney was recently awarded to Dow by the Public Health Service of the U. S. Department of Health, Education and Welfare.

Retiring

HONOLULU—Four veteran directors of Castle and Cooke, Inc. — A. L. Castle, H. K. L. Castle, E. E. Black and A. F. Stubenberg, all of Honolulu—will not stand for re-election at the annual stockholders' meeting in Honolulu Aug. 19.

Xerox Worst Loser In Low Market Close

Volume for the day was estimated at 5.2 million shares compared with 5.96 million Tuesday.

Here was the picture near the close:

Losses of fractions to a point or so outnumbered gains among the key stocks.

Xerox, continuing to show weakness, added 9 points to its loss of 10⅜ yesterday.

The decline in New York stocks followed a drop in the London stock market to a new low for the year.

Boeing, down nearly 2, looked like the most active stock, thanks primarily to trades of 113,600 and 19,400 shares.

Losses of a point or so were taken by Goodyear, General Dynamics, Anaconda, Homestake, Du Pont, General Electric, IBM, Pennsylvania Railroad, Texaco, Standard Oil of Indiana, American Airlines, TWA and Northwest Airlines.

A minority of issues bucked the trend in vigorous fashion. Chicago & Northwestern common and preferred rose well over 2 points each. Also up about 2 were Sanders Associates, General Instruments, McGraw-Hill and MSL Industries. KLM Airlines advanced more than 3.

News that Britain had adopted drastic austerity measures to support the pound sterling triggered selling. Previously, the market had been holding its own.

One of the worst losers was Xerox which added a decline of about 14 points to a loss of 10⅜ Tuesday.

Boeing, off a couple of points, was traded on some big blocks and was prominent on the list of volume leaders.

Cleaning Firm Operator Ready For Debut Of Uptown Branch

She will continue at 1615 Fourth Street, where she has been in business since 1962. Her operation is an independent one and is not connected in any way with the chain of Payless Cleaners establishments operating in other parts of the Bay Area.

Theron

EXPANSION still farther afield has been undertaken by Dell and Lucinda Shuttleworth, owners of Ludell's giftware shop at 909 Fourth Street, San Rafael.

They opened their first branch store in Grass Valley last week and will have to work out some kind of long distance commuting problem, since they intend to continue living in Marin. They have been in business in the county since 1950 — more than six years at the present San Rafael store.

PERHAPS the Shuttleworths should take a tip from Everett Stanlake of Novato, who is known as "the flying mortgage man."

Stanlake, vice president and manager of the Novato office of Sonoma Mortgage Corp., headquartered in Santa Rosa, uses the company's airplane to make frequent business trips among the firm's seven branches in Northern California, often managing to cover two or three offices a day and return home at night. Of course it's a natural means of transportation for him. A veteran flyer, he used to own the San Francisco Airport in San Rafael and later operated an airport in Santa Rosa.

He reports, by the way, that Sonoma Mortgage Corp. invested a total of $462,900 in Marin County during the six months ended May 31 — a substantial drop from the $1,049,800 placed during the same period a year ago and reflecting the curtailment in housing starts. Sources of Sonoma's monies are eastern savings banks and insurance companies.

FRANK P. THERON of Greenbrae, manager of Bank of America's San Anselmo branch for the past 30 years, will celebrate 45 years of service on July 25.

A native of San Francisco, he first worked for the bank part time after school and on Saturday, starting as a full-time employee in 1921. Among his administrative positions have been the assistant managership of the Fairfax office in 1934-36. Members of the San Anselmo office will honor him with a dinner party.

ASSOCIATED CONTRACTORS, developer of Cove Apartments, luxury complex at Greenwood Cove, Tiburon, is entering construction of its final 67 units, which will bring total apartments up to 284, ranging in size from three to six rooms, some on the water.

Completed are 119 units and an additional 98 units have just become available. It's estimated the entire development will be completed in another two years. John Hancock Mutual Life Insurance Co. is providing the $6,250,000 in financing.

TWO MARIN MEN are co-chairmen of the annaul national convention of the American Institute of Building Design to be held at the Jack Tar Hotel in San Francisco July 28-31—building designers Edward Hageman and Ray Hall. A special program for delegates' wives is being set up by woman's chairman Betty Hageman.

Some 400 leading designers throughout the west, along with leaders in the construction, engineering and decorator fields are expected to attend. Included in the three-day session will be the annual design competition, with awards in five major categories.
